

Shall It Be an Autoloading or Pump Gun?

THERE are many kinds of Autoloading and Pump guns—some to be had at very low prices.

But it is typical of sportsmen that the great majority prefer Remington-UMC Pump and Autoloading guns in the hands of the average man.

If you shoot at traps or in the field, go to the Remington-UMC Dealer in your community and let him show you these guns. You will know him by his display of the Red Ball Mark of Remington-UMC—Sportsmen's Headquarters—and he knows the difference in guns.

PRIMARY EXPENDITURES

Reports Filed By Agents Show Senator Lee's Son Gave $25,369—$18,764.15 Expended in City—$1,000 In Kent.

The report of Edgar N. Ash, treasurer of the Lee Campaign Committee of Baltimore, filed Monday in the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court, shows receipts and disbursements of $18,764,15. Reports were filed by Clarence K. Bowie, political agent for Senator Lee, which, with the Ash report, showed the total expenditures of Lee campaigners to have been $31.993.13.

Of the $18,764,15 reported by Mr. Ash, $14,200 came from Clarence K. Bowie, State treasurer for Lee, and $3,500 was advanced by Mayor Preston, as a loan. The Mayor's contribution was $274,15.

Other contributors were: B. Howard Haman, $300; J. M. Littig, $250; S. S. Field, $150; Richard Bernard, $50; John H. Morgan, $25; J. T. Murrill, $10; and William Cutair, $5.

Including the return of the Mayor's $3,500, the principal disbursements were $500, to each of the 24 ward subtreasurers. Other disbursements were for postage, ward meetings, clerical hire and typewriting.

Accompanying the report were the reports of the 24 ward subtreasurers, showing the disbursement of the money given them.

As Mr. Lee's State treasurer, Mr. Bowie received and disbursed $26,739,-98. Senator Lee contributed $1,200 of the sum; his son, E. Brooke Lee, $25,-369.98; Arthur W. Machen, Jr., $150, and several others, $20.

The disbursements were $14,200 to Edgar N. Ash, Baltimore treasurer, and the following to the county treasurers: Harry Berwager, Carroll, $1,500; William S. Gordy, Wicomico, $500; James S. Smith, Anne Arundel, $1,500; John B. Gray Calvert, $600; Thomas Cooper, Talbot, $700; George Osthein, Harford, $950; William D. McKenny, Queen Anne's $800; Emerson Crothers, Cecil, $450; R. H. Collins, Kent, $1,000; J. Rowland Duke, St. Mary's, $500; Richard Talbott, Howard, $400, and a few others.

Harrington's Treasurers, H. A. Joyce And C. T. Crane, Report.

$37,923 Was Contributed—Kent Got $500.

Statements filed Monday by Hazelton A. Joyce, treasurer for Emerson C. Harrington in the latter's campaign for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Maryland and Charles T. Crane, treasurer of the Harrington-Ritchie-McMullen campaign committee for Baltimore city, show that the two treasurers expended a total of $37,615.21 for expenses in connection with the recent primaries.

The subscriptions to Mr. Harrington's personal campaign amounted to $17,-364 85, the treasurer, Mr. Joyce, having a balance of $508.09 on hand after the primaries. The principal contributions to this fund came from Mr. Harrington himself, who gave $1,500; his brother, B. E. Harrington, $3,350; Senator John Walter Smith, $3 000; F. E. Waters, $1,-750; J. H. Wheelwright, $1,250; Charles T. Crane, treasurer, $1 200, and D. F. McMullen, Sr., $1,000.

Mr. Crane's report, which was filed in Baltimore, showed that the Harrington-Ritchie-McMullen campaign committee for Baltimore city received and expended $20,558 45.

The committee was in existence 13 weeks, and from its inception waged a vigorous campaign throughout the city. The amount expended is considered reasonable when it is recalled that the municipal campaign last spring, although only of four weeks' duration, cost in the neighborhood of $43,000, and it is well known that a primary contest under the present law is equally as expensive as a general campaign.

The money was spent for the maintenance of headquarters in various wards, for meetings, advertising, clerk hire and every other feature that goes to make up a political contest. On primary election day the committee spent $7,396 in getting out the vote.

The largest contributor was Frank A. Furst, Chairman of the committee, who took a most prominent part in the campaign not only in the city but throughout the State. Mr. Furst gave $7,396. Other large contributors were John M. Dennis, $4,000; Gen. Francis E. Waters, $2,000; United States Senator, John Walter Smith, $1,500; Jere H. Wheelwright, 1,000; Albert C. Ritchie, $750; Harry B. Wolf, $500; Collector of the

Lay-to for a spell and swing on this:

You'll start an old-pal-party via a pipe or a makin's cigarette quick as a flash, as soon as you realize it's a live bet to let your good money rub up against some Prince Albert tobacco. Why, it's like beating back to the bushes for old-home week, P. A.'s so friendly, so chummy-like.

You see, Prince Albert lets you hear the song of the joy'us jimmy pipe and the makin's cigarette all the day long! The patented process takes care of that—and cuts out the bite and parch!

PRINCE ALBERT

just hands you home-made questions like these: Were you ever pipe-happy? Did you ever hit a brand that just pushed pleasure against your palate? The kind that sort of teased your smokeappetite for some more fire-up, then another—and so on, right to the pillow-period!

Well, that's P. A., no matter how you hook it up—pipe or cigarette. It just-jams-joy into your system! You nail that fact hot off the bat, because it's case-cards information! And handed out to you for personal and immediate attention as being about as real and true as you've heard since Hector was a pup!

P. A. is sold in the toppy red bag for the price of a jitney ride, 5c; tidy red tin, 10c; pound and half-pound tin humidors—and—the classy pound crystal-glass humidor with the sponge-moistener top that's not only a joy'us thing to have at home and at the office, but it keeps P. A. in the highest state of perfection.
