IMPERIAL HOTEL RENTED

Health Matters Discussed By Federated Club—Condition of Milk Supply—New Project Proposed.

The first fall meeting of the Federated Club was held at the Rest Room on Wednesday afternoon, about thirty-five members being present. Dr. Billingslea of the State Board of Health came by train especially to address this meeting.

The Federated Club in connection with the Civic League of Baltimore had Dr. Barlow, a Hopkins medical student, come to Chestertown in July to inspect and make a bacteriological test of the milk supply of Chestertown. At this time the milk was found to be in a very unsanitary condition. Dr. Billingslea was sent by the State Board of Health to follow up the inspection made by Dr. Barlow and they recommended numbers of changes to bring the milk up to the proper standard.

The Federated Club by frequent interviews and continued correspondence have succeeded in getting numerous inspections from the State Board of Health to these herds and at last feel rewarded by having Dr. Billingslea tell them the herds are now in very good condition, the unhealthy cattle having been removed entirely and that the milk is now being handled in a very sanitary manner.

Besides the work of the summer, the ladies have had the Md. Del. and Va. Steamboat Co. plant a beautiful bed of shrubbery on the wharf at the foot of Main street with a neat fence around it. They have had the St. Paul's trees doctered by a tree surgeon, expending quite a sum of money, collected mostly out of the county. They have maintained the Rest Room at an expense of $80. They gave a luncheon at the expense of $40 to promote the club spirit and they have purchased a lung motor, the original cost of which was $150, but purchasing it through a physician they obtained it for $135. The ladies have collected and paid $75, one half the cost of the machine, and they have $34 in hand to pay on the last half, which makes $26 still to be paid. Altogether the Federated Club has collected and spent over $500 in Chestertown in six months, although it was done very quietly.

A new project the club will undertake next spring is to rent the Imperial hotel. Mr. Hubbard having agreed to remove the present roof and tear out all the partitions on third floor and raise the height of the building to be in proportion with a room 60 ft. by 35 ft. A new floor will be laid for dancing and a back wing built to furnish a large stage with dressing rooms and serving room. The second floor will be made into attractive rooms for auto parties and the first floor will be a woman's exchange. The assembly room will be used as a social centre for lectures on all social questions, musicals, dancing and high class entertainments also as a restaurant where good things to eat can be had as well as a club room. The ladies feel this is a big undertaking but it will give them a club home, a place of amusement for the town and they can make enough money to carry on their various social interests.

BAKE.

The ladies of Sacred Heart Church will hold a "Bake" at Mr. W. W. Clayton's store on High street, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9TH from 2 to 4 P. M. Come get your pies and cakes for Sunday. 2t

DEATHS

Mrs. Minnie Maslin, widow of the late Wallace M. Maslin, died suddenly Thursday night at the home of her son, Miller, on High street, aged 65. Mrs. Maslin retired at her accustomed hour feeling as well as usual and was awakened about 11 o'clock with heart trouble. The doctor was summoned and hypodermics used but the patient refused to rally and died about 2 A. M.

We have known her all our lives and can only speak good of her. She was a grand good woman. A woman who loved her church as a mother loves her child and she never failed to be present whenever the doors were open. She enjoyed her religion and was a strong, sweet singer. Her presence and voice will be sadly missed in Christ M. P. Church.

The deceased was a sister to Mr. Wm. B. Coleman and leaves three sons, Miller, Clyde and Snowden

The funeral will take place at 3 30 P. M., Sunday at Christ M. P. Church, interment in Chester Cemetery, Dr. W. R. Graham officating; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

George M. Porter died on Wednesday at his home in Worton after a long illness in his 76th year. He was a well-known resident of Kent, a man of jovial disposition, eccentric to a remarkable extent and of marked intelligence. Church, interment in Union Cemetery. Revs. White and Clews officiating. The bearers were Messrs. Samuel and Harry Cooper, John W. Carter, J. W. Ivens, H. I. Parsons and James Sheats; C. L. Mrs. Blackiston since the death of her husband, had been conducting her store near Rock Hall until failing health compelled her to take to her bed five weeks ago. Mrs. Crouch moved her to her home where she could more tenderly administer to her suffering. Mrs. Blackiston was the daughter of the late George and Mary Leary. She leaves one son and one daughter, Columbus A. and Mrs. Charles Crouch, three brothers, Isaac L., James and Origan P. Leary. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Rock Hall Adventist Church of which the deceased had been a member. Services were conducted by Elder Shadel; Casey & Bro. undertakers.
