BRAMBLE, KILBOURN & NOLAND'S

If you read the papers carefully you may have concluded that this store is somewhat remiss in its duty in having nothing to sell at less than its worth. Much as we regret that we have to ask $5 for $5 articles, and so on up to $10 and $15 for $10 and $15 articles, we've consoled by the knowledge that no other store gives so much value for the money as we do, and we have the further satisfaction of doing a STRAIGHT business with STRAIGHT goods at STRAIGHT prices.

Any man who wants good goods and his money's worth can come here and choose from the largest stock and widest variety in the county—every article here is high-grade and fully guaranteed. Step in today or any day and see the goods that we are selling. Compare them with the "Cut Rate" offerings you see advertised. If you don't find better articles here for less money than elsewhere, then we wont expect your trade.

Furthermore, we accord the same service and attention to your "phone" orders, or your servants or children, as we do to you in person. We seek the reputation of being the dependable store. Won't yon let us "show you"?

THE HOBO'S LAMENT

THE LAST EDITION.

The dove flies hither to her cote ;
The haves a covert hold ;
The sheep "upon a thousand hills"
Each lies unto his fold.
But, all this wide, wide world is mine,
My roof, the starlit dome ;
Yet not one single spot have I
To call my "Home, Sweet Home."

I tread the paths of life alone,
No welcomes come my way ;
A haven sweet to my old bones—
Anothers "new mown hay."
I dream of boyhood's happy hours—
A mother's kind embrace ;
But ah ! awake—and nothing find
But teardrops—just a trace.

My path is well defined, and I
Shall tread it to the end ;
With not one beacon ray of hope ;
Possessed of not a friend.
Alone—to cope with countless throngs
Who heed not one appeal ;
But leave me to my wretched woe :—
One word—might prove my weal.

The lofty heights of a plateau,
Alaska's frozen strand,—
Or e'en the plains of Jericho—
Sahara's burning sand—
Provide the same for such as I ;
No diff'rence do I see ;
For any place I hang my hat,
Is "Home, Sweet Home" to me.

FOOT BALL

Washington College Loses By 28 To 13

College Park, Md., Nov. 6.—The Maryland Aggies won their second game in the series for the Maryland State championship here today by defeating Washington College, 28 to 13. The contest was close all the way, the loser putting up a stiff fight from the beginning. Both elevens played good football at times.

The Farmers started with their strongest line up and kept it in during the greater part of the contest. They were compelled to, as Washington College was dangerous all the time. That the score at the end of the first half was 7 to 6 shows that the Aggies were given about all they were looking for and sometimes a little more.

F. Wallace and Enright did about the best playing for Washington College. These men ran well with the ball and threw forward passes continually. And it was due to this form of play the Washington College scored both its touchdowns.

A remarkable features of the contest was that it was played with the stands in absolute silence. There was nothing in the way of cheering and no manner of demonstration whatever when the home eleven made touchdowns, all such actions being dispensed with owing to the untimely death of Dewitt Hart, one of the backfield men who was killed in an accident Thursday morning and whose funeral was held this morning.

The line-up :

Maryland.	Position.	Washington
Rich	Left end	Frampton
Oberlin	Left Tackle	White
Murrell	Left guard	Bowen
Williams	Centre	Larramore
Kispaugh	Right guard	Schelberg
Posey	Right tackle	Healy
Axt	Right end	Young
Knode	Quarterback	F. Wallace
Speer	Left halfback	Brown
Derrick	Right halfback	Enright
Shank	Fullback	W. Wallace

DONT'S FOR GUNNERS.

The fall gunning season is on, and every year the hunting brings with it its spoils in the form of human sacrifices. For the benefit of gunners who are planning to go after game this fall, the following list of dont's is given:

Don't take any chances. The function of a shotgun is to scatter shot but be very careful where you scatter it.

Don't blaze away in haste and don't get excited. Many a shooter has filled his favorite dog full of lead just because he was overanxious.

Don't point a gun at any person in jest. It is always the gun that "we didn't know was loaded" that goes off and does the damage. The only time to point a gun is when you intend to kill.

Don't take every rustle of brush or a bough to be a sure indication of game. Remember sometimes an inquisitive person has a penchant for being in strange places.

Don't carry a loaded gun through the streets or on cars, trains, automobiles or any other kind of vehicle or leave it around farmhouses to have some child playfully blow a head off.

Don't get excited and shoot without making sure that your object is game.

Don't shoot until you see the rabbit and then be sure that he is clear of both man and dog.

Don't drag a gun under a fence with the muzzle pointed toward you.

Don't climb over fences with your gun or lean it up against a tree until you get over. Put it through the fence and on the ground business end before.

Don't hunt with any one that you know to be careless. Carelessness with three and a quarter drams of powder behind and one and one-eighth ounces of shot is inviting "sure death."

Don't load your gun until you are actually ready for business. At all other times it should be empty. Keep your finger off the trigger until you are looking down the barrel at your game.

Don't use a cheap gun, as it is apt to explode when heavy charge is used.

Don't borrow a dog or gun or loan either.

Don't violate the game laws. It is not only criminal but sometimes very costly.

Don't 'hog" all the game. Leave a little behind for the next fellow.

Don't rest the muzzle of your gun on the ground. A gun muzzle clogged with dirt is a dangerous proposition.

ELECTED NEWARK POSTMASTER

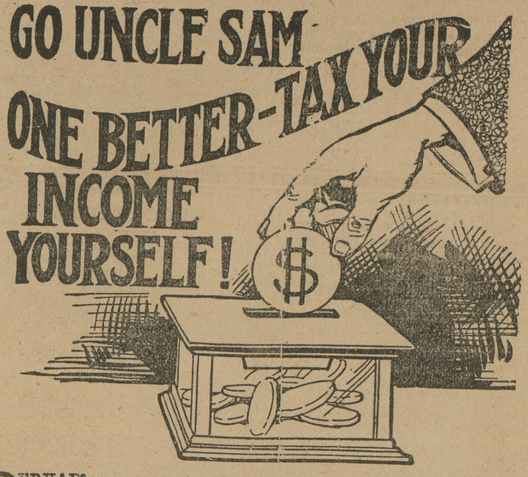

Levi K. Bowen, Jr., editor for many years of the "Delaware Ledger," was chosen postmaster of Newark at a special election of Democrats in that post-office district Saturday. There were three candidates in the field. Bowen receiving 177 votes, T. Roseby McMullen 138 and for Representative Andrew L. Fisher 68. At a conference with Senator Saulsbury, two weeks ago, this election was agreed on' with the understanding that the Senator would recommend the man receiving the largest vote for the appointment. Only Demoerats were allowed to vote. It was the first time an election for postmaster was ever held in this state, and it attracted wide attention. The office pays about $22 a year.

Pheasants Multiply.—Last year in distributing English pheasants for breeding purposes Game Warden George Jessop released on three farms in the upper section of Baltimore county one cock and three hens to each farm. These birds are now represented by 54 pheasants, which are nearly as tame as chickens. It may be as well to remark that these farms are all posted and it will be risky business for any gunner to attempt to get the birds.

Another gentleman in the same neighborhood is jealously guarding a flock of 11 English pheasants which came to his place, from whence he does not know, as he put none out.

The English pheasant is very tame and sluggish and there is no more sport in killing them then in killing chickens, but they are beautiful birds, the males especially, and they are fine for the table.
