HARRINGTON starts the campaign with the confidence of the people.

THE big mass-meeting in Chestertown will be held on Monday, October 26th. Get ready for it.

MAYOR PRESTON, of Baltimore, has come out heartily for Harrington, Ritchie and McMullen the Democratic nominees.

CLUB after club is being organized in Baltimore for Harrington, McMullen and Ritchie, which shows that the Democrats are out for victory in November.

A BOY from Howard county has won the medal for corn-growing having raised 150 bushels off an acre. Kent boys can beat this if they would only try!

THE notification meeting in Baltimore Monday was attended by Democrats from all parts of the State. Kent was well represented. Considerable enthusiasm was noted and the Democratic standard bearers start with rosy outlook.

SENATOR LEE says, "I am going to vote for Mr. Harrington because I am loyal to the will of the majority. The future of the state depends now upon the conduct of all parties to this great primary fight within the party."

THE registered vote in Kent previous to this year was 4277. Of these there were 2530 affiliated as Democrats and 1689 Republicans; 77 declined, &c. There were 1433 colored. If all the colored, without exception, are Republicans, then there were only 259 white Republicans in Kent!

HENRY W. WILLIAMS, who is, perhaps, as thoroughly independent in his Democracy as any man in Baltimore, and who was a strong supporter of Blair Lee in the recent primary, declares himself as strongly favor of the election of Mr. Harrington, and writes a strong letter, giving good reasons.

THE Republicans in the State admit that the Democrats beyond a doubt will have a majority in the Legislature. Then why not elect a Democratic Governor so that the reforms so much needed may be put in force? Here is a potent reason even for Republicans to vote for Harrington. If they are sincere in wanting reforms, here's your chance to get them.

AN ANSWER TO ENEMIES

Hon. Emerson C. Harrington, in his address Monday accepting the Democratic nomination for Governor, refuted the claims of his enemies in this ringing paragraph:

"Shall Maryland Be True?"

"The eyes of the Democracy of our country will be turned to Maryland in the coming contest. Shall Maryland be true to her colors? On her soil was nominated Woodrow Wilson, and by 55,000 plurality Maryland rallied beneath his standard. We must win this year so that the Democracy of Maryland, with renewed vigor and with our colors flying from the head of every department of our State, may take a leading part in renominating and re-electing our great President.

"If elected Governor, I shall devote my whole time to the performance of my duties, and have but one object in view, and that is, with all the ability at my command and as God gives me light, to serve the best interests of all the people of our State fearlessly, with fairness to all and with injustice to none."

THE Baltimore Sun a few days ago called attention to the fact that the President of the Senior Class of the Law Department, W. L. Baldwin, of Chestertown, the vice-president, W. D. Allen, of Towson, and the Historian, A. W. Pardew, of Union Bridge, are all graduates of Washington College, and all members of the class of 1913. In addition to these, George C. Reier, of Glenann, a member of the same class, and J. R. Branham, a member of the class of 1914, both of whom are now students at Johns Hopkins University, have been recommended to the trustees of that institution for scholarships in the depar ment of Engineering for the year 1915-16. This is so notable an incident as to warrant public notice, and is creditable alike to these young gentlemen and to the college.

REPUBLICANS DIVIDED

The Organ of The Party In Kent Starts A Crusade Against The Present Management — A Change In Local Ticket

All is not serene in the Republican camp in Kent, and a well-known fact is herein proven, viz., "a house divided against itself must fall." Of course the Democrats simply look on at the squabble and are pleased at a division on this the very eve of an important campaign. It seems as if there are elements in the party who would like to overthrow the present management lead by John D. Urie, Esq., John C. Davis, T. H. M. Bramble, Henry Yorker and others.

The Enterprise, which is the Republican organ in Kent, has been waging a relentless warfare against the "Powers that be" and in its last issue puts up a ticket which it even labels as opposed to the present management of the party in Kent. A number of changes in the personnel of the ticket is made. John D. Urie, Esq., withdraws as a candidate for State's Attorney for various reasons which are good and sufficient to himself. There are no nominations for Judges of Orphans Court against Messrs. J. H. Simpers, J. Henry Thompson and Dr. E. A. Scott. Messrs. T. H. M. Bramble and Chas. S. Smith have withdrawn as candidates for county commissioners and their places taken by Messrs. Olin S. Davis, of Galena, and Carey W. Reinhart, of Fairlee. The ticket as now completed is as follows:

For State Senator, Henry Brown.
For the House of Delegates, Harry Willis and Herbert A. Urie.
For Clerk of Circuit Court, A. Parks Rasin.
For Register of Wills, Robert R. Hill.
For County Treasurer, Howard F. Owens.
For Sheriff, Owen C. Smith.
For County Commissioners, John N. Bennett, Olin S. Davis, Carey W. Reinhart.

The Democrats have about 800 majority according to the affiliated vote so that the above group of Republican candidates should be beaten just that much. Now, if the Republican organ succeeds in driving away from the support of its ticket that element in his party which he is fighting, then the Democrats should get an overwhelming majority. KEEP it UP, please.

The Democrats have had their fight BEFORE the primary, and are now busy working together for the ticket. A contest among the Republican factions at this time will lend some spice and excitement to the campaign.

WILSON WILLING TO AID

President, Looking Foward to National Campaign, Desires Big Victory For Harrington.

It is likely that President Wilson, will make at least one speech in Maryland in behalf of Democratic State ticket.

An intimation to this effect came from the White House following a visit there of Senator Ollie James, of Kentucky, who urged the Executive to deliver a speach in support of former Congressman Stanley, Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky.

President Wilson gave Senator James no definite promise, but let it be understood that if he found it possible to do so, he would take part in the Kentucky campaign this fall, either by taking the stump or by writing a letter, which could be made public.

Looking Foward to 1916.

And in this connection it was stated at the White House that the President has exactly the same interest in the success of the Maryland ticket. These states will elect Governors at the same time, which is only a few months before the opening of the next Presidential campaign.

The whole Washington administration realizes the importance of carrying these two Democratic states. To lose them, or either of them, at such a time would, Democratic leaders believe, have an unfortunate effect upon the coming national campaign. The impression would instantly go abroad that the dominant party had lost the country's confidence.

For these reasons, if for no other, the President is anxious to assist the Maryland and Kentucky tickets and stands ready, it is stated, by his advisers, to give them the weight of his indorsement in any manner that he may find it possible to act.

Want Big Majority.

It will not be enough, as administration people see it, for the Maryland and Kentucky tickets to win. They must win by good, healthy majorities if their victories are to have the best effect upon the country as a whole. The majorities of Senators Lee and Smith, for instance, showed a sweeping Democratic sentiment in the State, and it is hoped that Harrington may also win by a very substantial margin.

Just what action the President will take with regard to the Maryland fight is a matter for future determination. He has not consulted directly with any of the Maryland State leaders and will make no move until he does. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo will speak in behalf of Mr. Harrington in any event, and perhaps other national figures will take part in the campaign.

WILSON TO VOTE FOR SUFFRAGE

President Wilson on Wednesday declared his intention of voting for woman suffrage October 19, and national suffrage leaders declare it is the beginning of the end of opposition to votes for women. They said it made success in New Jersey practically certain, and New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania very proable.

The President authorized the following announcement:

"I intend to vote for woman suffrage in New Jersey because I believe that the time has come to extend that privilege and responsibility to the women of the States, but I shall vote, not as the leader of my party in the nation, but only upon my private conviction as a citizen of New Jersey called upon by the Legislature of the State to express his convictions at the polls.

"I think that New Jersey will be very greatly benefited by the change. My position with regard to the way in which this great question should be handled is well known. I believe that it should be settled by the States and not by the national government, and that in no circumstances should it be made a party question, and my view has grown stronger at every turn of the agitation."

CLEAN CANDIDATES

"In Mr. Harrington, Mr. Ritchie and Mr. McMullen, the Democrats have candidates who are clean, square, capable and in complete sympathy with the platform and its pledges. Their records, public and private, are good. Their character and ability are unquestionably high and the method of their nomination and the result of the primaries remove the machine issue.

"As The Sun sees it, there exists no reason why the Democratic ticket should not be supported by the independent voters of the city and State. Mr. Weller is a man of fine character and ability; his purposes are high and good, but those who face conditions as they are must be convinced that, if elected Governor, he will not be in the position to accomplish as much for the State as will Mr. Harrington. He would lack the material in his own party to fill all the offices as he would like to fill them. He would lack the power and the instruments to put progressive ideas into effect. He woud stand alone and the State would stand still, save as it was pushed forward by a Democratic Legislature, weakened through the lack of a sympathetic executive of its own party and by the opportunity to divide or shirk responsibility.

In view of all the facts, it seems clear that the interests of the State and the hope of accomplishing the really big things that have been pledged by both parties this time will best be furthered by the election of Harrington, Ritchie and McMullin as well as a Democratic Legislature."

Ralston Smiles

Be not misled, oh patient men, by stunts which dot this mortal ken. For instance, windows hung with shoes, may only prove a clever ruse. It's not by NUMBER you must judge—to bulky stocks we say:—"Oh Fudge!" No gaudy bunch of "highs" and "lows" will bring a weary foot repose.

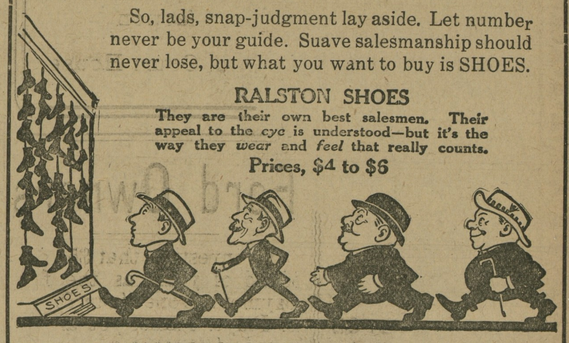

Look deeper than this surface stuff—the window show is not enough. Demand to show whose MAKE of shoe is being handed out to you. The name upon th' blooming sole is what may comfort and console. For built-in quality, b'gad, is no mere passing window fad. You men who judge too much by LOOKS, had better study up your books. A single Ralston on display, means more than windows bright and gay. The "feel," the "look," the "lines," the "last," we think will never be surpassed.

So, lads, snap-judgment lay aside. Let number never be your guide. Suave salesmanship should never lose, but what you want to buy is SHOES.
