

Tomorrow—Punky Dunk!

In a ready-to-fold book, he comes to entertain Little Folk with the adventure of "Punky Dunk and the Spotted Pup"

He comes free with the Philadelphia Public Ledger

HERE is the greatest gift any newspaper has ever secured for the kiddies. Punky Dunk stories are not coarse, comic strips, or badly drawn and badly printed newspaper cut-outs. They are children's books of the finest quality, in reading matter and in get-up—and entirely different from anything ever given with any newspaper.

Many a youngster will gleefully roam with Punky Dunk in the dim dawn of Christmas morning—for good old Santa brings Punky Dunk as one of the most wonderful gifts in all his delightfully mysterious bag of good things.

Tomorrow, in soft covers, the Public Ledger brings the same gift book to the children. Punky Dunk is just the kind of companion you want to grow up with your children.

Remember, Punky Dunk stories are real, 32-page books, illustrated in six colors, ready to fold and bind in soft covers and printed on the finest kind of book paper. You will be proud to give them to your boys and girls.

The M. E campaign for converts is still in progress this week but at this writing the numerical strength is of slow increase. One of the campaigners says the devil is too busy in the community, hence the slow progress. Guess the old fellow is no more busy now than in years agone. Let's stop and ponder, and we will find one of the principal causes that hinders largely just now.

The fraternal campaign in progress here are also slow, but better is in sight. The National Camp P. O. S. of A. has a dispensation to initiate at a 50% reduced fee and the State Camp slogan is 500 increase by Dec. 30th and 1000 increase by Feb. 22. Now, watch Camp 37 of this place grow up to the 100 mark ere Washington's birthday anniversary.

After an enjoyable sojourn at the National Capital as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coleman have returned to their home in this town.

Mr. Carroll Davis and family braved the biting wind of Sunday in visiting his former home relatives in this section.

Mrs. A. Alexander was compelled to take treatment at the Hebrew Hospital for a growth at the base of her skull which has caused much annoyance for 10 years. The operation was successful and Mrs. Alexander will return home as soon as the physicians announce her discharge.

Many R H oystermen who have for years confined their operations to Chester river have deserted their Grey's Inn moorings for the bayside harbors. More and better oysters and slightly better prices is the reason for their change of base.

Elder R T. Bear, formerly President of the Chesapeake Conference S D A Church, but now President of the Argentine Republic Conference, has made good his promise to write back to his former friends of this place. Mr. and Mrs. O P. Leary have just received a very interesting letter from the Rev. gentleman in which he recounts his and his family's experience on the trip to the Southland, and the progress of the church's work in that far off land. His difficulties in mastering the Spanish language and getting in general touch with the people has been great indeed, but he says he is getting there O K The scenes they went through in parting from the aged parents of both were heart rending, but time is wearing the heartaches away, their faith and the "light streaming down makes the pathway all clear" and they know all they went through is for the best. The letter to Mr. and Mrs. Leary was just one month from its mailing to its delivery, the distance being 9000 m l s. In their new home they have up-to date conveniences, electric lights, water system, etc Mr Bear says while we of the homeland are shivering by reason of the cold, they are having the summer.

Max Alexander was the first of our merchants to open Christmas shop. He had a fine display of Xmas goods for childhood, youth, middle age and aged at right prices, and did a fairly well business all day Wednesday.

FREE STEREOPTICON LECTURE

On next Wednesday evening, Dec. 15th, in the Lyceum Theatre, at 8 p. m. Mr. J. F. Bledso, Supt. of the School for the Blind at Overlea, Md., will give an illustrative lecture on the subject of "The Work for the Blind in Maryland." Mr. George W. Conner, manager of the "Workshop for the Blind," will also speak. Miss Cavanaugh will likely give a brief report in Kent. Miss Virginia Kelley will have an exhibit of the work of the blind in the lobby of the theatre during the afternoon and evening; articles will likely be on sale.

This promises to be an interesting occasion and the Woman's Federated Club, under whose auspices it will be given, invites the public in general to hear the wonderful things about the blind of our state. No charge for admission.

Mrs. Fred. Ford has returned to her home in Baltimore after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson.

Don't forget the "pie social" at the home of Mr. and Mrs Carson Greenwood Friday evening, Dec. 17th.

Mrs. Wm. G. Rasin has returned home after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Watson, Newark, Del.

Mrs. Wm. T. Stanley is visiting her son, Mr. Harry Stanley, in Baltimore.

Mrs. L. B. Harper entertained the members of her Sunday-school and Teachers' Training classes and their friends at a "taffy pull" on Wednesday evening; at the same time packed a barrel of fruit for the Methodist Hospital in Philadelphia.

The regular meeting of Still Pond Grange was held in the Grange room on Saturday afternoon. The following officers were elected for 1916:

Worthy Master—Harvey B. Moore.

Fine Shoes a Specialty

WHY DO WE SELL J&K BOOTS?

Because they please more women than any others we can buy.

Women are shrewd buyers—not easily deceived. Why shouldn't we make friends by selling the best—instead of making enemies by carrying superior goods?

J&K BOOTS are built on principle—an honest principle—and harmonize well with the Golden Rule idea, on which our establishment is conducted.

Courteous, attentive service will be given you.

We have a new and better line of CHILDREN'S SHOES.

Fall and Winter Hats

The best in Millinery is to be found in our Millinery Department. The Hats here are exclusive in style and in the better grade no two are trimmed alike. The Department is all aglow with pretty things.

UNUSUAL SHOWING OF SUITS AND COATS

Styles of SUITS and COATS this season are very pleasing to the customer

The FUR TRIMMED GARMENTS are much in evidence, and all are buttoned high to the neck. This makes the light weight, fine quality suits found exclusively at JEFFERSON'S all the more desirable. It is really a pleasure for us to sell these Suits and Coats, made by Strawbridge & Clothier, Philadelphia, and we know it will be a satisfaction for you to wear them. We freely guarantee them in every respect.

Our stock is quite complete now for the rush which the cooler weather will bring on, and we invite you to inspect our line before buying elsewhere. Competent judges of material and workmanship tell us that our prices are much more attractive than city prices.

We have some specials that are being sold at reduced prices. One lot of this season's BLACK COATS at $5.00 each.
