Local Notes

THE little son of Sheriff Brown fell from a swing Thursday and broke his left arm.

H. D. OREM has removed the Urieville school house to "Big Woods" for use of colored scholars and will remove the one in Quaker Neck from "Lover's Lane" to near entrance to Mr. J. G. Westcott's farm for similar use. Mr. Orem made quick work of these jobs with his big engine.

CENTRAL GARAGE, owned by J. H. Sides, on Cross street, has been rented for next year by Wm. H. Waddell & Son. The latter will continue the business as now conducted by Mr. Sides in repairing, housing, selling oils, etc., and besides will keep machines and drivers to carry passengers to all points within reach. MR. SIDES will retire for the present in order to take a rest for a few months.

THE deputy sheriff, Mark Perkins, and Constable Jack Jester, arrested a colored lad named Andrew Lively Thursday on Chester bridge who is wanted in Wilmington, Del., for burglary. This fellow has just served 9 months for stealing $30 and is now charged with robbing a shoe store of $20 worth of goods. Part of the goods were found in the house in town where he was staying. Detective King says our local officers are to be congratulated at the clever capture,

TWO chrysanthemum "prize winners" this week are Mrs. Alice R. McWhorter with four lovely yellow blooms and Miss Phoeba Maul and brother with two mammoth white ones. Miss Barber Anthony has also joined the mum' ranks with some pretty productions.

THE first Willys-Knight car sold in Kent has been received by Mr. Richard Haggerty. It is a 5-passenger, 40 horsepower car, for which J. W. Clendaniel, Jr., of Kennedyville, has the agency.

THE Phillips farm in Quaker Neck will be managed next year by Mr. J. E. Ferguson who removed there this week. Mr. Ferguson does not intend to give up his undertaking business and may be reached by Phone 815-F.12. THE Hill-Reese farm, near Tolchester, has been rented by Mr. John Bramble, son of Wm. A. Bramble. Mr. E. R. Anthony, one of Queen Anne's leading truckers, has rented his truck farm to Mr. John W. Jacobs, of Smyrna, Del., for next year. Mr. Anthony will erect Mr. Jacobs a house in the future. Mr. Anthony will devote his time to his hot house and flour business next year and will reserve enough land for this purpose.

JENNIE BAILEY, widow of John Bailey, a well-known colored resident of College street, died suddenly Saturday night under unusual circumstances. She was correcting her 14-year-old boy, who turned on her, and in her wrestling with him became so wrought up that after going up-stairs fell on the bed and died of heart trouble. A report spread quickly that her boy had killed her but the facts were found to be as stated above.

THE La Tena's Big Three-Ring Wild Animal Show, which left its winter quarters on April 17th, after a most successful season's tour, which covered the Middle and New England states and Canada, returned to their winter quarters in Havre de Grace on Thursday from Middletown, Del., where they gave their last exhibition. Mr. Andrew Downie, the proprietor, has shipped the seals and lions, which will be exhibited in the larger cities during the winter, but all the horses and ponies, some sixty or more in number, with the elephants, camels, etc., will go into winter quarters with Hopper's Armory as last winter, their headquarters, with the usual force of employees in charge of same. The New Era at Middletown says: "Adams' Express agent, L. C. Scott says he has shipped all kinds of live stock and goods by express, but until yesterday he had never shipped a live 670 pound lion. The animal was housed in a strong heavy wooden box and expressed to Geneva, Ohio, by the La Tena Shows yesterday evening."

Sets Outdoors, on Top of the Ground

Back of the House—Behind the Barn or Shed—Out in the Pasture, or in a Fence Corner

Without attention it does the work itself. Automatically it supplies genuine Acetylene gas—to light your house and barns—and to cook your meals.

You simply fill it with the gas-producing stone, UNION CARBIDE and water—a few times a year.

Pilot-Outdoor Acetylene Generator

is different from all other types of country home lighting plants. Beyond question it makes Acetylene the cheapest, safest and most convenient light and cooking fuel now available for the country home.

Write for our illustrated catalogs and descriptive booklets giving all the facts. 11-0
