"Hand Me the Roses While I'm Living and the Knocking When I'm Dead."

I've noticed when a fellow dies, no matter what he's been,
A saintly chap, or one whose life was darkly marked with sin;
His friends forget the bitter words they spoke but yesterday,
And then they had a multitude of pretty things to say.

I fancy when I go to rest some one will bring to light
Some kindly word, or goodly act, long lived out of sight;
But if it's all the same to you just give to me instead,
The bouquets while I'm living, and the knocking when I'm dead.

Don't save your kisses to imprint upon my marble brow,
While countless knocks and bruises are hurled upon me now;
Say the good things to me on earth, while here I mourn alone,
And don't save all the pleasant words to carve upon my stone.

What do I care if when I'm dead, the Daily Town Gazette gives me a write-up with a cut,
In mourning border set;
It will not flatter me a bit, no matter what is said,
So kindly throw your flowers now, and knock me when I'm dead.

It may be fine when one is dead, to have the folks talk so,
To have the flowers come in loads from girls and boys you know;
It may be nice to have these things—for those you leave behind,
But just as far as I'm concerned, I really do not mind.

I'm quite alive and well today, and while I linger here,
Lend me a helping hand at times, give me a word of cheer.
Just change the game a little bit, just kindly swap the decks,
For I will be no judge of flowers, when I cash in my checks.

Local Notes

MAY this be your best Christmas.

THE happiest person in the world today is the one who does most for his fellowman. Try it.

THE Hale Point duckers bagged 50 ducks Monday.

A WELL-KNOWN grain buyer says only one farmer in six in Kent and Queen Anne's counties will have any corn to sell.

SOME duckers arose at 1.30 A. M. Monday and left Chestertown at 3 A. M. for the ducking blind, remained there in all the raging snow-storm and killed three ducks! This is in the name of sport.

THE vacancy of notary made by the death of Mr. J. B. Burchinal will likely be filled by the appointment of his widow, Mrs. Alice Burchinal, who is perfectly competent and able to do the work. She has been recommended to the Governor by the State Central Committee.

THE first offer for tomatoes for 1916 comes from Langrell at $10 per ton.

Mr. Herman Bramble visited Kent last week. He says he sells all the milk he can get at 5 cents per quart and the buyers come to his place. His fahter puts his milk on trolley which runs within thirty feet of his barn.

MR. J. C. ROWAN found five bags of wheat hidden in his stackyard Saturday where some thief had concealed them until he could remove them to safer quarters.

THE new Chestertown High School building was turned over to the Kent School Board on Thursday last. The building is a credit to all concerned in its erection.

THE County Commissioners Tuesday re-appointed Officer Beverly Hyland a constable for this district. They also passed an order to send Carrie Holland, aged 50, an insane prisoner, to a sanitarium for treatment.

KENT county was represented at the poultry show in Wilmington last weed. Messrs. T. D. Bowers, R. S. Thomas, of Chestertown, and Messrs. Moffett and Newcomb won prizes.

OLD KRIS and his family will come to Chestertown by train next Wednesday at noon. The Merchants' Association has arranged with Old Kris to come and bring the usual presents for each boy and girl who come to town and meet him.

THE students of Washington College have organized a Cotilion Club and their first dance will be given on Tuesday evening, December 21.

A GOVERNMENT agent was in town last week and as he compelled the sellers of "Cream of Hops" to take out a license, on the grounds that it contained alcohol, the sale has been stopped here.

PETITIONS are in the stores of Messrs. M. A. Toulson and Bordley & Sons soliciting signatures. The bills were put out by the local option interests and ask the legislature to give the people a chance to vote on the liquor question.

AT the annual election of officers of Chester Lodge of Masons of Chestertown the following were elected for the ensuing year:

THE Community Christmas tree will be erected as usual this year at the Public Fountain on Kent Square. Mr. Frederick H. Russell, of the Chestertown Electric Light Co., will do the lighting while the Choral Club lead by Mr. Walter W. Chapman has been asked to lead the singing. The program includes prayer by Drs. Graham and Barrett; recitations by Misses Helen Kendall and Evelyn Russell; short talk by Hon. James A. Pearce and songs. Mr. T. Kemp Bordley is chairman of the affair and everybody are on the committee. The hour is 7 P. M. next Friday, Dec. 24th.

WE extend to each of our readers, each of our advertisers and each of our correspondents a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

MR. WM. G. SMYTH, of Fairlee, has been appointed school commissioner for Kent in place of Mr. John N, Bennett, resigned. The appointment is until May 1st, 1916.

THE lecture given in the Lyceum wednesday evening by Prof. Bledso, of the Md. School for the Blind, was entertaining and instructive while his pictures added much to the enjoyment. Mr. W. F. Russell happily introduced the speakers. Mr. Conner, the blind superintendent of the workshop, talked of the work there and Miss Cavanaugh, who is introducing home training also made a most delightful talk. Miss Kelley, a teacher, displayed articles for sale in the lobby and sold quite a number of things. The entertainment, although free, was not well attended.

On The Way!—The big Christmas at Wm. Medders & Co.s., Still Pond, is attracting much attention. People are on the way from far and near to see the sights of a real Christmas and to enjoy the Christmas spirit of a busy place.

Heavy Mail.—Mail carrier W. B. Stafford during the first fifteen days of December has carried from the the train to the Chestertown postoffice the following heavy mail: outgoing mail 242 bags; incoming mail 563 bags; outgoing packages 53; incoming packages 52. This is said to be the heaviest mail for this time of the year in the history of the Chestertown postoffice.

Acetylene Lighting Plants—Mr. A. S. Turner and family, of Worton, express themselves as being delighted with Pilot Generator which was recently installed by Mr. G. E. Williams, who represents the Oxweld Acetylene Co. of Newark, N. J., and Chicago, Ill. They would not willingly return to the use of lamps, nor to the labor attached to keeping them in shape. Mr. C. G. Hadaway, Geo. W. Watts and Geo. L. Bowers, all of Worton state their Pilot Lightin and cooking system is fine and they would not do without it. Mrs. Andrew Woodall, of Georgetown, writes that her Pilot has been in use for eight years and has given perfect satisfaction.

Mortgagee's Sale

—OF—

Valuable Real Estate

IN KENT COUNTY, MD.

UNDER and by virtue of the authority and and power of sale contained in a mortgage from Simon Grollman and Bessie Grollman to Caroyene L. Hynson, dated December 20, 1910, and recorded among the Land Records of Kent county, in Liber J. T. D., No. 22, Folio 486, etc., the undersigned, as as attorney for mortgagee, will offer at public sale in front of the Court House Door in Chestertown, Md., on

TUESDAY, Dec. 28th, 1915

AT 11.30 O'CLOCK A. M.

NO. 1---All That Tract of Land

situated in the Third Election District, on the public road leading from Hanesville to Rock Point, lying on Chesapeake Bay, and called or known as "Upper Worton Point Farm," adjoining the lands of the heirs of the late Thomas Gale, and containing

323 Acres

OF LAND, more or less, being the same land which was conveyed to the said Simon Grollman by Angeline S. Skirven by deed dated July 24, 1905, recorded in Liber J. T. D., No. 11, Folio 495, except ten acres conveyed by said Groliman to Perry Barroll et. al.

IMPROVED BY Three-Story Dwelling

in good condition. HOUSE and LARGE OUTBUILDINGS sufficient for purposes of the farm. Also, by NEW AND UP-TO-DATE CANNING FACTORY on water's edge, with deep water at hand.

The soil is good, of medium quality and well adapted to the growth of fruits and vegetables, as well as grain and hay.

NO. 2---All That Tract of Land in the Third Election District known as "Lower Worton Point Farm," also on the Chesapeake Bay, and adjoining "Upper Worton Point Farm," containing

310 Acres

TWO ROODS AND FOURTEEN PERCHES OF LAND, more or less. Being the same tract of land that was conveyed to said Simon Grollman by Joseph G. Valiant and wife by deed dated October 11, 1905, recorded in Liber J. T. D., No. 14, Folio 215, etc.

Improved by a Modern Three-Story Dwelling and LARGE OUTBUILDINGS suitable for the purposes of the farm.

Soil is also of excellent quality and grows large crops of cereals and other things.

Is approached by right of way from main road through the "Upper Worton Point Farm."

These farms are in a fine neighborhood, about ten miles from Chestertown, the county seat, and 2½ miles from Gales Wharf and Worton Manor, from which points steamboats ply to and from the city of Baltimore.

They are convenient to public school and church, and deep water of the Bay runs close in by their shores, where all produce may be shipped to the city. They occupy most beautiful sites on the Bay about 5 miles above Tolchester and below Betterton, and not more than 30 miles to the city of Baltimore. Fine passenger steamers pass them daily to Baltimore and Philadelphia.

They are fine and attractive simply as farms, and to persons of means seeking situations on the water, they are probably unexcelled in the State, and their sale affords an opportunity rarely presented.

Terms of Sale:

One-third of the purchase price to be paid in cash on day of sale, and the balance in two equal installments, payable in one and two years from day of sale, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.
