WASHINGTON COLLEGE Alumni and friends will hold a rally and dinner in Baltimore next Friday night, Jan. 28th at the Caswell Hotel.

THE Volunteer Fire Company of Chestertown had a long run Sunday morning to the college and did good work when they reached the scene. The new gymnasium was saved by their efforts.

THE Baltimore Sun is waging a strong fight against the re-election of Hon. Murray Vandiver as Treasurer, but on the first vote Murray had 62 votes while the opposition could only muster 10. The question of "breaking Murray's heart-t-t" seems to be playing an important part. This sentiment enters but little into the politics of Kent.

THE recount of the ballots in the Cecil contested election case of J. Turner Cameron vs. John F. Johnson was completed Saturday afternoon. The result of the recount shows that J. Turner Cameron was elected County Commissioner for the short term by a majority of 17 votes. This changes the complexion of the Board to Democratic.

W. MASON SHEHAN, ESQ., of Easton, was unanimously elected a member of the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College at a meeting of the board held last Saturday night at Wm. Smith Hall. Mr. Shehan is Insurance Commissioner of Maryland, and one of the leading men of Maryland; and his selection is a most excellent one.

In another column will be found an advertisement of the town of Millington as a shopping centre. There is no reason for the people of that vicinity to go away from home to supply their needs when such facilities are afforded in their midst. This evidence of co-operation on the part of the merchants of this aggressive town speaks louder than any words we might pen. It is certainly commendable and should have the encouragement of the public by giving these merchants what is due them, viz, your patronage.

MANY of our citizens will criticize the management of the college for not keeping the valuable records in a safe or steel vault and yet the books which contain all the deeds for land held in Kent county are kept in a Court House which is unprovided with fire-proof cases, etc. Wood shelves, cases, tables, etc, are used in which to store these valuable books. The "penny-wise and pound-foolish" program of continuing these conditions is up to the present generation. The Court and Board of County Commissioners are the proper authorities for looking into these conditions. Is public sentiment sufficient to demand an improvement? A vote on it a few years ago was decidedly against it.

KENT IN ECONOMY WORK

The House and Senate have started out well in their economy program and we are pleased to see the part Kent's valued citizen has taken. The Sun of Monday in a column article, says,

"It seems invidious to give special credit where so many deserve it, but certainly, the people of the State ought to appreciate the hard work, the devotion and the tact of Delegate McIntosh in the preparation and presentation of the Organization Committee report. It might be noted also that Howard Turner, of Kent, who was the leader for economy in the 1914 House, came to Annapolis just for the purpose of lending a hand to Mr. McIntosh in the matter in which he was so much interested."

A GREAT LOSS

Everyone will regret the loss by fire of the beautiful and imposing Administration Building at Washington College Sunday morning. The origin of the fire will likely never be solved. The loss can be replaced but the valuable archives, records and other [illegible] forever. The Board of Governors are to be congratulated for the wisdom of keeping [illegible] will help materially [illegible] lessons to [illegible] following [illegible] rate

ANNAPOLIS NOTES

The Kent delegates in the Legislature received important committee assignments. Senator Brown is on the following committees: Chesapeake Bay and Tributaries, Elections, Agriculture and several other minor ones.

Representative Urie is on these committees: Public Records, Chesapeake Bay and Tributaries.

Representative Willis is on these committees: Agriculture, Insolvency.

To put an end to the marriage scandal in Elkton, Senator Williams on Thursday introduced a bill which makes it a misdemeanor for a minister or any other person authorized to perform a marriage ceremony, to give, directly or indirectly, a present or a reward as an inducement to bring to him persons contemplating matrimony. The penalty imposed for every violation is not less than $10 nor more than $50 and costs, and a committal to jail until the fine and costs are paid.

BILLY SUNDAY'S COMING

If Baltimore church people would remain organized against evil all the time as they have done for the Rev. Billy Sunday there would be no need of any evangelist. Sunday cannot do anything without co-operation nor can any other preacher or evangelist. If the people of Kent county would organize in every community, hold cottage prayer-meetings, or church prayer-meetings, there would be the biggest revival ever seen in this county.

However, Billy Sunday will soon be in Baltimore and no doubt the Eastern Shore residents will feel some of the effects of the same. Why not organize in Chestertown and in other towns and get ready to take advantage of this golden opportunity.

There are of course some who assail him and do not believe in his methods. In answer to this we quote a part of an editorial in Thursday's Evening News:

"There are two sides to Sunday's methods. As Mr. Lincoln once remarked about a book for which he was besought to give an indorsement, 'This is a mighty good book for people who like this kind of book.' So, Sunday is a mighty good preacher for those who like his kind of preaching. He is coming here, will be here for some time and he can give and take hard knocks. The best thing to do, even for those who object to him, is to accept him in good temper."

"As far as The News can learn in other cities, his work has been successful and has been fruitful in good results. How lasting are the effects is another matter. Sunday himself replies to his critics on this point by retorting that neither are the effects of a bath lasting, but that this is not a good reason for not taking one occasionally. He is equal to a three-ring circus going at full [illegible], and "trail-hitters" are so numerous as to give contradiction to the statement that the result of his preaching is negligible. Nor is it true that only the weak, the hysterical and the down-and-outs are persuaded by him. At least one city in which he held a revival recently numbered among the "trail-hitters" a host of its most prominent men. We refer to the city of Syracuse, which gives testimony that many who went to scoff remained to pray.

HE URGES $1 TAX ON EACH GUN

A tax of $1 on every man in Maryland who owns a gun is suggested by Dr. B. Holly Smith, president of the Maryland State Game and Fish Protective Association, in an open letter to Dr. Frank J. Goodnow, chairman of the Economy and Efficiency Commission. Dr. Smith thinks such a tax would afford ample provision for the protection and propagation of game in Maryland. The letter suggests that if the Legislature should pass a law making it obligatory upon every owner of a gun in the State to pay such a tax a fund of from $40,000 to $50,000 to be devoted to the protection of game would be realized. Dr. Smith expresses the opinion that a conservation commission might be appointed to which could be intrusted the expenditure of such a fund. He wants the law to be State-wide, without any exemption of the residents of individual counties.

PUT PRICE ON LIVESTOCK

By a rule that went into effect Jan. 1, all persons desiring to ship livestock to the city market must put a value on same just as they been during when they have had their baggage checked. This rule applies to all the territory East of the Mississippi and North of the Ohio rivers. The P. R. R. issued a bulletin on Dec. 30, of last pear, making this fact known to the public.

Under the new regulations the maximum liability assumed by the railroads at the lowest shipping rate is $250 for a horse, $150 for a bull or steer, $1 00 for a cow, $25 for calves and hogs and $10 for sheep, lambs and goats. For every 50 per cent increase in valuation, over the above, the rate will be increased 5 per cent.

In order to acquaint various livestock dealers along the line with these new rules the railroad companies are holding meetings at various points.

THE embargo on grain has been lifted. Wheat was quoted at $1 34 and corn at 82 cents in Baltimore this week.
