Local Notes

THE price of milk for this month is $1.90.

A FINE sample of concrete work is to be found in the ball ornaments placed on Mr. W. W. Hubbard's gate posts by Mr MacPatrick, of Chestertown, who made them without moulds. They are certainly perfect.

IT is rumored that Capt. William A. Vandyke will likely succeed Mr. Joel R. Clements as wharf master at Chestertown. He'd make a good one.

THE DeRue Bros. Minstrels played to a full house Wednesday and their program was fine. It was far superior to that of last year. Their street parade and concert is looked forward to with pleasure. Their Quaker Quartette is hard to qeat.

WORK will be commenced in a few days installing a complete private branch exchange telephone system in the Howard House, Elkton, Md. Mr. R. C. Harris, local agent in Cecil and Kent counties for the Telephone Co., was responsible for the equipment of the Howard House with city hotel conveniences. The first installation of this system in Eastern Shore hotels was at Easton during the past summer.

THE Federated Club at its last meeting decided not to undertake the venture proposed at the Imperial Hotel. They will for the present look for temporary rooms in which to continue their meetings and which will serve as a rest room for the public.

AN effort is being made to procure a piano for the new school building in Chestertown. Miss Jeanette Gooding is treasurer of the fund and will be glad to receive contributions.

THE indications are that the new high School on Washington Avenue will be occupied after the Xmas holidays. The painters will finish next week and contractor Culp expects to turn over the building Dec. 1st according to his contract. It is a beauty.

A VISITOR to Chestertown this week on his yacht surprised the watermen Wednesday by jumping in the river, swimming half way across to Queen Anne's and returning.

ANTHRAX has again appeared in Queen Annes county. Mr. B. F. Potts last week lost a mule and a heifer.

CHESTERTOWN HIGH WINS

The joint debate held in Centreville Friday evening between representatives of Chestertown High School Literary Society and the Edgar Allen Poe Society of Centreville. Chestertown was represented by Miss Evelyn Russell and Elmer Tarbutton, the subject being "Resolved, that Hannibal was a greater military leader than was Napoleon." Chestertown had the choice of subject. Centreville having choice of sides, and took the negative.

The judges were Prof. A L. Greenwood, of Millington, and Messrs. Watson and Condon, of Centreville, who in giving the decision to Chestertown, commented very favorably on the many fine points presented by the winning side This is the second year for the Literary Society at the High School.

The Centreville Society will return here on Friday night, Dec 3rd, to engage in another debate. Ten cents will be charged students and 15 cents will be charged others. Misses Helen T. Russell and Jean Stokes will represent the C. H. S. Literary Society.

THE attention of our readers is called to the fact that the Baltimore firm of Likes, Berwanger & Co., is being dissolved For many, many years this old, reliable firm has catered to the needs of the men of this community, and now their high-grade stock can be had at sacrifice prices. See their announcement in this issue.

THE fire alarm Monday evening was caused by a slight fire in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Pippin on the Avenue. A lamp placed on a writing desk set fire to a hat box containing a hat, and this in turn, set fire to a pair of curtains or portieres in front of the bath room. Mrs. Pippin discovered the fire, threw the curtains and box down stairs, opened the front door and fortunately Caterer Gunnison, of the College, happened to be passing, ran over and assisted in stamping out the blaze. Neighbors with fire extinguishers came quickly but no further help was needed.

ONE of the most pleasant and largest attended dances ever held in the Washington College gymnasium took place last Saturday night under the management of the Washington College Glee and Mandolin Clubs. The committee of arrangements consisted of Prof. M. Ten Hoor, J. W. Dykes, A. R. Woodland, E F. Bowen and H. A. Kratzer, Jr.

A LEAK in the water system caused two holes to be dug through the macadam on Cross street Thursday. Mr. B. F. Rust and force of men did the work. Another leak is noted on Calvert street.

E. R. ANTHONY has the finest field of potatoes in his experience this year. An acre and three quarters yielded over a thousand brace baskets of potatoes. Both the red and white variety did equally well.

A SERIOUS runaway occurred on Cannon street Monday afternoon, when "William Barnett," Mr. Geo. T. Satterfield's pacer, started off at a sharp gait when Mr. Satterfield left him for a few minutes to go into his home on Cannon street. The horse collided with a team being driven by Mrs. Samuel Cox, of near Melitota, who, with her little daughter, was thrown into the road and run. Both escaped any injury, but were covered with considerable mud. Both horses, without drivers, went their ways at a fast gait down town, the carriage owned by Mrs. Cox being almost demolished, while a wheel was torn from another carriage in the flight. A colored man stopped "William Barnett," near Princess street, while the other horse was stopped on High street.

ANOTHER exciting runaway occurred near the NEWS Building at noon Wednesday when Mrs. N. Lieberman and Miss Emily Plummer were upset in a runaway team. The carriage turned over the horse's back and dumped the ladies unhurt into the street. Mr. J. S. Vandegrift, Dr. Simpers and others went quickly to the aid of the ladies and they returned home safely. The horse became frightened uptown and ran down the main street, and in making the turn slipped and fell.

DECEMBER 7 has been fixed by State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Harry A. Roe as the day on which he will begin issuing motorcar licenses for 1916. The new tags must be carried by cars on and after January 1 to avoid arrest and fine. The new tags are black with yellow figures. The law requires that the color be changed each year, and the Commissioner aims to avoid conflict in color with nearby States. This is to make identification the easier. Prices of the tags, says Mr. Roe, remain the same.

ALL the outbuildings on the farm of William G. Lockwood, near Warwick, in the First district of Cecil county, were burned Sunday night. The farm is tenanted by Edward Spear, Jr, who lost 11 horses, 1,400 bushels of wheat, 1,200 bushels of corn, 35 tons of hay and farming utensils. The fire broke out in the stable and was communicated to the other outbuildings. The loss is estimated at between $5,000 and $6,000 with partial insurance.

THE P. O S. of A. of Chestertown, will hold a debate on the subject of "Woman's suffrage" Tuesday evening, Nov. 30, at their room in Fraternal Hall.

WHILE Mrs. Harry Pfeffer was counting the money after the day's business at about 10 30 Tuesday night, at the store on Cannan street, some one raised the back window and fired at her with a revolver, the shot narrowly missing her. Mrs. Pfeffer had head the dog barking previous to this, but paid no attention to it. After firing the person vanished quickly. He was evidently bent on robbery. No clue has been found to the man.

AN address by Mr. Percy Granger Skirven on "The Battle of Caulk's Field," was a feature of a recent meeting of the Eastern Shore Society held at the home of Dr. J. B. Schwatka. It is a most interesting document.

MR. WALTER T. PIPPIN, architect and contractor from Chestertown, has built a monument to his skill in the elegant new school building at Rock Hall. He will turn over the building to the committee next week. The committee comprising Messrs. C. Frank Wheatley, J. A. Casey, W. M. Miller, T. B. Durding and Prof. J. L Smyth are greatly pleased with the whole job. The building is very conveniently arranged, having three class-rooms in the basement for domestic science. labratory and shop, besides engine room and boiler room and ample space for coal; the main floor has four well-lighted class rooms with cloak rooms for each, two toilets and beautiful stairway. The top floor has three classrooms that can be thrown into one for morning exercises. A good stage for all purposes, arranged for electric lights and up-to date water system.

EDWARD M. MORRIS, the young piano virtuoso, who will give a recital at Lyceum Theatre on Monday evening, Nov. 22, created a sensation at his Baltimore recital last season by his phenomenal piano performance. Speaking of his appearance the Baltimore News made the following comment: "Mr. Morris has an extraordinary technical equipment and a fine sense of proportion and form, so that his playing was characterized by breadth of both conception and execution. What is far more important he has pronounced interpretative gifts and an appreciation for color that throws a prismatic film of variety about his performances. Technically his performance was like that of a finished virtuoso. Already problems of execution, even the most difficult, seem to have no terror for him." For his recital on Nov. 22 Mr. Morris has selected a program that is varied and interesting and cannot fail to appeal to the musician and layman alike.
