ROCK HALL HARBOR UNDER BAN

Washington, Dec. 22.—Rock Hall harbor, 25 miles southeast of Baltimore, on the Easterm Shore of the Chesapeake Bay, has fallen under the ban of the United States Army engineers. In a special report transmitted to Congress recommendation is made that further maintenance work on this project be abandoned.

The army engineers show that $71,000 has been spent on Rock Hall harbor and a channel of 6 feet 9 inches deep; has been dredged This channel completes the work sanctioned by Congress The army engineers state that the improvement has had no effect on freight rates and commerce has not been benefited materially by it. Therefore, the engineers recommend that the appropriations yearly made for maintenance be abandoned.

It is understood that the army engineers will recommend to Congress that 50 or more rivers and harbor projects be abandoned by Congress.

SAVED FROM BURNING

Little Kathryn Baker Catches Fire Sunday Morning—Rescued by Parents in Nick of Time—Badly Burned About Ear And Hips

About ten o'clock Sunday morning Katharine, the little 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Elwood Baker, living on High street, next door to Dr. H. L. Dodd, was badly burned while her father's left hand was also blistered by fire in rescuing. The father was on the front stair steps when Katharine went into the bath room for a piece of soap. In reaching for the soap her little dress came in contact with a red-hot gas stove and in a moment the garment was in a blaze. The father heard the screams of his child, looked toward the bath room and saw Katharine running toward him with the breeze fanning the dress in a blaze. He caught her in his arms and tried to grab up a rug with his right hand. The little one, however, wild with the heat, would not remain in his hold, but fortunately at this time the mother arrived, picked up the rug and enveloped the child, thus smothering the fire.

With his left hand burned in a blister, Mr. Baker ran next door for the doctor, and then to his shop several squares away for linseed oil. Mr. Charles L Dodd came quickly as did the doctor and the little girl's body soon dressed and her suffering lessened She was just as patient as a soldier and at this writing is doing nicely She was burned mostly about her hips but her hair on back of her head was burned as was her left ear and down her back. Mr. Baker's hand is also healing nicely and all are thankful that such a fortunate escape was made.

WEDDING NOTES

The wedding of Miss Jessie M. Kennard to Mr. Benj. F Jacobs occurred at the Chestertown M. E. parsonage Saturday evening. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonza Kennard, of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. DeFord, of Queen Anne, have issued cards of invitation to the marriage of their daughter, Elsie Louise, to Mr Frank W Boyles, on Wednesday evening, January 5th, 1916, at 7 o'clock P. M. The ceremony will be performed at the bride elect's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Sachs announce the coming wedding of their daughter, Minnye, to Mr. Gabriel L. Hines, of Swarthmore, Pa., Dec. 28, 1915. Miss Minnye is well and favorably known in town while Prof Hines is the well known pianist who performed at the Chautauqua held in Chestertown last September, with Mr. Granville, violinist.

Miss Bessie Beatrice Burris, oldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward E Burris and Mr. William E. Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Garrett, were united in holy wedlock on Wednesday evening, Dec. 22, at the M. E. Parsonage, Sassafras, Md., by Rev. J. E. Horner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Getshall, of Wilmington, Del., formerly of Chestertown, announce the wedding of their only daughter, Evelyn, to Mr. Samuel Logan, son of Mr. and Mrs Robert Logan, of near Chestertown, to take place Dec. 29, 1915, at Old Swedes P. E. Church, Wilmington, Del.

STERLING—MCWHORTER

The elegant home of Mrs George B. McWhorter on Washington avenue was the scene of a brilliant wedding on Saturday evening the interested parties being Miss Nellie McWhorter and Mr. Alonzo Lee Sterling, of Crisfield, but lately a resident of Chestertown. The wedding was performed by Dr. Louis E. Barrett in the presence of nearly a hundred guests. Lohengreins wedding march was rendered on the piano by Miss Susie Dunbracco, accompanied on the violin by Mr T Kemp Bordley.

The house was beautifully decorated throughout by mistletoe and holly and lighted by candles and presented a beautiful appearance. The color scheme in the parlor was green and white while in the dining room red prevailed.

The bride wore a handsome crepe meteor dress trimmed in lace, pearl ornaments, entrain with veil caught up with lillies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lillies of the valley, The groom was unattended and wore the conventional black.

Little Miss Pauline McWhorter daughter of Mr and Mrs. Frank McWhorter, of Wilmington, was flower girl and was dressed in pink and carried a bunch of sweet peas, wuile little Misses Nellie and Helen McWhorter, daughters of Mr and Mrs. Robert McWhorter, were ribbon girls and wore white.

After the ceremony a reception was held, at which a large number attended, after which the bride and groom left in in an auto for Wilmington and other points north They will return Christmas day, after paying a short visit to his parents in Crisfield The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. Among the out-of-town guests were the groom's mother, brother and sister

GRANGE NOTES.

After the business meeting of Fairlee Grange one of the finest literary and musical programs of the season was presented by Pomona, Mrs. Walter T. Morris, including a reading by Mrs. Lizzie Smith; solo by Mrs. Wallace Kilbourn; the question, "What can this Grange do to interest members who do not attend," was interestingly discussed by Bros. Startt, Smyth, Sisters Clara Skirven, Emma Corey, Mollie Hudson, Hallie Willis; a splendid quartette by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Usilton and sons; reading, Mrs. Walter Fletcher; solo by Mrs. Eva Hatcherson; reading by Miss Mary Nicholson; report of Salisbury Grange by Mrs. Acca Crew.

A special meeting will be held Wednesday, Dec. 29th, at 3 P M, Mrs. Frank Crow in charge of Garner. After supper a Christmas treat will be given the children.

The regular weekly meeting of Still Pond Grange was held in the Grange Hall on Saturday, with nearly every member present. After an interesting business meeting the newly elected officers were installed and two new members were received. The splendid turkey supper was served at 5 o'clock. The lecture hour was open to the public and an interesting and entertaining program was given, it being in charge of the lecturer, Sister Kelley. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Dec. 29, at 2.30. Grape juice and cake will be served at the close of the meeting.
