KENNEDYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. John D. McCabe returned from a trip to their home. And we are glad to know he is improving in health, and has been entertaining quite a number of friends. Among them were Miss Ida Bodley of Showells, Md., Mrs. Edward Hickman and daughter of Ocean View, Del., Misses Edna Dryden and Florence Riley of Salisbury. They all enjoyed a trip to Baltimore last week and had the laugh on Mrs. McCabe because she complained of being seasick.

Miss Margaret J. Bilz, of Michigan National lecturer of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be in Kent and will fill the following schedule. On Sunday November 21st, Salem Church Fairlee, 10 30 a. m., Worton 3 p. m., and Kennedyville M. P. Church at 7.15 p. m. Miss Bilz is a woman of broad culture, and is quite an effective speaker, as well as an Evangelist of ability, those who have the opportunity to hear this speaker will be well repaid for so doing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greenhaugh spent Sunday with her nephew, Mr. Norman Riggin and family of Georgetown.

Miss Pennington, of Still Pond, is spending sometime with her brother, Edgar R. Pennington and family.

We are sorry to report Mrs. E. T. Othson much indisposed at this writing.

STILL POND

Mrs. Lester Coleman and little son have returned to their home in Baltimore, after spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore and interesting little daughter spent several days the past week in Baltimore.

Mrs. Clarence Ford is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lester Coleman, in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Watson, of Newark, Del., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rasin.

A musicale will be given by the Ladies' Aid Society at the home of Mrs. Wm. Medders Friday evening, Nov. 26. Talent from Chestertown, Still Pond and Betterton will be heard. It is likely that Dr. Merle T. Adkins, former pitcher on the Baltimore Orioles, will be heard in vocal solos.

PINEY NECK

Miss Reba Ashley is visiting friends on East Neck Island.

The wedding of Miss Eden Ashley to Mr. Abner Bryden took place Wednesday evening at the M. E. Parsonage.

Misses Edith Colison, Alice Wood, Susie Frazier and Mrs. James T. Wood made a flying trip to Baltimore Saturday.

Rev. Alonza Travers is holding a series of revival meetings now aided by Mr. Walter Ford an Evangelist of Smyna.

Mrs. Jeanette Shriver and daughter, Elizabeth, are visiting friends and relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. Thomas Connor and son, C. E. Faulkner, and Jake Schirley, was taken to Piney Neck Tuesday, Nov. 9th, by B. S. Sutton and son to an oyster scald, and were grandly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Dave Elburn, a fine pair of old people. Many thanks to them hoping we may all soon meet again.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Crouch died at the home of its parents Wednesday noon.

Mrs. Frank Price and son, of Baltimore, spent a few days last week with relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. Romie Elburn went to ehe Mercy Hospital Monday for an operation. He was accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. Agnes Ashley and mother are visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. Wm. Benton is now in Baltimore.

Mr. Snowden Maslin, of Rock Hall, has rented a barber shop at Chester, Pa., and removed with his family to that city.

ROCK HALL

Saturday night with us was the quietest in nine months. The few men seen were in little groups discussing the outcome of the election. A G. O. P. fellow here and there would cry out to a Democrat, "How does gnawing the bone suit you?" And an Anti-Republican was heard to say now and then to a Democrat, "We had to chaw the bone after the primaries, so we concluded to pass it over to you to bite on." A few seemed quite sore over the election, but Pastor Prettyman gave us all a comforting sermon on Sunday morning on the subject of "Tribulation" which caused good cheer to permeate our minds and hearts except one Anti-Republican who was heard to say Sunday afternoon, "Gosh, If I had thought that such a slump would result, I would never voted for the Republican candidates for the Legislature.

Quite a number of us are squealing because of the sudden high climbing of meat prices. We are wondering if this is a sample of what the G. O. P.'s and Anti-Republicans are going to hand out to us during their tenure of control, or is it spite work on the part of meat dealers a majority of whom at this place are Democrats, to get even with the floppers. We would like to know before we institute a boycott. Look out, W., and L., and H., or we will get you.

Mr. Wesley Stevens, one of our old residents, died from the injury he received from falling from his bed recently. His remains were brought home from the hospital on Tuesday. Funeral service at the house same afternoon, conducted by a city Elder of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Death entered the home of Mr. J. T. Price on Monday removing therefrom an infant child.

The Odd Fellows will hold an open meeting on Tuesday night next at which the Grand Master and Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Maryland will be present. Gentlemen not members of the Order will be welcome to attend.

The Patriotic Order Sons of America will conduct a similar meeting Friday evening of next week. Prof. Howard T. Griffith, of Centreville Grammar School will be present to entertain all comers.

Mrs. Bessie Buckler of the city, is spending a season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Satterfield.

The oyster trade is "chock a block" at both ends of the route. Every boat here and in Baltimore is loaded with oysters waiting for a sale.

Mr. Wm. B Ashley and a party of friends motored to Baltimore city Sunday and enjoyed every mile of the way. The trip is a lovely one owing to the good state road all the way. He expects to make the trip again.

DEATHS

Mr. Thomas Whaley died at his late residence in Church Hill age 84 years and 8 months. He leaves the following children viz, Robert, Thomas of Church Hill; Essie Richards of Centreville; Ida Camerson, of Baltimore; Elwood, of Chestertown; William, of Waxahie. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon. Interment in Church Hill Cemetery. Undertaker Good.

SCHOOL NOTES

The school Board has decided to hold the Teachers Association on Tuesday, Nov. 23rd, thus giving teachers and scholars a vacation until the following Monday.

The building committee of the Kennedyville school and the contractors are having trouble. A disagreement has arisen which has stopped all work and will likely have to be settled by the Court.

Betterton's new building is completed and as noted elsewhere was opened with appropirate exercises.

Miss Mary Whaland will continue as teacher at Chestertown until the new school is completed at which time the Board hopes to be able to manage the curriculum with one teacher less than at present.

The program of the Teachers Association is as follows:

Opening Exercises—Music, Prayer, Roll Call.
Home Economics—It's origin, development, purpose and accomplishments, Miss Helen L. Comstock.
Methods and Devices of Discipline—Miss Anna W. Melvin, Miss Arimnta Brinsfield, Mr. Arthur L. Greenwood.
Busy Work for Grades up to the Sixth—Miss K. Celeste Stokes, Miss Daisy Ford, Miss Louise Urie.
How can we best get scholars who have completed the Seventh Grade into the High School and retain them?—Mr. Walter H. Davis, Miss Ethel Ringgold, Miss Florence Jewell.
What effect will compulsory education have upon your school? All teachers please be prepared to discuss this question and give approximate figures of increase in attendance.

Mr. George Bacon has been appointed janitor of the new Chestertown High School.

The man or boy who needs clothes should certainly call and see the beautiful patterns displayed in store of Bordley & Sons, Chestertown. Special showing of men's suits at $15—Overcoats at all prices await your inspection.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.
