THE LEADER

LEE LEADERS TO FRONT

W. H. Lamar and W. L. Marbury Come Out For Harrington and Urge Democratic Support.

The feature of the Democrats' campaign this week is the way in which the Lee leaders are coming to the front in support of Mr. Harrington and the rest of the Democratic ticket.

Senator Lee spoke Wednesday night on the same platform with Mr. Harrington at Rockville, and Monday night statements were given out by William H. Lamar, the closest man politically to Senator Lee in the State, and the manager of his two Gubernatorial campaigns, and by William L. Marbury, who two years ago was a candidate for the United States Senate against John Walter Smith and was an ardent supporter of Senator Lee in the recent primaries.

Mr. Marbury's Statement

Mr. Marbury in his statement said, in part:

"I shall, of course, support the Democratic ticket.

"I have never been able to see why any Democrat should have the least doubt or difficulty about giving his support to candidates who have been selected by a majority of the Democratic voters at a fair primary conducted under all the sanctions of law.

"Messrs. Harrington, Ritchie and McMullen and the other candidates on the local Democratic ticket in the city and State have been nominated in just that way. It will not do to say that any of these candidates are merely the nominees of any 'organization' or 'machine' or 'boss.'

"Some of them were supported in the primaries by the State organization, some by the city organization, but the voters of the Democratic party—the masses of the party—had the last word on the subject everywhere, and, thanks to the perfection of the legal machinery for preventing false counting under the present primary law, there can be no question whatever about the fact that the majority of those voters cast their ballots in favor of the present nominees.

Would Uphold Primary System

"But there are many reasons which make me feel that every man who has the best interests of the State at heart—certainly every Democrat or man of Democratic affiliation—should vote the Democratic ticket at the election.

"I should be very sorry to see the direct or popular primary system which we have secured after many years of struggle in this State discredited, and it would be discredited if those who voted for the candidates who were not successful at the recent primaries failed to support the ticket at this time.

"I am very firm in the opinion that the Democratic party constitutes a better agency for securing and maintaining good government in this State than the Republican party.

Hits Republican Party

"The latter party includes in its membership some of our very best citizens, but it carries as a party a handicap which greatly cripples it as an agency for good government.

"Nearly 50 years ago, while blinded by the passionate feeling which was the natural and perhaps inevitable product of the terrible tragedy of Abraham Lincoln's assassination, the fathers and forefathers of the present generation of Republicans enacted the Fifteenth Amendment to the Federal Constitution, in spite of the opposition of the wiser and cooler-headed statesmen of that time. So long as the Republican party of the present day shall persist in perpetuating that monumental folly it will continue to carry that handicap.

"Some day it may wake up and cast that handicap overboard, but probably not in our time.

"Until it does, I shall prefer the Democratic party.

What Party Has Done

"Furthermore, I think that in the last eight or ten years the Democratic party of Maryland has done a great deal to demonstrate its capacity to furnish good government.

"It has been moving forward steadily. At session after session of the Legislature it has enacted measures which greatly improved the political and material condition of the State.

"I doubt if there is another State in the Union where the rights of the voter at primaries are so well protected as in Maryland.

"I earnestly hope that every Democrat in the State will give his full support to the Democratic nominees at this election.

"Of course, I am not acquainted with all the local candidates, but I know that the nominees on the Democratic State ticket, Messrs. Harrington, Ritchie and McMullen, are gentlemen who will certainly compare favorably with their Republican rivals in character, ability and fitness for the offices for which they have been nominated.

"Personally I can see no reason whatever why the State of Maryland should not have the usual Democratic majority at the approaching election, and I believe it will."

IN MEMORIAM

The many friends and relatives of Miss Myrtle Taylor were shocked to hear of her death which occurred at her home in Betterton, on October the seventh.

Miss Taylor was liked by every one who knew her; to know her was to love her. She possessed such a sweet and bright disposition that she made friends every where she went. Her lovely life will be remembered by all who knew her, although we feel saddened to think it was so brief. Her time on earth was spent in beautiful service and we feel sure she has gone to a perfect rest with her Heavenly Father.

What a dear, bright spirit left us,
When the angels called her home,
But her beautiful life will ever,
Reach from us to the Father's throne.

CUCUMBERS FOR CANTELOUPES

To stimulate their interest in agriculture James Jarrell, of near Middletown, gave his two sons the use of an acre of land. The young men had read of the large returns several people had received from the cultivation of cantaloupes, and decided to plant the acre of ground in them. The ground was carefully prepared and the planting done according to the lates methods, and prospects looked fine for a large crop. But after the seeds began to grow it was discovered that the seedman had sold them cucumber seed instead of cantaloupe seed, and now it may be necessary for some one to start a pickle factory to market the product of this one acre of cucumbers.—Middletown Transcript.
