TWO COUNTY CLERKS DIE ON SAME DAY

E. A. Toadvine, Of Wicomico and W. L. Robinson, Of Dorchester Are Dead.

Two county courts clerk died Monday one of them, Ernest A. Toadvine of Wicomico county, was a candidate to succeed himself at Tuesday's primary election. He dropped dead. The other, W. Lake Robinson o' Dorchester county, was to have retired at the end of his present term. He was a victim of Bright's disease.

Ernest A. Toadvine, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Wicomico County, according to a dispatch from Salisbury, dropped dead at his home at 10 o'clock. Mr. Toadvine had been complaining in health recently, but his condition was not considered serious.

At the time of his death the deceased was a candidate to succeed himself and his nomination was being opposed by J. Clayton Kelly, but Mr. Toadvine was assured the nomination by the Democratic party, as all elements of his party were solidly behind him.

As the primary election will be held Tuesday, his name will stil appear on the ticket that have already been distributed throughout the county, and there is some question involved in the legal status of those voting for Mr. Kelly and Mr. Toadvine.

Mr. Toadvine had been connected with the clerk's office for 37 years.

W. Lake Robinson, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Dorchester county, and for eight years chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, died at 10 o'clock Monday morning at Appleby, near Cambridge, of Bright's disease, says a dispatch from Cambridge. A widow, who was Miss Florence Hubbard; two brothers and four sisters survived.

He was first vice-president of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank. Was engaged in the wood and coal business and fire insurance, and was a large land owner and dealer. He was 54 years old.

Kent's schools opened Monday for the fall term. There have been comparatively few changes in the teaching staff of the county and schools will probably open with good attendance.

Commencing next Monday, the boat will leave Chestertown at 8 a. m., instead of 7 a. m., on the usual days, and will leave Baltimore at 11 a. m. on usual days for Chestertown. See adv.

GALENA

The buildings at Lambson station have been very much improved this week by pretty new paint.

Olivet M. E. Chapel is being papered and painted.

The base ball game between Galena and Middletown, brought quite a crowd of people to town. Score was 22 to 7 in favor of Galena.

Rev. W. G. Harris, of Frankford, Del. and Rev. Milton McCann, of Smyrna, Del., were in town Wednesday on Conference Epworth League business.

Miss C. M. Dempsey attended the District Epworth League Cabinet meeting at Clayton on Monday.

Mr. George Holding, who has been quite sick, is better at this writing. Mrs. Holding, who was visiting relatives down the county, was summoned home on account of the illness of her husband.

Mr. Theodore Dempsey spent Monday with friends at Smyrna, Del.

The road to Lambson, which has been spoken of as "the worst road in the county," may soon be called "the best" we trust. Any way things are moving that way.

Quarterly meeting will be held at Olivet M. E. Chapel; Monday morning, September 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Marks, of Baltimore, are visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George E. Jones.

Miss Fanny Wood, who has been spending the summer in Wilmington, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Amos Harrington and little son, James, of Wilmington, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wood.

Miss Elizabeth Jarman, who has been visiting friends in Baltimore, returned home on Saturday.

Mr. Wm. Holding, of Calvert, Md., is spending a short time in town.

Miss Jeanette Bonwell, of Locust Grove, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Ella Whitaker.

Mrs. John Vansant has gone to the bedside of her mother, who is very ill at Cherry Hill.

Miss Esther Spear, of Millington, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. Mattox, has returned to her home.

The best base ball team ever organized in upper Kent was seen in operation at Galena Friday, Sept. 10, when it sent the strong Middletown aggregation down to defeat by the score of 20 to 8. Finn, who was on the mound for the visitors, was unable to produce a mixture of curves, drops, speed balls and in fact nothing that would puzzle the batters for the home team. As it was only the third game out of nineteen that he has lost this season, speaks well for Galena.

The same team with two positions strengthened, will cross bats with the fast Elkton team at Galena to-day, Saturday, Sept. 18. The Elkton team is a first division team of the Delaware and Maryland League, while Galena will have Horsey of the New England League, Hach, the famous catcher for the University of Penn., Clift Hoover, Lit Crew and other prominent ball players. Anyone wishing to see a good game of base ball can not afford to miss seeing this game as the teams will be more evenly matched than they were last Friday.

Mr. Thomas V. Kibler, of Chestertown, who played for Easton in the Peninsula League, in seventeen games had 99 put outs and assists, five errors, for a percentage of 952, while he was at bat 60 times, making 20 hits, a percentage 333. Jack Enright did not do so well as was expected of him, pitching in hard luck continually. He won 3 and lost 4 games, had 39 strike-outs and gave 15 bases on balls.

THE Denny assault case has been set for trial at Elkton on Sept. 24.

ROCK HALL

The St. John R. C. Society seems to have broken all record of their famous annual festival and supper affair on Saturday night in attendance, attractions, management and finances. Their net proceeds we hear was about $250.

Mr. J. Frank Wheatley and daughter, Miss Flora, came in on Saturday evening and tarried over Sunday with the boy and his better half. Frank and son took an automobile outing Sunday afternoon for the purpose of cheering the "girls" who seemed to be lonely, by getting them in close touch with nature.

Well, the primary campaign is a thing of the past. May we never have another like it in length and feeling. Tuesday's result is a happy outcome to many of us in this section, and a decided disappointment to many more. Let us grin and bear it, letting bygones be bygones, and let us grab the same end of the rope for "a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether," for the best interests of the county and state in the coming campaign to end Nov. 2nd. Just think, after all the spell binding and hot air we have just passed through the Direct Legislation League of Md. wants to send a spell binder here to discuss the proposed four amendments to the Constitution to be voted for at the coming election. Some of the fraternal orders to which this appeal has been made, have notified the League Secretary of our tired feeling owing to the hot air we have passed through and that which we must endure the next six weeks, and if they could get any encouragement from this all right, come any Saturday night and we'll give them respectful hearing.

The P. O. S. of A. Camp are formulating a membership campaign for the near future. Come out, camp boys, and get in the swim, it will do you good.

Miss Myrtle Taylor and Mr. Melvin Rodney embarked on the good ship matrimony on Wednesday evening for a life's journey and everybody in this section wish them a long and blissful travel. To that end the young men gave them a rousing send off with a serenade.

Hurrah! for our next governor, the Hon. E. C. Harrington. The organization people did not do so much talk, but they must have been putting in some pretty strong licks just the same.

Mr. Roy Elliott and family have removed to Chester, where Mr. Elliott has a position.

Miss Irene Pithian is spending some time in Baltimore with her grandmother Mrs. Boyd, who is very ill.

Miss Isabelle Jones, one of our charming down the county girls, will go to Baltimore this Friday to enter the State Normal school.

Mrs. Earl T. Ingram and twe children have returned to their home in Richmond, Va., after having spent five weeks with the home folks.

Miss Lillian Coleman, of near Rock Hall, is ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Elwood Burgess spent a short time in Baltimore the past week.

Mr. Daniel McLain spent the past week with friends in Church Hill.

Mr. Mike Blank, of Baltimore, spent three days with his uncle Mr. A. Stein.

Mrs. Geo. Cosden has returned home after a lengthy visit to her daughters.

Complying with the law, a guard railing has been placed at the foot of main railing of Chester River bridge. The object of this is to keep autos and teams from getting too close to the railing of the bridge.

At a meeting of the official board of the M. E. Church Monday evening Dr. L. E. Barrett announced his intention of leaving at the end of this year, in spite of the fact that he was unamously requested to return for the eighth year. Dr. Barrett is one of the most popular pastors that ever filled a pulpit here and it is to be hoped that he will change his mind and continue his pastorate here.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., Pastor. Services next Sunday, Sept. 19th, as follows. 10 30 a. m., preaching by the pastor; 2 15 p. m., Sabbath School and pastors Bible Class; 7 to 8 p. m., Epworth League Song Service followed by short sermon by the Pastor. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7. 30. All invited.

Miss Minnie Hicks, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hicks, made an interesting address before the Epworth League of the M. E. Church Sunday evening. Miss Hicks has recently returned from the Panama Exposition and in her address she told of the beauties that were to be encountered on her trip.

STILL POND

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stanley.

Mr. Howard Johnston, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of Dr. W. S. Maxwell.

Miss Harrison, of Baltimore, spent the past week with her friend, Miss Florence Harper.

Mrs. John Hurlock and daughters, Catherine and Sara, are visiting her mother, Mrs. M. J. Howard.

Miss Hetty Jarrell is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarrell.

A series of sermons will be preached in the Still Pond Methodist Church by Rev. Ranson P. Nichols beginning next Sunday morning, Sept. 19th. The first of the series will be "Why I am a Christian"; followed by "Why I Am a Methodist" and "Why I Am a Preacher." Sunday evening Dr. Watt will occupy the Still Pond pulpit.

Mrs. John M. Kinsey and daughter, Florence, have returned home after visiting relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Harper spent the week-end with Mrs. Harper's parents at Claymont, Del.
