AN APPRECIATIVE LISTENER

The singing of Miss Hamilton at the musicale and dance at the residence of Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, in Chestertown, on the 11th inst., given in aid of the purchase of a Lung Motor for the town, deserves more than a passing notice and higher criticism than the writer is competent to give.

To a voice of great purity, sweetness and power—one of the richest gifts of God to men and women—Miss Hamilton adds the magic effect of correct and careful train ng and the possession of youth and beauty, unspoiled by vanity or affectation. Truth, modesty and simplicity of character shone in every tone and feature, and as I listened to her liquid notes my lips instinctively whispered the words of Shelly, in his "Ode to a Skylark":

"Hail to thee, blithe spirit!
* * * * *
That from Heaven, or near it,
Pourest thy full heart
In profuse strains of unpremeditated art."

The profession which it is said she will adopt, and which, if she adopts, she is destined to adorn, offers great attractions, great rewards; and alas! great temptations. The best wish that can be made for the fullest measure of her success and lasting happiness in that profession, is that she may keep thro' life the charm that is now hers—

"Within her heart the dew of youth,
And on her lips the smile of truth."

And the highest tribute a stranger may pay to her contribution to the pleasure of the evening, is to say

"The music in my heart I bore
Long after it was heard no more."

RUN OVER BY CARRIAGE; DEAD

Mrs. Ellen W. Nichols Victim of Accident At Chestertown.

Mrs. Ellen Wright Nicols, widow of Richard Lloyd Nicols died Saturday night at the University Hospital from pneumonia following injuries she received last Thursday at the home of her son, Harry Nichols, near Chestertown. She was 79 years old.

At the time of the accident Mrs. Nicols had come to town for a visit to Mrs. George Westcott, in a carriage and had left the vehicle, but returned to get her satchel. She was standing between the wheels when the horse, worried by flies, backed. Mrs. Nicols was knocked down, the wheels passed over her body and the horse was about to step when she grabbed the animal's leg and held on until she could right herself sufficiently to roll away from the horse and vehicle.

When picked up it was found thnt her right leg was broken at the hip. She was carried to the house, where first aid was administerd by the family physician and she was brought to the city. Shortly after her arrival at the hospital pneumonia devolped. Mrs. Nicols was a remarkable woman for her age and up until the time of the accident was in good health and was active.

Born in Queen Anne's county, Mrs. Nicols enjoyed a large acquaintance throughout that section of the State. At the time of the accident her son, G. Wright Nicols, of 28 Somerset road, Roland Park, and his wife were at Clifton, near Boston, Mass. They received a telegram Friday and arrived at the hospital shortly before Mrs. Nicols died.

Mrs. Nicols also leaves another son, George B. Nicols, of 2119 N. Calvert street. She was a sister of the late Elizabeth Wright, who died seven years ago and a well-known writer. She used the pseudonym of "Old Hundred."

The body has been removed to 2119 N Calvert street, where services were held at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon. Burial in St. Paul's Church Cemetery, Kent County.

The pall bearers were: P A. M. Brooks, T. G. Wroth, G. B. Westcott, Chas M. Brown, Walter Francis, Chas. T. Rich. Undertaker W. T. Hicks.

MILLINGTON

Prof. Arthur L. Greenwood, principal of Millington High School, moved from Salisbury, Md., into the Hurlock house on East Cypress street on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Pearl Kellam, of Philadelphia, spent the past two weeks with Miss Ruby Ahern

Mrs. J. H. Bates visited friends in Baltimore last week.

Miss Helen Marshall returned last Monday to her home in Harrisburg, Pa. after spending some time with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. J E. Bailey.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church met on Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. C. M. Hurtt.

Millington Council, No. 80, D. of A., met in regular form on Wednesday evening, Sept. 8th, to transact business and to entertain the State Councilor and State Vice-Councilor, of Maryland. The Councilor, Sister Sallie Merchant, conducted the routine of business in a creditable manner and while Millington Council is only ten months old, it is a fine little Lodge and bids fair to being a most progressive Council. The Visitors present were State Councilor, Sister Leona LeBrun, State Vice-Councilor, Sister Annie Conaway and State Outside Sentinel, Sister Lorena Knight. A large number of members were present to greet the Sisters. After the meeting closed refreshments were served. The State officers were entertained by Sister Ida B. Numbers.

Mr. F. C. Numbers, Jr spent a few days last week with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, and while there attended the reunion of the graduates of Mt. Airy School for Deaf.

Mrs. James Moore spent last Tuesday with Mrs. Thos. Donahoe, near Massey.

AGOOD SHOW

The La Tena's Animal Circus Was No Disappeintmenl.

Lebanon, N. H. Press.

La Tena's Animal circus showed to two good audiences on Tuesday, and the whole story is really told in saying they pleased and satisfiied oudiences. The parade at 10.30 was sufficient promise of fulfilment of their bill work do draw the crowds.

What they had in the way of standard circus—flying trapeze, horizontal bar, contortion and riding—was high class, and they had an aggregation of clowns that were awfully funny in their team work. But La Tena will be remembered longest in Lebanon for the trained animals, which were a predominating feature. Remarkable intelligence was shown by elephants, bears lions, dogs and ponies, but the most wonderful as well as the most novel feature was the trained seals.

It was altogether a clean show, which some were gland to see twice the same day. Chestertown, Sept. 26, 1915.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.
