REGISTER R. R. HILL yesterday swore in Mr. L. B. Russell, Jr., as deputy in his office vice Mr. Thomas A. Matthews, deceased. The new official is 22 years of age, a graduate of Washington College and fully qualified to fill the office. He is a son of Mr. L. B. Russell, editor of the Republican organ, with whom he has been employed since leaving college and was highly recommended for the position. Mr. Hill is fortunate in finding such a worthy successor to Mr. Matthews.

Mr. Daniel McKee Burned

Mr. Daniel McKee while on a visit to his son, Mr. Charles McKee, near town, met with an unusual accident. He had been suffering with a cold for several days and finally decided to try an old-time remedy, viz., coal oil. He took a big swallow of the oil and it burned his mouth so much that he thoughtlessly went to the stove and emptied his mouth! In an instant the flames shot into his face burning his mustache off and igniting his clothing. His daughter quickly went to his relief and in doing so also received some slight burns about her hands. Mr. McKee made a lucky escape owing to the presence of his daughter.

DEATHS

Wm. H. Ayres died yesterday at his home on Hight street just as we started to press, aged about 81. He was one of the best men in Kent county.

Mr. Edgar B. Pennington a highly respected and one of Kent's most aggressive citizens died at noon yesterday at his home near Kennedyville aged 79. He leaves four children, viz., E. B. Jr., Mrs. George C. Sutton, Misses Marian and Elizabeth Pennington. At this writing no arrangements had been made for the funeral.

The fact that "in the midst of life we are in death" has been impressed upon this community this week. Deputy Register of Wills Thomas A. Matthews was at his post of duty Monday and early Tuesday morning was found cold in death in his room.

Mr. Matthews consulted Dr. Simpers Monday for a slight attack of indigestion and was soon relieved and seemed as cheerful as usual but did not eat any dinner and very little supper. On Monday night he walked home from the Court House at 9.30 o'clock with Clerk of the Court A. Parks Rasin, and while he complained as feeling somewhat indisposed, he did not consider his condition in any way serious. Arriving at the residence of Mrs. George B. McWhorter, on Washington avenue, where he had a room, he chatted with Prof. T n Hoor and finally retired.

Not rising at his usual hour Mrs. McWhorter became alarmed and requested her son, Mr. Robert McWhorter, to enter Mr. Matthews' room. On entering he found Mr. Matthews in bed dead, lying in a position just as if he were asleep, no evidence of having suffered being portrayed on his face. Dr. Simpers said that his death was caused by paralysis of the nerve that lead to the heart and was painless and instantaneous.

Mr. Matthews was deputy to the registers of wills for about 10 years and had been an efficient official and leaves a host of friends He was 38 years of age. He leaves the following sisters, Mrs Susie Ellis, Mrs. May Jones, Misses Nan, Helen and Etta Matthews, Herbert, Stanley and James Matthews.

The funeral took place Thursday at 1 o'clock from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Jones, on Washington avenue, interment in Chester cemetery. Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating; undertaker, Chas. L. Dodd. The bearers were: George W. French, E P. Beck, A. P. Rasin, Chas. W. Kibler, Jr., R. J. McWhorter, Spencer Biddle.

Mrs. Susie Reiche Ferguson, beloved wife of Mr. J. E. Ferguson, one of the best known and most popular ladies of Kent, died at her home in Quaker Neck Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock of kidney trouble. Mrs. Ferguson had been in poor health for a year or more and her condition had gradually grown worse.

The deceased lived in Chestertown until about Christmas when she and her husband took charge of the Phillips farm, near Quaker Neck wharf. She was a woman of unusual cheerfulness and liberality. It was refreshing to be in her presence and her joyous spirit was like a sunny day shedding its brightness all around, making burdens lighter and life sweeter. What sunshine is to the flowers, Mrs. Ferguson's cheerfulness was to those about her, and its power of endurance had a fine example in the great suffering borne by her. Her home was always open and heart big enough to admit all and make life as happy for others as she possibly could.

Mrs. Ferguson leaves besides her husband, two sisters, Mrs. Chas. Fitzpatrick, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Solan Anderson, of Rocksburg, Pa., and four brothers, Charles of Kent; Thomas, of Jacksonville, Fla; William, of Seattle, Wash; Ernest, of Phila.

The funeral took place at her late home Thursday morning at 11 o'clock conducted by Dr. H B. Martin. Interment in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were: Harry F. Jefferson, J. Hydie Thompson, James Wood, Raymond Wilkins, Chas Twilley, Raymond Simpers, Thomas Perkins, Fred. G. Usilton.

Capt. Alexander Wheeler, one of the oldest residents of Kent county, died at his home on High street, Chestertown, Wednesday morning after a long illness. He would have been 89 on April 3rd. The deceased was the last one to die of a family of 16 children. He was a Civil War veteran and served with the Union Army. He lived for many years at Betterton from which port he sailed to and from to Baltimore. He was one of the founders of the Methodist church at Betterton and was a useful citizen. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Margaret Ann Wheeler. The funeral will take place today at 11 A M, Dr. L. E Barrett officiating, interment in Still Pond cemetery. C. L Dodd, undertaker. The bearers will be B. F Crew, A. L. Crew. George Crew, Jas. Greet, Geo. F. Bacon, John W. Barnes.

House Burned.—Fire of an unknown origin that started Saturday night about 10 30 o'clock completely destroyed the residence occupied by Mr. Bedford Titter, in Quaker Neck, about two miles from Cliff City.

Mr. Titter had retired but a short while when he was awakened by fire and the whole dwelling was soon in flames. The outbuildings were saved. All of the furniture was lost together with all the clothing of Mr. Titter and that of his housekeeper.

The dwelling was owned by Mr. William Brown, of Baltimore, and was insured by Mr. H. L Boyd for $1200. The furniture and household goods were insured for $500 by Mr. E. P. Beck.
