WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, R.F.D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved.

Hebron, Me.—"Before taking your remedies I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my housework now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, Kennebago, Maine.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter wil be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

LEE'S RECORD BAD

Kent county has just been treated to one of the most remarkable spectacles of political effrontery that the game of politics has withessed in many a day, and one which the well-thinking people of Kent will not soon forget.

Blair Lee, or more likely his political manager, Bill Lamar, sent the celebrated "Cy" Cummings, who has been sojourning at the Panama Exposition at the expense of the State, and brought home, a distance of 3,000 miles, in a desperate effort to bolster up the bad record of Senator Lee on the oyster question. It must be apparent to everybody that the campaign of Senator Lee is in desperate straits. We have not desired to take up Senator Lee's record on the oyster question, but since he sees fit to open up that subject and force that issue we are more than ready to meet it. Senator Lee never seems to have understood the position of the oystermen or realized their necessities. This is the kindest way to put it since we find in his record that he voted for the Haman bill, and, worse even than that, we find him in 1912 voting for that law which really put the glaring teeth into the Haman law by enlarging the areas to be leased from 5 acres to 30 acres in the rivers, and from 100 to 500 acres in the bay. How "Cy" Cummings, or any other person, can justify such a record before the oyster people in this primary election is a matter beyond our conception.

Aside from this, to say the least, it is a farce for such a man as Andrew J. Cummings to be sent down here in an effort to deprive Mr. Harrington of the credit of a thing so splendidly conceived and accomplished as was the passage of the Sheppard law, under which 50,000 acres of oyster lands have been restored to the oystermen and Emerson C. Harrington, as hundreds of oystermen know, is entitled, above all other men, to the credit of the passage of this law. Every man at Annapolis last winter knows the fight that he made and won against what seemed at one time to be overwhelming odds. Then, too, it was Emerson C. Harrington, as a court room crowded with oystermen can testify, that appeared and assisted in the court house at Easton in the work of restoring to the oystermen the grounds which had been taken from them. Senator Lee happened to be in Easton on that day. He did not appear in the court room either to aid, assist, or encourage the hundreds of oystermen who were assembled there making their fight for the very bread and butter for themselves, their wives and children. Yet the Lee managers have seen fit to import from the far Western shore a man to do a thing that we believe no legislator from the tidewater counties would have the temerity to stand up and do. Such a performance can only make the oystermen more determined in their support of a man who has been their friend, not only in the legislature of 1914 but in every legislature and in every court where the oystermen's interests were at stake.

We do not imagine that the oystermen of Kent county can overlook such services and such friendship at the behest of a man who absolutely has no interest in them except to come here in a primary fight at the direction, probably, of "Bill" Lamar, and to sever the friendship that has long existed between Emerson C. Harrington and the oystermen from every section of this State. We believe in the integrity, the gratitude, and the fairness of our oyster people, and so believing feel that we know where their support will be in the primary election.

ANTHRAX has again broken out in Rich Neck, Queen Annes county, across the river from Chestertown. Five mules and cows died last week. Mr. W. Irving Walker lost a cow last week and has another cow sick. Mr. Charles McKee lost two mules, Mr. Robert Brown lost one cow, Mr. Seney lost a mule and Mr. Chas. Tucker lost a cow Monday night.

There are now twelve farms that have been affected since the discovery of the disease several months ago. All are in the Rich Neck district which borders on the Chester river. Up to this time twenty-three cows and ten horses and mules have died.

In the fight that is being made against the disease about 1100 animals have been inoculated. The animals affected have been treated with a serum prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture and have been treated largely by Dr. G. Allan Jarman, who diagnosed the disease in the first place. Soon Dr. Jarman discovered the first case the disease spread to seven farms. How it originated the experts have not determined, but it is believed it was brought into the State through a shipment of hay.
