5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

1. HODGDON, ME.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."—MRS. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Me.

2. SHELBYVILLE, KY.—"I suffered from a severe female trouble. My right side hurt me badly—it was finally decided that I must be operated upon. When my husband learned this he got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking it a few days I got better and continued to improve until I am now well."—MRS. MOLLIE SMITH, R.F.D., Shelbyville, Ky.

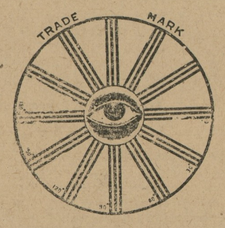

3. HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a severe operation, but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it."—MRS. ADA WILT, 303 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa.

4. DECATUR, ILL.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation as I had something growing in my left side. I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I tell other women what it has done for me."—MRS. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2437 East William Street, Decatur, Ill.

5. CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I was very irregular and for several years my side pained me so that I expected to have to undergo an operation. Doctors said they knew of nothing that would help me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I became regular and free from pain. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1568 Constant St., Cleveland, O.

SENATOR SMITH AT WHITE HOUSE

Maryland Victor Gets Cordial Greeting—Secretary McAdoo Promises To Aid in October Campaign—Warmly Congratulated on Result of Primary Fight With Blair Lee.

Washington September 17.—Senator John Walter Smith, accompanied by United States District Attorney Dennis, was in Washington today. He called at the White House and at several of the departments, principally in the interest of various constituents.

Everywhere Senator Smith was warmly congratulated on the result of the recent primary contest in Maryland, which was recognized in Washington as a test of strength between Senator Smith and Senator Blair Lee. His greeting at the White House was particularly cordial, and he remained there longer today than on any previous visit. At the Treasury Department Senator Smith obtained the promise of Secretary McAdoo to take part in the campaign, which is expected to begin early in October.

Today was Senator Smith's first visit to Washington in many months. He did not care to discuss the recent fight, except to say that it was one of the hottest contests in which he ever took part, and that he felt correspondingly gratified at the splendid victory by which his friends in Maryland had sustained him.
