SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1915.

EVERYONE can find some-thing for which to give thanks.

THE NEWS acknowledges the courtesy extended by our cotemporary, the Transcript, last week, when our big press broke in two places. Mr. H. D. Orem repaired the breaks and but one issue had to be printed outside.

THE November grand jury, completing its labors at Hagerstown last week, filed report in which they recommended that the Legislature pass a law prohibiting children under 10 attending picture shows unless accompanied by parents or accredited escorts.

THE big show in Baltimore, this week known as "Maryland Week" has been a great affair. Kent hopes to have some boys and girls in the medal class next year as we now have a lady looking after the corn and canning clubs in this county.

THE NEWS endeavors to give credit wherever it is due but in the NEWS last week the name of Mr. A. L. Harris was noted as one of the committee on the erection of Betterton's new school building when it should have been Mr. Arthur H. Brice. Mr. Brice was chairman and an indefatigable worker towards the success.

THE recommendation of a budget system for handling of the finances of the State was determined Thursday last at a meeting of the Economy and Efficiency Commission held in Baltimore. Former Governors John Walter Smith, Edwin Warfield, Frank Brown and Henry Lloyd will give their views to aid the Commission. By this system the State cannot spend more than its income. Wouldn't the "budget system" be a fine thing for everyone?

No compromise of any character whatever in regard to the passage of the prohibition bill in the next Maryland Legislature will be accepted or countenanced by his people, said the Rev. Dr. Thomas M. Hare, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland Sunday afternoon.

"It is prohibition or bust this time," he declared. "The day of compromise is past, the compromiser's chance is lost. It is on the straight proposition of out-and-out prohibition for the entire State of Maryland, most emphatically including Baltimore city, that the fight will be made this time. And we will not bother about constitutional amendments. The bill to be submitted will provide for prohibition by direct enactment, with the referendum attached.

"All we are asking is to let the people get a chance to vote on the proposition, and that is a mighty hard one to sidestep by those who profess to believe in government by the people. The wise politician knows, or soon learns, that the people really run the Government in the United States when they turn their mind to it.

PROSPECTIVE APPOINTMENTS

The Commissions for the newly-elected officers of Kent county have not arrived but are expected latter part of next week and these officials will take charge about December 1st. Frequent Conferences have been held by the "Powers that be" and the following slate has been announced "unofficially:"

Chief clerk under A. Parks Rasin—Charles W. Kibler, Jr.

Clerk to the County Commissioners—Samuel Hicks, present official.

Clerk to Treasurer—Owens, to take the office in May—Ollie Estes, present official.

Deputy Register under Robert R. Hill—Man agreed upon has declined and a widow has applied, but at this writing no one has been finally named.

Health Officer—Dr. George R. Jone, of Galena, present appointee.

Attorney to Commissioners—It is reported that this place has been declined by Mr. Barroll and he has recommended a young attorney, who is holding it under advisement.

LARGE PUBLIC SALE

I will sell at Public auction at my Stables in GALENA, MARYLAND,

SATURDAY, November 20, 1915

These cows were not sold for any fault, but sold because feed is very scarce and the farmers needed the money. Have also

Two Carriages and Several Sets of Harness

Will sell anything or kind of stock for you on commission, but d n't bring too many horses, as you know they are hard to sell.

I will sell Mr. George W. Mann's Fancy Driving Horse Runabout and Harness for the high dollar, if not sold before at private sale.

Growing Every Week

The night school opened for work Tuesday night with 34 young men enrolled. Prof. J. S. Wm. Jones conducted a class in arithmetic while Dr. E. J. Clarke taught English. Thursday evening Prof. Del Toro taught physiology while Prof. Creasy presented Science.

The "school" is laboring under serious disadvantages at present, but a member of the School Board who was present Tuesday night, was so impressed with the showing that all modern conveniences will be afforded. In a few weeks the "school" will move to the new building on the Avenue where lights, books, etc., will be provided free by the Board.

This is one of the most meritorious undertakings ever attempted in this community and its encouragement by the school authorities and the public generally is very gratifying.

One of the pupils in the Hagerstown High school is a man 28 years old, who walks two miles from his home in the country every night to the school. He is in the primer class.

Further sessions will be discontinued until electric lights are installed in the new High School where future meetings will be held. The School Board has promised to hasten these convenienices.

Asst. Cashier Elected.—Mr. Jesse E. Ireland was elected assistant cashier of the Galena Bank of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland on Wednesday last. The vacancy was made by the resignation of Mr. F. E. Maddox, who goes to the People's Bank of Chestertown. The change will be made Dec. 1. Mr. Ireland is one of the most popular young men in upper Kent and has been assisting Mr. Maddox in the Galena Bank for sometime. There were eight applicants for the position.

Mr. John F. Usilton has rented the Miller place on "Flatlands" and removes from the "Island" first of year.

Combines Style and Beauty with Accuracy

This is a rare combination for it has been a generally accepted fact that, to obtain thinness in a watch, a certain amount of accuracy must be sacrificed.

But the South Bend Watch represents a new epoch in watch construction.
