HOSIERY

We are, as we have always been, headquarters for hose. We have children's hose, the best that money can buy, for 15c per pair, or 2 pairs for 25c. They are hard to tell from the regular 25c a pair quality. We have a special grade of ladies hose, medium weight and great wearers, at 3 pairs for $1.00.

CORSETS

The best advertisement on earth that a man can have is a satisfied customer. A lady whoever puts on a pair of Bon Ton or Royal Worcester Corsets is certainly satisfied and comfortable and she tells her friends and neighbors. That's the cause of our immense sale.

GROCERIES

This is the season of the year for parties and when giving one you always want nice things to eat. We have the best at all times. Why pay a high price for second grade goods when you can get the best here.

We use coffee as our leader. We have a special grade of coffee which are selling at 20c a pound and which cannot be duplicated at any other store for less than 25c a pound. Our 28c quality, our customers say, is as good as they are used to paying 35c a pound for. Try a pound, and if not satisfied no charge will be made for it.

Soliciting a trial to convince you I am yours for business.

TOMATO BLIGHT

Mr. William E. Robinson, the well-known tomato grower and canned goods broker, writes that thus far he has met with little success in securing a variety of tomato which is blight proof. He is now expecting a sample of seed from the Maryland Experiment Station which he will plant. He encourages growers to watch for strong, healthy plants and to save the seed from these, with the chance that in this way a disease-resistant variety may be found. Mr. Robinson sends a letter from the Experiment Station in Lafayette, Indiana, in which the Chief in Horticulture says: "We know of no tomato free from blight. This disease is spreading rapidly in the South-Eastern Atlantic States. It is a soil infection, living in the soil year after year when once it is established and makes it impossible to grow tomatoes on that land."

THE cost of the foot and mouth disease among the cattle, sheep and hogs of Maryland for the last 14 months has been $36,250. Of this amount this State still owes the owners of the slaughtered stock $29,755, and the Legislature will be asked to provide this amount. The report of the Live Stock Sanitary Board for 1914 and 1915 was made public today and showed both by figures and photographs what the ravages of the foot and mouth disease have been. The number of animals slaughtered was: Steers, 366; cows, 551; heifers, 46; sheep, 296; hogs, 551; shoats, 53; calves, 47. The total expenses of the board were $92,098.90. The report is signed by H. P. Skipper, president; H. B. Noll, vice-president; C. W. Melville, secretary; Dr. L. Hickman, State Veterinarian.

OBITUARY

In sad but loving remembrance of CHARLES H. JONES, our beloved husband and father, who departed this life two years ago, Feb. 7, 1916.

Sleep on, dear husband, and take your rest,
God took you home, he thought it best;
It was hard indeed to part from thee,
But God's strong arm supported me. WIFE.

His willing hands are folded,
His toil on earth is done;
His troubles all are ended,
His heavenly crown is won. WILLIE.

His well remembered footsteps
I am listening for in vain;
And my eyes grow dim with watching,
And my heart is sad with pain. DELLA.

Just two years ago we laid you to rest,
And folded your cold hands upon your breast;
In silence you suffered, in patience you bore,
Until God called you home to suffer no more.
BERTHA.

No more shall I see his form, loved and dear,
No more shall his voice my troubled heart cheer,
But hope whispers sweetly, in accents of love,
I shall meet my dear father in heaven above.
FLORENCE.

Into sweet rest he has entered,
No more to grieve or to weep;
He is smiling upon me from heaven,
My darling father has fallen asleep.
HELEN.

I often sit and wonder
At what you would say,
If you only knew the changes
That have happened since that day.
CHARLIE.

Death has robbed me of my father,
Of the one I loved so well;
Taken from this world of sorrow,
Safely home with Him to dwell.
MAURICE.
