Thomas B. Kilbourn and T. H. M. Bramble, trading as Kilbourn & Bramble, versus
Adella M. Nicols, Administratrix of William May, deceased, Mary May, William H. May, Adella M. Nicols.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, Md., In Equity. No. 1935.

THE object of the Bill of Complaint is to procure a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of William May, deceased.

The Bill of Complaint states:

1. That the said William May was in his life time indebted unto your orators, Thomas B. Kilbourn and T. H. M. Bramble, trading as Kilbourn & Bramble, in the full and just sum of ninety-nine dollars ($99.00) and one dollar and forty five cents ($1.45) costs upon judgment entered by confession on September the 8th, 1915, a certified copy of which said judgment, duly probated, is filed herewith as a part hereof, and marked "Complainants' Exhibit No. 1."

2. That the said William May, being so indebted as aforesaid and also unto divers other persons, and having personal property of little value, but real estate of considerable value, departed this life sometime during the month of September or October, 1915, intestate, leaving a widow, Mary May, and the following children and heirs at law, namely, William H. May and Adella M. Nicols. Surviving him, and your Orators are informed that the said Mary May resides in the City of Washington District of Columbia; William H. May resides in the City of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, and that Adella M. Nichols formerly resided in the City of Baltimore, but now resides in Kent County, State of Maryland.

3. That administration of all and singular the personal estate of the said William May has been lately granted unto Adella M Nichols by the Orphans Court of Kent County aforesaid, as will appear by reference to a certificate of letters of administration granted on the estate of William May, filed herewith as a part hereof and marked "Comp ainants' Exhibit No. 2."

4. That your Orators are informed and verily believe that said personal estate of the said William May is not sufficient to pay and discharge all the just debts due and owing by the said William May at the time of his death, as will appear by reference to a certified copy of the appraisement of the said personal estate filed herewith as a part hereof and marked "Complainants' Exhibit No. 3," and a certified copy of the list of claims already filed against the personal estate of said William May, filed herewith as a part hereof and marked "Complaintants' Exhibit No. 4."

5. That at the time of his death the said William May was seized and possessed of a tract of land, containing about 18 73 acres, more or less, situated in the Sixth Election District of Kent County aforesaid, and on the public road leading from Fairlee to Melitota.

6. That your Orators are advised that as the personal estate of the said William May, deceased, in the hands of his administratrix, is insufficient for the payment of all his just debts or any part thereof beyond his funeral expenses and the costs incident to the administration of his estate, if that such your Orators and his other creditors are entitled to have their claims paid out of the real estate of said deceased.

It is thereupon, this 24th day of November, 1915, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent County in Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 27th day of December next, giving notice to the said Mary May and William H. May, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 14th day of January next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
