Upon their return here they will reside for a few weeks at the home of the groom's parents on Kent Circle, after which they will live in the Willing house next to Sacred Heart Church.

Miss Nettie Anna Maslin, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Maslin, and Mr. Fred Hall Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Davis, were united in holy wedlock last Tuesday evening at seven o'clock at the home of the bride's parents near Chestertown It was an ideal home wedding. While without was a typical winter scene with roads banked with snow and the wind blowing a gale yet everything within this hospitable home was full of joy, warmth and happiness. The house was decorated with evergreen and artificial flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Hudson, pastor of Bond M. E. Church, who stood in a bower of evergreen while the bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of evergreen and artificial flowers.

The bridal party, consisting of the bride and groom to be, the bridesmaid, Mrs. Wallace Kilbourn, of Fairlee, and the ushers, Mr. Wm. J. Maslin, brother of the bride, and Mr. Zay Davis, brother of the groom, entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march artistically played by Miss Ethel Robinson, of Still Pond. The bride looked beautiful deressed very becoming in a white crepe de chine with duchess lace and pearls and carrying a large bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Wallace Kilbourn, was sweet indeed, prettily attired in a pink satin with Georgette crepe and carrying pink roses.

After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served consisting of turkey, oysters, chicken salad, etc , etc. About 100 were present and all wished the young and popular couple a most pleasant journey upon the sea of matrimony. A most flattering number of valuable and useful presents were received. They left Wednesday morning for a trip to Wilmington and Philadelphia and upon their return will make their home on the Hines farm near Chestertown of which the groom is tenant.

ROCK HALL

Almost an old time style blizzard has swooped down upon "we uns" and that too before we could get our manongahela jugs replenished, but we are not repining, milady's wine shelf back in the pantry is well stocked, and by good diplomacy we can get access thereto, so let the bug hop.

The blizzard had no terrors for the stream of shoppers at Miller's Christmas opening on Wednesday. The saleslaadies and men in the big store were pretty well fagged out at 10 p. m.

The youngsters both boys and girls are in high glee with their guiding coast flyers and other sleds, and many grown ups are enjoying sleighing. The automobiles have been snugged away on account of the snow drifts.

The M. E. revival effort here closed this week. The result, it is reported, was five confessed conversions.
