Personal and Social

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Keyser enjoyed an auto trip last week with his niece of over 700 miles. He toured Delaware, Chester county, Pa., and the Eastern Shore of Maryland, but returned to Fairlee well contented with old Kent.

We are sorry to report Mr Albert Lewis quite sick with typhoid fever at his home in Fairlee. He was operated on for appendicitis at Easton Hospital and came home a little too soon, it is thought.

Mr. J. M. Dorsey, of Baltimore, has come to Chestertown to make his headquarters as surveyor and civil engineer. He may be found in the A. L. Sparks' Building.

Miss Mary Smith is arranging to begin a kindergarden school at her home on Washington avenue. She is meeting with unusual encouragement.

Messrs. Edward and Clifton White, of Wilmington, Del., have been visiting at the home of their uncle, Mr. T. H. White on High street.

R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., and wife made a trip to Wilmington in his Trumbull car Monday. The distance is 59 miles and they used 2 gallons of gasoline.

Miss Carolene McKee is assisting in Jefferson Bros' department store.

Mr. Randolph Waddell sprained his right ankle recently while stepping from his car.

J. Harry Catlin, Esq., of Mexico, was in town for a few days last week. He leaves for Mexico this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Lambert, the former son of Mr. Frank Lambert, who have been residing in Centreville, have moved to town in his father's home on Cannon street. Mr. Lambert is a painter and an extensive chicken raiser.

Mr. Bryan Newton has accepted a position in Philadelphia.

Misses Susie Oliffe and Sarah Robinson, of Kennedyville, spent part of last week in Chestertown.

Mrs. Hallie Kelly, of Baltimore, is the guest of relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira T. Leager and two children, of Ridgely, spent Saturday and Sunday the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Allen.

Mrs. George Carter, Sr., fell and hurt her side and has been right sick, but is better at this time.

Mrs. W. F. Ashley, of Chesterville brought her little son Walton home from Baltimore last Monday whers he has been under treatment for five weeks at Mercy Hosipital.

Mr. R. Norman Hirons, formerly employed as clerk for the P. B. & W. R. R. at Wilmington, has accepted a position as shipping clerk for the Pepsi-Cola Company, at New Bern, N. C., one of the most progressive towns of the South.

Miss Mary A. Davis, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Chas. E. Davis, of Rock Hall, manager of the Rock Hall branch of the People's Bank of Chestertown, received a severe break and dislocation of her ankle joint on Saturday evening last. The family physician, Dr. Selby, was called in and attended her, but as he could not go to the hospital with her Dr. Beal kindly offered his services, which was very highly appreciated by her family and many friends. She is now in the Maryland University Hospital.

Miss Reba Steward, Messrs. E. L. Irwin and Thomas Archer Wilson, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of Miss Sue B. Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Barnett, of Magnolia, Del., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Barnett, Chestertown.

Mr. Wm. A. Prince, of Chestertown, is the local distributor for "Hop Tonic," a strickly temperance beverage.

Capt. Curtis E. Crane, of Chestertown, is entertaining his brother from Minnesota.

Mr. Linwood Smith, of Millington, was compelled to return to Easton Hospital where he had his leg amputated because of vauiose veins.

Miss Olivia C. Woodring, of Church Hill, and Mrs. Bradford Mason, of Baltimore, spent a few day with Mr. and Mrs. Owen B. Crow.

Mrs. W. G. Painter and little daughter, Eunice, have returned to their home in Virginia after spending some time with relatives in Kent. It will be remembered that the little girl above mentioned spent ten months of the past year in hospitals in Virginia and Baltimore, having undergone six serious operations within eight months, being in a critical condition and her life despaired of a number of times. Her case is regarded in the surgical world as a remarkable one. She is a grand-daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. Romie Strong, and her many relatives and friends are rejoiced that she is now returning to her home fully restored to health, and is indeed a picture of health and beauty.

Prof. Gabriel Hines has been the guest this week of Mr. H. Sachs and family. Prof. Hines has just returned from the Pacific Coast where he lead an orchestra of 460 pieces in the rendition of his prize winning selection.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage of Mr. George Vickers and Mrs. Frances Dixon Libby, of New York, took place at New York Thursday. Mrs. Harrison W. Vickers, Sr., and daughter, Miss Rose, and State's Attorney H. W. Vickers attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hynson, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ida M. Hynson, to Mr. August Strauff, Saturday, October 23, at Rock Hall.

PRICE—SMITH.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith, on Washington avenue, was the scene of a brilliant wedding Saturday evening, when Miss Emma Loureine Smith, the youngest daughter, became the bride of Mr. Lee Costin Price, son of Mr. T. R. L. Price, of Centreville. Dr. W. R Graham performed the ceremony. The house was trimmed with evergreens, potted plants, etc., and was specially wired by the Electric Light Co., the color scheme being pink. The ceremony was performed beneath a beautiful arch of holly and roses.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Charles F. Smith, while Miss Ida Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. She wore a pink crepe de chine dress and carried pink roses. Mr. Edwin Price, of Centreville, was the best man. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white crepe meteor, with a long train and white veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried bride's roses. Only the immediate family and a few friends were present.

Miss Helen Boyd rendered the wedding march in fine style, while Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell sang "O, Promise Me" in her sweetest manner, being a pleasing feature of the occasion. A splendid repast was served. The presents were numerous, beautiful and useful.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Price were driven by Mr. O. C. Smith to Wilmington, where, after taking a late supper at Dupont's Hotel, they resumed their trip North on their honeymoon. They will reside in Salem, N. J., where the groom is employed with the Dupont Company.

BLACKWAY—NEWNAM.

One of Chestertown's most popular and energetic merchants, Mr. Herman Blackway, son of Mrs. Harry T. Pfeffer, went to Baltimore Monday and at 5 o'clock married Miss Nellie K. Newnam, the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Newnam. The ceremony took place at 1823 W. Lanvale St., home of the bride's pastor, Rev. Peter Ainslie, rector of the Christian Temple and head of the Seminary of the same church.

Mr. Edward Blackway, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The bride was dressed for the occasion in a brown suit, trimmed with fur, with a hat to match, while the groom wore a dark blue serge suit.

After the ceremony the happy young couple took the train for Washington to spend a short honeymoon. They returned Wednesday, and will reside at his present home on Cannon street.

New Light.—Mr. C. G. Hadaway and Mr. G. L. Bowers, both of Worton, purchased last week a Pilot Generator of Mr. G. E. Williams, who represents the Oxwed Acetylene Co. of Newark, N. J., and Chicago. Capt. J. E. Woodall, of Georgetown, installed a Pilot in his home last week which makes the seventh Pilot in Georgetown, two of them having been used for nine years. Mr. S. J. Johnson and Mr. Thos. C. Roe of Massey, told Mr. Williams that they were more than delighted with their Pilot and would not take double what cost.

Local Notes

The Pomona Grange will meet at Kennedyville Saturday, Nov. 13th. Big day in prospect.

New garages are being built in Chestertown by J. H. Sides and Dr. Chas. R. Twilley in the rear of their homes.

The fall meet of the Kent and Queen Annes Driving Association will be held next Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 3 and 4. A good string of horses will be here for the occasion.

The Town Relief will hold a bake next Saturday, Oct. 30th in Mr. H. B. Rote's store room beginning at 11 o'clock. Pies, cakes, bread and chicken salad will be on sale, come and help a good cause.

The large implement business on Cross street, near the depot, conducted by Mr. C. A. Bauercamper, has been sold to the John Deere Company. Mr. B. has made many friends here and his retirement is to be regretted.

Walter C. Crow has purchased of Owen B. Crow & sisters the splendid corner store and dwelling on High St. Also the stable and lot in rear of store of Owen B. Crow. Price private. This corner will still be known as "Crow's corner."

The tenant house on the small farm of Mr. Sappington's, on the river, has been moved to the road and Mr. William Malin is engaged in making a large addition to it, which, when completed, will give Mr. Carbach and family a neat residence.

The Easton Fair has been well attended by Kent countians this week. Mr. Thomas Matthews' horse, J. K., won the 2 30 pace on Wednesday. Other Kent horses got part of purses.

The first meeting of the Literary Society of the C. H. S. was held last Friday. A fine program was rendered. The following officers were elected: Pres. Nelson Hackett; V. P. Alice Skipper: Cor. Sec. Hannah Duncan; Rec. Sec. Janette Willis; Treas. Elizabeth Norris; Sarg. at arms, Allan Rouse.

The Johns Hopkins eleven was too heavy for W. C.'s light team at Homewood Saturday and won from them 62 to 6. W. C.'s backfield was strong, but the line was too weak to hold the heavy Hopkins forwards, who broke through continually and downed our backs before they could get started well. W. Wallis made W. C.'s touchdown, running the half length of the field with the ball.

As the time for the gunning season approaches, it may be of interest to our readers to state that there is now comparatively uniform game laws for Maryland. For partridges or quail, rabbit, squirrel, grouse, woodcock and deer the season opens November 10th, and closes December 24th, both dates inclusive. For ducks, geese, swan or brant the uniform Maryland season opens November 1st, and ends January 31st, both dates inclusive.

The state license tags for automobile vehicles in 1916 will have yellow figures on a black field. State Auto Commissioner Harry Roe made the selection last week. He also announced that the tags would be ready for issuance within a few weeks. This will permit motor-vehicle owners to obtain licenses long before the first of the year and will prevent them from being forced to participate in the first of the year rush. The Commissioners office is always rushed during the last few days of the old year and the first week of the new, and many persons will take advantage of the opportunity to purchase tags at the earliest moment.

The Chestertown Choral Society will meet next Monday evening instead of Tuesday. The following characters for the new rendition were selected last Tuesday by Mr. William Walter Chapman, director: Ruth, Miss Minnye Sachs; Naomi, Helen Boyd; Orpah, Mr. Fred. G. Usilton; Ebmiclech, Thos. D. Bowers; Seed of Evil, Mrs. Jas. H. Sides; Mablon, Thos. W. Perkins; Chilim, Arlington L. Sparks; Barak, Rev. Wm. Clews.

A Kent county Del., grand jury returned a verdict of murder in the second degree Tuesday in the case of the State against Eddie McDonald, a North Carolina negro, who has been living at Millington, Md., two or three years. McDonald was indicted last week by the grand jury of Kent county for the murder on September 12 of Major Waston, a trustee of the negro campmeeting at Blanco, a colored settlement near the dividing line between Delaware and Maryland. Chief Justice Pennewill sentenced McDonald to life imprisonment in the New Castle County Work House and fined him $500 and the costs of prosecution.

Court adjourned last Saturday to meet today to try the registration appeal cases. A removed case from Denton was on trial at the hour of going to press last week. It was the case of International Harvester Co., vs. Thos. S. Holt, suit for $1300 on promissary notes. R. F. Garey, of Denton, Frank Harper, Centreville, and H. H. Barroll, Chestertown, for plaintiff; T. Allen Goldsboro, Denton, and W. W. Beck for defendant. After a great deal of sparring by counsel and hearing one or two witnesses a compromise was reached satisfactory to all concerned.

In another column will be found the card of Frank Hellerick & Co., wholesale commission merchants, Philadelphia. The firm's business has improved wonderfully in Kent and Queen Anne's counties and they hope to double their shipments this year. Mr. Emory Sudler is a member of the firm and has handled our people's goods for the past 30 years. Their credit is of the best.

An Aged Resident.—Mrs. Hague, of Rock Hall, has been quite sick for some at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sallie Jones, who kindly cares for her helpless mother. Mrs Hague is one of the oldest residents of the village, and will be 95 years old on her next birthday. Though feeble in body and weak physically, her mind is clear and bright.

She is an interesting woman and converses intelligently. In her younger days she was a faithful helper to her husband, assisting him in many arduous duties when he was in failing health.

Mrs. Hague witnessed the phenomena of falling stars in 1833. Being then a small child, her father called her from her bed to witness the remarkable scene. Many people thought that the end of the world had come. No doubt some were familiar with the scripture texts of Matt. 24: 29, 30, and Rev. 6: 13, 14. Mrs. Hague is loved by the neighbors. Unfortunately she has become almost blind, which is a grief to her. The bible was her constant companion when she was able to read it. The sympathy of many friends has been given her.

When buying an article that is supposed to last a lifetime, it pays to examine it carefully and be SURE. An expert from the factory will be at Graham & Thomas' store for one week commencing November 8th to show you why you need buy but once if you buy a MAJESTIC range.

BALTIMORE'S BEST STORE

Hochschild, Kohn & Co.

Howard and Lexington Streets

The Store That Makes Visitors Feel at Home

Baltimore's Best Store is a homelike store. There's a ring of genuineness and sincerity to its greeting to visitors.

That is one of the many reasons why it is the most popular shopping place, not only for residents of Baltimore, but for the thousands of visitors who come to Baltimore to shop during the year.

YOU should make yourself acquainted with the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. Store the next time you visit Baltimore. You will find it not only a pleasant, but an economical shopping place—for it sells only dependable goods, and, in most cases, sells them at a price no higher than is ordinarily asked for inferior articles.

Bear in mind, too, that whatever you buy here is returnable, for exchange or refund, without question or argument, if it does not prove entirely satisfactory.

Getting the Most for Your Money In Boys' Clothing

IT is because we know where and how to buy boy's clothes, and because we know what makes for good style, and what kinds of material and tailoring will stand up under the hard knocks boys give their clothes, that you get the most for your money here.

YOU like to feel that your boy looks well dressed even if his clothes don't cost as much as those of your neighbor's boy. And so we've looked out for the smartness of design even in the lowest-priced boys' clothing, and we've seen to it that GOOD STYLE is combined with GOOD WEAR.

WONT you let us show you how well we can dress your boy for little money?

Suits, $2.50 up to $8.00

Overcoats, $3.50 up to $10.00

AND there are his underwear, hosiery, Shirts, all kinds of sweaters and gloves, little raincoats with caps and school bags to match—and a hundred other things that the boys need—AND NOT ONE OF THRM AT WAR PRICES. Bring your boy in and let us fit him out.
