The lecturer is untiring in her efforts to make this grange one of the best and the other officers are aiding her greatly, thus showing their appreciation of her good work, and the members are not slow in doing their part. Next Friday night, Oct. 22, this grange proposes holding a pie social in the hall to which all are cordially invited. This is the first affair of this kind that we have ever had and we desire a good attendance. So let every one come and bring a friend. The meeting next Monday night as usual at 7.30 p. m. Be on hand to help, at least by your presence.

CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday was Rally Day in Christ Church. Dr. W. R. Graham preached two splendid sermons while the Young People's service was lead in an admirable manner by Miss Marghuerita Dodd. The Sunday School rallied in a grand way and nearly all the classes showed renewed vigor. A special program "To The Work" prepared by the Board of Young People's Union was used which included stirring songs accompanied by orchestra composed of Prof. Pearson, Merritt Twilley and James Crouch, violins; Arthur Bacon, cornet; Foster Cannan, trombone; Miss Anna Smyth, pianist. Address by Spencer Smith, Allen Stradley and little Miss Lillian Sheats were enjoyed. It was missionary day also and the collection amounted to over $36. Mr. W. W. Hubbard's class won the banner which was awarded by Miss Mamie Thompson in an earnest and striking manner. Miss Thompson always meets every requirement when called upon. Beautiful souvenirs were given to each one present.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If your work is tiring; if your nerves are excitable; if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions.

It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength.

Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol.
