Rally Day was observed in Salem M. E. Church on Sunday night and was well attended. The program rendered by the school was well done. A very pretty feature of the exercises was the presentation by the pastor to four of the pupils with a gold pin for being present every Sunday for a whole year. Those who received them were Pauline and Mildred Hoyle, Raymond Sparks and Malcom Barnes. Rev. Frank White, of Cordova, who is visiting his father, the pastor of the church, made an address.

Mr. Albert Lewis, who is ill in the hospital at Easton is somewhat improved.

Mr. Harry Hoyle, "our village blacksmith," is having the finishing touches put on his new residence and will occupy it in the near future. A nice addition to our village.

Mrs. Skirven has improved her groperty by a new fence, cement pavement, etc.

The new firm of Bramble, Kilbourn & Noland are putting in a very attractive stock of new goods in their store.

The ladies of Fairlee and vicinity are very busy preparing for their annual Bazaar and Supper which will be held on the 22nd of October and they expect it to be the very best one yet held.

The Fall Rally of Union M. E. Church and S. S. will be held in Worton next Sunday afternoon at 2 30.

Preaching at 10 45 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. at Fairlee Church.

GET TOGETHER DEMOCRATS

A Well-Known Citizen Calls on Democrats To Bury Past Difference And Elect the Ticket

The following communication, by Mr. E. Lee LeCompte was published in a recent issue of the Baltimore Sun: It is very important we should elect every Democratic candidate in our State this year, not only the State ticket in full, but also every county official, and by so doing show to the country at large that we as citizens of Maryland appreciate our noble President, Mr. Wilson, and the manner in which he has handled the ship of State since he was placed at the helm.

On September 14 we held a State-wide primary; the verdict of the people by an overwhelming majority was rendered and the delegates to the convention held in Baltimore on September 23 were instructed to cast their votes for the nomination of the Hon. Emerson C. Harrington for Governor, Albert C. Ritchie for Attorney-General and Hugh A. McMullen for Comptroller. We have in these men three of the best our party has ever had the pleasure of offering the voters for any office. They were nominated in a square and open primary and every Democrat in the State should put his shoulders to the wheel and be proud of the opportunity to help elect such men to office.

Mr. Emerson C. Harrington I have had the pleasure of knowning for years, and I feel sure he will make the State of Maryland one of the best Governors, if not the best Governor, we have ever had. Mr. Harrington has the necessary ability and knowledge of State affairs and will administer public affairs in the interest of all the people, and not any one set of men, as he knows no boss but his God. His term as Comptroller has proved to the public that he would do only what was right, even in the face of opposition from some of the leaders of his party. He has studied finance and is the man to put the laws into effect reducing expense in State management.

Brother Democrats, if some of your friends, in your estimation, have not treated you right, go to them, have a heart to-heart talk with them, and I dare say you and the parties you now consider your enemies can shake hands and bury your difference and begin friendship anew. There should be no excuse for any man in Maryland calling himself a Democrat not to be proud of our ticket and voting and working for the election of the same. Again, brother, I say to you, get right with your party, and on November 2, when the smoke of battle has cleared away, we will have elected the Hon. Emerson C. Harrington as Governor of Maryland by the largest majority ever given any candidate for any office within the gift of the voters of our State, and the whole Democratic ticket in proportion. State and counties alike."
