DEMOCRATIC MEETING HERE NEXT TUESDAY

State Candidates Will Be Present And Congressman Lewis.

The State Central Committee is very busy preparing for the big Democratic Mass Meeting which is to be held in Firemen's Hall, Tuesday afternoon, October 26, 1915.

At this meeting will be present all the State Democratic candidates as well as Congressman Lewis.

There will be two meetings on this date one in the afternoon at Chestertown and the other in the evening at Rock Hall.

The Democrats in this county are very busy and propose to leave no stone unturned to elect both the State and County ticket.

Outside of the issues of this campaign the gentlemen who will address these meetings are all worth hearing on any subject they may discuss.

The Democratic party must not stand still if the State is taken out of the Republican control.

A Democratic Governor and a Democratic Legislature will enable the party to make good its promises to the people.

Reading after men is not quite the same thing as seeing and hearing them.

Hon. Emerson C. Harrington will address the meeting, as will Hon. Hugh A. McMullen, Albert C. Ritchie and Congressman Lewis. The Democratic party is not ashamed of its candidates and wants every voter in the county to see and hear them.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is reliable. Why try an unknown medicine when this known remedy gives good results.

"Beat it! Here comes Skinny and I've swiped his CONKLIN"

Every school boy and girl wants a fountain pen—it just comes natural to 'em. But the one they prize and are really proud of is

Conklin's Self-Filling Fountain Pen
NON-LEAKABLE

The CONKLIN is not only self-filling and self-cleaning but it's by far the simplest of all — almost impossible to get out of order. Try it and see. All styles—a point to suit any hand.

STILL POND

Miss Lucille Parr spent the week-end with her friend, Mrs. Wheatley, in Baltimore.

Mrs. John Schofield spent last Saturday and Sunday with her son at Dover Academy. Leslie delighted the members of the Literary Club of the Academy Saturday night with a violin solo, accompanied by his mother on the piano.

Mrs. Charles Walters and Mrs. Carl Norris spent the week in Baltimore to attend the annual convention of the Maryland Sunday School Association.

Mr. Wm. H. Thompson was hurt while stretching a wire fence on Monday. He is better at this writing.

Mrs. Lester Coleman and son, of Baltimore, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallis Hackett.

Mr. J. S. Clark, of Princess Anne, visited our town during the week.

CRUMPTON

Mrs. John Hubbard and Miss Lula Boggs have opened an up-to-date notion store in Mrs. Hubbard's store room, on Main street.

Mrs. Bertha Walls, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Mrs. Wallis.

Mr. Burris spent a few days in Wilmington and Philadelphia this week.

Mr. John Brown, of Kent Island, is stopping with Mrs. George Harrison.

Mrs. B. F. Hartley and Miss Grace Hartley are visiting in Greensboro, Md.

Mrs. Mary Fennimore Sheppard spent last week in Wilmington.

Miss Hattie Fennimore is visiting friends in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sheets and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Walls spent Sunday in town.

Mr. Harry Lynch is spending the week in Wilmington.

ROCK HALL

Report comes that Granville Ashley, a Rock Hall boy, who recently withdrew from the oystering fraternity to accept a position with Hancock Insurance Company is making good. This is specially pleasing to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Ashley and the R. H. girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Davis have moved from Allen's Lane to a farm near Worton. "We all of us" wish them well.

So much warm weather has made th oyster business finnicky. But the old hard shell runner, Capt. Jerome, knows what he wants, buys that and nothing else and pays well for it. He loads the Bessie M. Lewis, scuppers too, twice a week, and the oystermen are standing by him with prime stock.

The political pot is beginning to get a boil on again down this way.

Miss Nannie Ryan was taken suddenly ill on Wednesday night with heart trouble necessitating the attendance of Dr. Selby.

J. M. Blaustein's fall opening is now on with gratifying results.

Mr. Abe Stein was a welcome visitor at the Odd Fellows Lodge on Wednesday evening.

Next Tuesday evening the Rebekah "Odd Fellows" will hold a social at which their friends not members of the order will be their guests.

Next Tuesday night at Mechanics Hall Rock Hall citizens will have the opportunity of hearing two great speakers in Congressman Lewis and Hon. Albert C. Ritchie. All Democrats and Republicans also are invited to hear them. Mr. Elmer E. Leary will preside over the meeting and the Rock Hall band will furnish music.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

The Kenneyville W. C. T. U. met at the home of the president on Wednesday afternoon. Arrangements for the serving of meals on election day were completed. The appointments in Kent for Sunday, November 21st, of Miss Margaret J. Bilz, of Michigan, a national speaker, are under consideration.

Reports of the recent state convention at Rockville were given. Kent had eight representatives, an increase of five over last year, indicating a greatly awakened interest. Reports showed progress in all departments. There was an increase of over five hundred in membership in the state. 2011 L. T. L. members and 3000 Young Campaigners are enrolled. At a mass meeting held on the Court House green, Rev. F. R. Bayley, of Hagerstown, gave a fine address on "Why the Saloon Is Going," naming the moral, spiritual, social and economic reasons.

At noon on the first day tender tributes were paid to promoted comrades. Kent County Union attested its love and gratitude for Mrs. L. M. Corey, Mrs. S. A. Hurlock and Mrs. Lydia Shaw by making them memorial members of the State Union.

Miss Ida C. Crew, of Kent, and Mrs. Lifford, of Cecil, were elected delegates to the National Convention at Seattle.

CHURCH NOTES.

A very important meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Churches of Georgetown, Kennedyville and Worton next Sunday, Oct. 24, to consider the resignation of Mr. Clews. All members and active sympathizers and all who have the welfare of these churches at heart are earnestly requested to attend.

The Christian Endeavor Society held an "Echo meeting" Sunday evening. Addresses were made by Mrs. C. N. Satterfield and Mr. Frank Elburn, solo by Mrs. Frank Hurlock and quartette by Mrs. Wm. Spielberger, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson and Mr. A. L. Sparks were pleasing features.

In another column will be found an interesting account of a boy who missed but one session in Sunday school in 14 years. This account came in response to a request in Christ Church Sunday School for the best thing the scholars had read during the summer; best thing seen or best thing heard.

Rev. Mr. Dashiell, of Crisfield, filled Dr. Barrett's pulpit in the M. E. Church both morning and evening Sunday. Dr. Barrett filled the pulpit of Caroline street M. E. Church, Baltimore. Mr. Charles H. Jefferson entertained Rev. Dashiell while here.

Bishop Adams delivered two sermons in Emmanuel P. E. Church Sunday. Good crowds attended.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., Pastor—Services next Sunday Oct. 24th as follows: 10.30 a. m. preaching by the pastor; 2.15 p. m. Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7 to 8 p. m. Epworth Service and short sermon by the pastor. All are invited.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. W. R. Graham, D. D., pastor. Services on Sunday, October 24th—preaching by the pastor at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m.; Sunday school 2.30 p. m; Christian Endeavor service 6.45 p. m.; Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The C. E. Convention at Easton this week was well attended. Among those from Kent were Rev. F. S. Cain, Misses Mary Parsons, Mary Knight, Flora Wheatley, Mrs. Carrie Wroth, Mrs. C. N. Satterfield, Mrs. W. H. Waddell and Mr. Wm. Vansant.

The 26th annual convention of the Easton District Epworth League will be held at Betterton next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. We are sorry the program arrived too late for publication. It is brim full of good things.

The Synod of Baltimore meets at Washington next week. Mr. Clews will attend and with other ministers will have the honor of being received by President Wilson.

THE Kennedyville Grange will meet Monday. Special business requires a full attendance.

THE order and form of the official ballot for Kent county appears elsewhere in this issue, as does also the official election notice, published by order of the Supervisors of Elections.

Make your X in the square opposite the word Democratic. There are 17 candidates.

WM. MEDDERS, of Medders & Co, spent last week in New York arranging for their Christmas—there will be no scarcity of toys with Medders & Co. and they expect a great season.

THERE will be more attractions to interest the people at the Talbot County Fair this year, which is to be held next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, than there have been exhibited there for a long number of years. The Midway will be alive as never before, something doing all the time to entertain you. Every day, a big day.
