Garey, of Denton, Frank Harper, Centreville, and H. H. Barroll, Chestertown, for plaintiff; T. Allen Goldsboro, Denton, and W. W. Beck for defendant.

Court will likely adjourn today as this was the last case.

The Grand Jury adjourned Wednesday morning and brought in the following excellent report:

Grand Jury Room, Oct 20, 1915.

To THE HONORABLE JUDGE, CIRCUIT COURT FOR KENT COUNTY, MD.

The Grand Jury for the October term of the Circuit Court for Kent County, having finished its labors, begs leave to make the following report:

We have been in session three days, have examined four constables, and two bailiffs, as well as 28 witnesses; have made 6 presentments and voted 6 true bills.

We have inspected the jail and premises and find them in a satisfactory condition. Acting upon the suggestion of the Court, we have had a committee of three of our members appointed to examine all records filed in the Clerk's office of the returns made by the various agents of the railroad and steamboat companies, of their lists required by the "Gallon a Month Law." Quite a few records were examined and no violations found. The lists are very numerous, making it impossible to examine all.

It has been reported to us that large quantities of Jamacia Ginger is being sold in different parts of this county to persons who use the same as a beverage and we desire to call attention to all persons to the fact that such sales of Jamacia Ginger are contrary to the law.

The Jury being fully acquainted with the growing demand and usages of motor vehicles and the constant danger to traffic, when vehicles are driven at a high rate of speed on our public highways and recommend that all motor vehicle operators and chauffeurs, use every precaution possible to avoid accidents, having at all times the proper regard for the safety and rights of all other vehicles on said public highways.

The laws regulating motor vehicle traffic seem reasonable and we can see no good reason for any violations. We refer to section 140 B. B. Acts of 1914 of the Maryland Automobile Laws and suggest an application be made to the Commission of Motor Vehicles for the appointment of a motor-cycle deputy to apprehend any violations of motor traffic laws in Kent County, Md.

We wish to thank the Honorable Court, its officers and the State's Attorney for the courtesies extended us.

WILLIAM G. RUSSELL,
Foreman of Grand Jury.

JEFFERSON BROS. report that they are laying in a large stock of goods at the Crumpton store, and that the people of that vicinity will have an up-to-date store for their fall buying.

DEATHS

Major John K. Cree died at the hospital in Chambersburg, Pa., Thursday at noon, after a short illness, aged about 56. Major Cree retired from the U. S. army because of a weak heart, bought property at Quaker Neck wharf and has been living in Kent for about four years. He was a refined and cultured gentleman, of wide information and unusual intelligence and made some warm friends here. He leaves a widow and three children. The interment will take place in Chamberburg where the deceased has several sisters. Mr. Thomas W. Eliason, Jr., of Chestertown, attended the funeral.

Miss Celeste M. Clark died at the home of her sister, Mrs. M. J. Howard, in Still Pond, last Friday morning early, after a short illness of pneumonia and heart failure, aged 69 years. Miss Clark was of a sweet disposition and was loved and admired by a large circle of friends, and especially by the children of the community, in whom she took a great deal of interest. Funeral services were held at her late home on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. F. S. Cain, of Kennedyville M. P. Church, officiating, and interment was in the Howard lot in Still Pond cemetery. The bearers were J. N. Bennett, Howard Turner, S. G. Roseberry, H. T. Stanley, Wm. Medders and Leonard Price. Undertaker, W. H. Krusen.

Miss Lillian Smith, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Smith, of Chestertown, died suddenly in Baltimore Friday night, aged 25. The deceased was a saleslady in H. F. Jefferson & Bro's store and a faithful and well-liked employe. She had a large circle of friends who regret her sad demise. She was a member of Chestertown M. E. Church and Epworth League. The body was brought to Chestertown Monday and funeral took place Tuesday morning, Dr. L. E. Barrett assisted by Dr. H. B. Martin officiating. The bearers were Norman and John Lee, Harry and Norman Jefferson, Walter Fowler, Herman Blackway; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Caroline G. Wilmer, aged 80 years, widow of the late William R. Wilmer, formerly of Kent county, Md., but residing in Wilmington, Del., for the past 43 years, died at her home, 1214 W. 2nd St., Wilmington, Del., Tuesday morning, Oct. 19, after an illness of two months. She was taken ill while visiting her step-daughter, Mrs. Benjamin E. Benton, of near Massey, Md. She will be buried from her late home 1214 W. 2nd St., Wilmington, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock; interment at Riverview cemetery. She is survived by two sons, J. William and George R. Greenwood, and one daughter, Miss Birdie E. Wilmer. She was a sister of the late James B. Sappington, of Chestertown.

COL. VANNORT IN AN ACCIDENT

Col. Wm. J. Vannort was thrown from his carriage on the State road near the College Monday morning and severely injured. He was on his way to superintend some work on his Worton farm when an automobile in passing struck the rear wheel of his carriage and caused the horse to run away.

The horse ran for about a mile finally throwing Mr. Vannort out and dragging him some distance. Mr. John Bennett brought the injured man to Dr. Simpers' office. Besides having his nose broken, Dr. Simpers took six stitches in his nose, which had been severely cut. The carriage was damaged and the horse was stopped after running a few miles.

The Colonel is 80 years old, but is as active as a man of 60. He hopes to be about in a few days. The young lady driving the machine did everything in her power to assist the Colonel and is greatly distressed at the accident as was her companion, one of the town teachers, who had spent Sunday with her.

WEDDING NOTES

SCHAEFER—HURTT.

The marriage of Miss Mary Anita Hurtt, of Woodland Hall, to Mr. Charles Martin Schaefer, of Baltimore, was solemnized at Shrewsbury P. E. Church Wednesday evening, Oct. 20th, the rector, Rev. P. B. Stauffer officiating. The church was brilliant with brrancnes of vari-colored autumn leaves with yellow dahlias on the altar and marking the family pews. Candles burning on the altar and side walls cast a soft glow over the interior of the church. Mrs. Jesse Medders, of Chestertown presided at the organ and rendered a choice musical program as the guests assembled.

To the strains of the nuptial chorus from Lohengrin the bridal procession moved up the aisle. Two little children, Theresa Scott and Morton McF. Dukehart, Jr., bearing ribbon came first, followed by the ushers, Mr. Simon W. Westcott, Chestertown, Md.; Mr. Jesse E. Ireland, Galena, Md.; Mr. Morton McF. Dukehart, Baltimore, Md.; Mr. Edmun S. Hurtt, "Woodland Hall"; Mr. Eugene Schaefer, Lynchburg, Va; Mr. Charles Robson, Jr., Baltimore; The bridesmaids—Mrs. Morton McF. Dukehart, Mrs. James D. Davis, Jr., Miss Estalena Derringer, Miss Genevieve Hall, walked in pairs attired in yellow taffeta and tulle carrying bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. The matron of honor, Mrs. Simon Wickes Westcott, the bride's sister, wore her wedding gown of white satin and lace and carried sunset roses. The bride who was given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. Harry Hurtt, was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Garnett Blockridge; her gown was of white taffeta and tulle with seed pearl ornaments, the court-train fell from the shoulder, and the veil, which was worn by her mother and sister, was fashioned in cap effect and held to the hair with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at "Woodland Hall," the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. James W. Hurtt. The parlors were decorated in autumn leaves and dahlias. The dining table bore as a centre piece an immense basket of yellow and white dahlias and was lighted by candles shaded in yellow. A salad and ice course was served. Mrs. T. Frank Woodside poured coffee, Mrs. Burgess presided at the bride's cake and Mrs. Woodland Derringer served fruit punch.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Sophie Scott Hurtt and the late Julian Hurtt and a niece of Dr. Edward A. Scott. The groom is a son of Mrs. Eugenia Schaefer and the late Mr. Edmund Schaefer, of Lynchburg, Va. The numerous friends of the young couple remembered them with many beautiful and useful gifts, such as furniture, silver, cut glass and bric-a-brac.

Among the guests from out of the county were:

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Hurtt, Miss Blanch Hurtt, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Eugenia Shafer, Mr. Martin, Lynchburg, Va.; Mrs. Woodland Derringer, Spangler, Pa.; Mrs. Edward Comegys Mr. and Mrs. Morton McF. Dukehart and sons Morton, Jr., and Edward, Mr. Hart, Mrs. A. F. Shure, Baltimore Md.; Mrs. Walter A. Henson, Geo. H. Henson, 2nd, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Miss Lillian Scott, Muskegee, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. S. Frank Woodside, Mr. Cornelius Scott Woodside, John F. Woodside, West Chester, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Burgess, Mrs. J. M. Corcoran, Centreville, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Valliant, Jr., Miss Lula Faithful, Mr. and Mrs. John Newnam, Church Hill, Md.; Dr. and Mrs. Hampton Brown, Ardmore, Pa.

BOYD—THURBER.

A pretty home wedding occured last evening at 6.30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thurber in Riverside, when their daughter, Miss Mary Humphreys Thurber and Mr. Bernard Freil Boyd were united in matrimony, the impressive ceremony being performer by Rev. Father Connally, of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends.

The lower floor of the residence, which opens en suite was artistically decorated with palms, bamboo and cut flowers.

In the living room where ceremony occured, bride's roses and graceful palms were effectively arranged.

The maid of honor, Miss Frances Thurber, sister of the bride, entered first, immediately preceding the bride, who entered on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. They were met at the improvised alter by the groom and his best man, Mr. Carl Thurber, brother of the bride, and here the ceremony was performed.

The bride was lovely in a modish traveling suit of midnight blue broadcloth with fur trimmings. Her hat was of blue velvet trimmed with fur and a touch of silver, and she wore a blouse of white crepe de chine combined with lace. Her only ornament was a pearl brooch, the gift of the groom, and her flowers were a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was charming in a becoming frock of rose pink Georgette crepe, trimmed with real lace. Her flowers were arm bouquet of bridesmaid roses.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held.

During the reception hour a buffet supper was served in the dinning room which was decorated in a color motif of pink and green.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd left last evening for an extended wedding tour which will include visits in New York, Washington and Baltimore, in the latter place they will be the guests of the groom's parents.

On returning to this city, after November 1, Mr. Boyd and his bride will be at home to their friends at 1724 Myra street, Riverside.

The bride has many friends in this city where she was reared and is a charming representative of one of the oldest families, her maternal grandfathers being the distinguished Col. Charles Floyd Hopkins, one of the heroes of Olustee. Mrs. Boyd acted as maid of honor at the unveiling of the Olustee monument.

Mr. Boyd came to Jacksonville from Maryland and during his residence in this city he has made a host of friends who will be interested in his marriage. He is connected with the Pullman Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd were the recipients of a large number of handsome gifts including silver, cut glass and china which in a measure attested their popularity.—Florida Times
