BANKING BY MAIL

¶ Our system of banking by mail is a great convenience to our patrons living outside of town, and many of our customers make their deposits in this way when it is not convenient to leave home.

¶ This method is simple and safe and we will be glad to explain in detail. Call and see us.

¶ Your account solicited, large or small. It will be appreciated by either The Chestertown or The Galena Bank.

WEDDING NOTES

The wedding of Miss Marguerite Cree, daughter of the late Major Cree, of near Chestertown, and Mr. Thomas W. Eliason, Jr., of Chestertown, took place at the home of the bride's aunt in Chambersburg, Pa., Thursday evening. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father the ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few relatives and without ostentation of any kind. Mrs. Thomas W. Eliason, mother of the groom, was present from Chestertown. Rev. F. C. Woodard, pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church, performed ceremony. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Eliason will return here and make their home on Spring Avenue until their new residence is completed.

The wedding of Mr. Leonard Chapman Needles, of Chestertown, to Miss Florence Madella Esterly, of Findley, Ohio, daughter of Mrs. George H. Ways, will take place at Findley, Wednesday, Nov. 24, at the home of the bride. Mr. Needles is a well-known and prosperous young painter of Chestertown, who will go in business for himself in the spring, while the bride is an attractive young lady of Findley. They will, upon their arrival here, take apartments in the Dodd house as announced in the NEWS last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Rodney announce the marriage of their daughter, Edith Nomia, to Mr. J. Walter Biggers, on Thursday, November 25th, at the parsonage.

On Sunday, Nov. 14, a most elaborate reception was given in honor of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. August Strauff (nee Miss Ida M. Hynson) former postmistress of Rock Hall, and Mrs. Eva D. Hatcherson, of Chestertown, Md., at their home, 16 Catalpha Avenue, Ailsa Terrace, Hamilton Baltimore county. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers, while the reception hall was a mass of beautiful ferns of all descriptions. While some of the guests were in the library enjoying a quiet game of "five hundred," others were in the beautiful parlor enjoying both vocal and instrumental music sweetly rendered by Mrs. Hatcherson and Mr. and Mrs. Reide. The presents were costly and numerous, among one of which was a handsome Buick touring car, given by a party of Mr. Strauff's most intimate friends. At 6 o'clock a most gorgeous dinner was served, consisting of all of the delicacies that could be catered to one's taste; with the addition of wine and champagne.

Among some of the invited guests we note the following: Mr. and Mrs. Augus. Strauff, former publisher of the German Weekly; Mrs. Eva D. Hatcherson, of Chestertown, Md.; Capt. Lentz and Mr. Lewis Abbers, of the North German Lloyd; Mr. Otto Nosenbauer, at Forest Park, a silversmith manufacturer; the Misses Freida, Anna and Minnie Rosenbauer, of Forest Park; Mr. and Mrs. Reide, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Fench Helm, auditor of the B & O; Miss Corinna Melm, of Govanstown; Mr. Wm. Helm, of Guilford Park, auditor of the B. & O.; Mr. William Strauff, Mr. Planker, passenger agent of the North German Lloyd.

All vacated at the wee hours in the a. m., leaving behind hearty congratulations for Mr. and Mrs. Strauff, and greatly impressing upon their minds that they were all very much elated over the most elaborate entertainment.

WANTED.

How To Increase Milk Supply?

The above problem has been solved, at least that is the claim. W. Frank Jarrell has thought an up-to-date stable and palatable ensilage was the way and has found out it is. Now then Mr. Clifton Jarrell aspiring to be something more than a sweet potato king, has given Stavely & Bowers a contract for a fine new cow barn, etc., something like his friend Frank Jarrell's; so that he can show the Rich Neckers how to raise cows that will give plenty of milk. Mr. Walter T. Morris also has an up-to-date barn and many others in other sections of Kent.

It remained, however, for a woman to find the secret of how to make an increase in the milk supply from her cattle. Mrs. Ada F. Nowie, noted Wisconsin agriculture specialist and expert, a member of the Wisconsin board of agriculture, has known for years that cows have temperament, a conception of orderly dwellings and a faculty of appreciating courteous treatment. She takes advantage of it. She began it eight years ago when she caused her farm employes to speak cheerily to the cows in the morning.

Later she added a music machine to her milking equipment. Cows gave fully. She nows asks the State Board to put lace curtains in the windows of the stables to be built for the University of Wisconsin school of agriculture. She wants to add poreclain feed boxes, waist-high wainscoating and cream colored walls.

If the public hereafter hear sweet music emanating from the cow barn of Messrs. E. Jos. Watson, Walter Hadaway, James Wood, Chas. M. Brown, Lewin U. Skirven, J. Kennard Aldridge, Isaac Gibbs, John Clendaniel, J. A. Money, Frank Baxter, Robert R. Hill, Harry Williams, Morris Cooper, Edw. Pennington, Harry Holt, S. J. Johnson or any of the other scores of dairymen they will know the reason thereof and not be shocked.

THE ladies of the Town Improvement request all citizens to attend the meetings at the Lyceum on Saturday, Nov. 20. at 2 30 p. m. and Monday, Nov, 22, at 2.30 p. m. to discuss matters vital to all the people of Chestertown.
