ECONOMY AND EFFICIENCY

It is reported that the Senate has agreed promptly to adopt the recommendations of the Goodnow Commission looking to economy and efficiency in the conduct of the business of the Legislature. The House, however, is flirting with Miss Extravagance and Miss Appropriations. The time has come when the ancient slip-shod methods were put away and business ideas put into practice.

The NEWS believes Gov. Harrington is in earnest about the keeping of pledges but he cannot do it all alone. The House and Senate have a duty to perform and should decide at once to go ahead with the Goodnow program which is in the interest of the People.

This is no time for trifling because the tax-payers' patience has been taxed to the utmost. The idea of appointing men to $5 per day jobs who cannot give $1 worth of service is unfair, dishonest and should not be tolerated. There should be plenty of help to carry on the work of the session but this help should be appointed with the view of efficiency and service. The NEWS is ready to co-operate with Gov. Harrington in his endeavors to carry out the Democratic party's pledges as the people of Kent are heartily for these measures.

A PUBLIC LOSS

In the death of Mr Tilghman Shafer Kent County has met with a great loss. He was a citizen of true worth, of sterling qualities and with the courage of his convictions. He was a practical Temperance man and did as much as any other one man in this county to bring about the local option victory which the people of this county now so much appreciate. He was active in the cause when it requied physical strength to overcome the liquor elements and did not lose an opportunity to put in effective work. He was a good citizen—active in every cause which had for its object the betterment of his fellowman or the advancement along material lines. He was kind to everyone and sometimes deprived his own in helping the needy, but not without their co-operation.

In the neighborhood of Kennedyville he stood as a giant oak in the forest, and was looked up to by scores of young farmers and others. It was a pleasure to have known him these many years and his influence cannot help but be felt for good in the future. The NEWS joins with scores of others in extending sympathy to the bereaved and again state that Kent County has lost a valued and sterling citizen in the demise of Mr. Shafer.

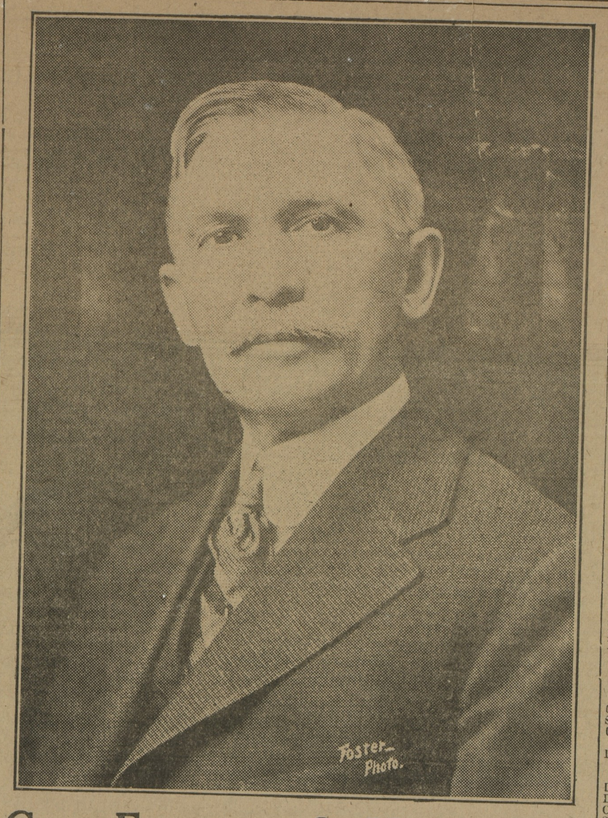

THE inaugural ceremony at Annapolis Wednesday gave Dorchester the distinction of furnishing both the outgoing and the incoming Governors—something that has happened before only twice in State history. Frederick had the first two Governors—Johonson and Lee—and Anne Arundel once gave Mercer in succession to Ogle. Both a Governor who resigned and the first-named of the executive council who took the oath of office as his constitutional successor came from Queen Anne's in 1806.

Another distinction in matters Gubernatorial is also held by Dorchester. Harrington is the seventh of her favorite sons to reach the highest office in Maryland. Prince George's has had five Governors and Frederick and Talbott tie for third place with four each. Baltimore city is in the three-Governor column, with Baltimore county, Anna Arundel. Queen Anne's, Cecil and Howard, Annapolis City; Charles and St. Mary's follow with two each, and the Gubernatorial lightning has struck only once in Somerset, Washington, Wicomico, Carroll, Allegany and Worcester.

GOODNOW COMMISSION MAKES ITS FIRST REPORT.

The Goodnow Commission has turned over to Governor-elect Harrington its first report, which deals with legislative employes.

It shows that by cutting off a number of employes whose services it is generally admitted are not needed at least $64,- can be saved on salaries alone at the and succeeding sessions of the thousands can be saved, stopping the practice State's money by beginning the es only on the commende ns the the gs

Gov. Emerson C. Harrington

Economy Keynote of Inaugural Address—Impressive Ceremonies Are Conducted In State House At Annapolis. Throngs Witness Return of Democrats To State Control.

Emerson C. Harrington, of Dorchester county, is now Governor of Maryland.

The oath of office was administered shortly after noon Wednesday in the Senate Chamber of the State House at Annapolis by Chief Judge A. Hunter Boyd of the Court of Appeals.

The Democratic party, after a lapse of four years, is again in complete control of the State government.

Just before he was inducted into office, Governor Harrington delivered his inaugural address in the House Chamber. He was introduced to a large and distinguished audience by the retiring Governor, Phillips Lee Goldsborough.

In his speech Governor Harrington renewed the pledges made by the Democratic party in the platform adopted before the Gubernatorial campaign, and strongly urged the passage of laws to bring about economy and efficiency in the administration of State affairs.
