WHERE KENT BOYS WORK

The "Bull Pen" Full of Men Waiting For Jobs—Hunting For Matches —Some Slick Tricks.

Down at the new works of duPont Powder Company the plants are numbered 1, 2 and 3. Sixteen to seventeen thousand employees work in the various one-story buildings in three shifts—7 a. m. to 3 p. m., 3 p. m. to 11 p. m., and 11 p. m. to 7. a. m., alternating weekly from one shift to another.

Every employee has a pass and a number. No one can enter a plant without a pass. The pass must be exhibited to the guard stationed at the gate. Next the employee is searched by a guard for matches. The first offense means a two weeks' vacation. The second dismissal. Employees are liable to search any hour while at work.

A faithful employee for three years changed his coat for a heavier one. He made a careful search at home was again searched at the gate and no matches were found. A search later in the day in the room where he was working revealed two matches down in the bottom of the coat lining. He was given two weeks' vacation.

Signs everywhere in and out of the plant, "Search Yourself for Matches," can be seen. A large sign at the entrance of the plant reads: "We want only careful and cautious men."

A few weeks ago one prominent official was about to pass the searching guard when he was halted.

"Do you know who I am?" he asked. The guard answered: "No, nor I don't care. I am going to search you for matches," and he did, and found a half broken match on him. That prominent official got two weeks.

At the entrance of Plant 2 is the "Bull Ring." That's where several hundred men herd themselves back of a low rail fence, each anxiously waiting for Mr. Mills (the hiring man) to look his way, and to raise his finger beckoning and saying "You, you, come in."

The fortunate fellow, who, perhaps, has been waiting four or five days, leaps over the rail and goes to Mr. Mills, where he is questioned as to his birthplace, his age, occupation and the like. If the replies are satisfactory he goes to the examining doctor and is stripped of his clothing. If he passes the doctor, he goes on the pay-roll next day.

On the outer edge of the "Bull Ring" are found the crooks who are looking for the unsophisticated guy who has a few dollars in his clothes. Not infrequently a sleuth (in disguise as a working man seeking employment) is sitting alongside the crook and pumping him. These crooks are being weeded out and are beating it for other places, for they haven't a good opinion of the Salem county jail

There are fully 600 guards (some mounted) in and around the several plants. Camp 2 is located a half mile north from Plant 2. In this camp the employees who come from a great distance are housed and fed. They pay for their meals, but sleep free of charge.

In order to get into the camp the employee must show the guard his last pay check. One employee wrote to his chum at home to come down and get a job. He went, but Mr. Mills didn't see him. Then his chum told him to go to the rear of the long building and wait. In a few minutes Mr. Employee hands his pay check over the fence, then Mr. Chum presents it before the guard at the entrance and passes in. He sleeps there all night and gets a good breakfast in the morning by using Mr. Employees's meal ticket. But the guards are getting wise to these tricks.

Jitneys go to and fro from Pennsgrove to the plants. The fare is 10 cents each way, and at times they crowd ten men on the auto. They are making good money day and night. The Arctic, that formerly carried passengers over to Camden, is one of the boats that now carry you between Pennsgrove and Wilmington; 25 cents the round trip. The boats run every hour and are well patronized. The duPonts will soon have their own boats to carry their employees from Wilmington straight over to the plants for 12 cents a round trip. Thus the Wilmington employee will save one-half boat fare and jitney fare, too.

On Brandywine Creek, in the old duPont plant, that opened operations in 1801, 1600 men are working. This plant is protected on one side of the Brandywine by a hill, possibly 500 feet high, covered with trees. Trees are found here and there the whole length (three miles) of this plant as protection against lightning, which is more apt to strike a tree than one of the low one-story buildings.

In some of the work employees must wear pegged shoes or rubbers for fear of friction.

When the workers come out at the end of the shift a cigarette or pipe is in the mouth of nine out of ten in a jiffy. The matches are there for them in a box provided.

Off they go toward the camp. Some run for a jitney, while 1500 go down the road on bicycles. The Italians (always saving) walk to the Italian quarter two miles away.

BASKET BALL GAMES

The basketball season at Washington College opened Friday night when Coach Kibler's team scored an easy and overwhelming victory over the Polytechnic Institute quint, Baltimore, the score being 45 to 10. After the first half the second string men were given a chance to show what they could do, and although nearly all of Poly's points were scored in this period, the subs scored repeatedly.

The game was hardly a minute old when Pearson caged the ball for two points. Then, in quick succession, Brown, Cain and Pearson scored, the score-keeper having his hands full to change the numbers in time to keep up with the game. Pearson retired before the first half was over, after the game was a sure victory for W. C. The work of Cain, Pearson, Brown and Larmore was particularly brilliant.

The Loyola quintet won from the W. C. boys in Baltimore Saturday evening, the score being 30 to 15.

The C. H. S. quintet won from the W. C. preps Friday evening preceding the scheduled game.

Order of Publication

Thomas B. Kilbourn and T. H. M. Bramble, trading as Kilbourn & Bramble, versus
Adella M. Nicols, Administratrix of William May, deceased, Mary May, William H. May, Adella M. Nicols.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, Md., In Equity. No. 1935.

THE object of the Bill of Complaint is to procure a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of William May, deceased.

The Bill of Complaint states:

1. That the said William May was in his life time indebted unto your orators, Thomas B. Kilbourn and T. H. M. Bramble, trading as Kilbourn & Bramble, in the full and just sum of ninety-nine dollars ($99.00) and one dollar and forty five cents ($1.45) costs upon judgment entered by confession on September the 8th, 1915, a certified copy of which said judgment, duly probated, is filed herewith as a part hereof, and marked "Complainants' Exhibit No. 1."

2. That the said William May, being so indebted as aforesaid and also unto divers other persons, and having personal property of little value, but real estate of considerable value, departed this life sometime during the month of September or October, 1915, intestate, leaving a widow, Mary May, and the following children and heirs at law, namely, William H. May and Adella M. Nicols, surviving him, and your Orators are informed that the said Mary May resides in the City of Washington District of Columbia; William H. May resides in the City of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, and that Adella M. Nichols formerly resided in the City of Baltimore, but now resides in Kent County, State of Maryland.

3. That administration of all and singular the personal estate of the said William May has been lately granted unto Adella M Nichols by the Orphans Court of Kent County aforesaid, as will appear by reference to a certificate of letters of administration granted on the estate of William May, filed herewith as a part hereof and marked "Complainants' Exhibit No. 2."

4. That your Orators are informed and verily believe that said personal estate of the said William May is not sufficient to pay and discharge all the just debts due and owing by the said William May at the time of his death, as will appear by reference to a certified copy of the appraisement of the said personal estate filed herewith as a part hereof and marked "Complainants' Exhibit No. 3," and a certified copy of the list of claims already filed against the personal estate of said William May, filed herewith as a part hereof and marked "Complainants' Exhibit No. 4."

5. That at the time of his death the said William May was seized and possessed of a tract of land, containing about 18 73 acres, more or less, situated in the Sixth Election District of Kent County aforesaid, and on the public road leading from Fairlee to Melitota.

6. That your Orators are advised that as the personal estate of the said William May, deceased, in the hands of his administratrix, is insufficient for the payment of all his just debts or any part thereof beyond his funeral expenses and the costs incident to the administration of his estate, if that such, your Orators and his other creditors are entitled to have their claims paid out of the real estate of said deceased.

It is thereupon, this 24th day of November, 1915, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent County in Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 27th day of December next, giving notice to the said Mary May and William H. May, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 14th day of January next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
