He left Chestertown with his wife, daughter, Miss Louise Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Corwin and Mrs. Mary Roberts for Sharptown to officiate at the launching of a big barge. This barge was christened Louise M. Crane after his daughter, who broke the bottle of wine over the bow as it plunged in the water. When the party came near Skipton, in Talbot, a Ford car, driven by Mr. Thos. Quimby, came out suddenly without warning from a side road. It smashed into Capt. Crane's Hudson car just amidships and turned it over with the occupants of the car underneath. Wonderful to relate all the party got from under the car with only a few bruises. Capt. Crane's left wrist was slightly sprained and the other members of the party were considerably shaken up. The Ford car was nearly wrecked and Capt. Crane's car was damaged about $300.
