ROCK HALL

There was no preaching service at the M E. Church last Sunday. Mr. B. F. Legg conducted prayer service in the forenoon and Mr. W. T Downey conducted song service at night.

There is much rejoicing over the return of the Rev. Mr. Prettyman for another year. Let's all be good to him—he deserves it in full.

Mr. J. F. Wheatley, of Chestertown, was a week-end guest of his son, Frank.

Mrs. Thos. Coleman, of Allen's Lane, is quite ill but improving.

A new home bakery has been established in the postoffice building, under the management of Mrs. J. W. Downey and Mrs. John Dowling.

Several crews of our oystering fraternity conceived the idea that they could show our veteran oyster runners a thing or two that would make them get busy. So they secured a vessel, loaded her almost scuppers to with oysters, and departed for port, where they struck a snag of unpaying prices. That was enough for them—they stopped short and cut out.

It was unfortunate that the visit of Congressman D. J. Lewis was planned for Thursday afternoon instead of evening, as the farmers and watermen are so busy after so much lost time on account of weather conditions. Still the popular Congressman and Champion of the people met a number of voters and was much encouraged.

Mr Joseph Downey and family, who have been wintering in the city, have returned to their home at this place.

Mr. Kramer's new automobile must have quite an attraction for Madame Alexander. She is again in the city enjoying her sport. Well none of us begrudge her pleasure. She faithfully "pushed and pulled" for more than 40 years to accumulate her resources, therefore she is entitled to all the joy this old world can give her.

Our Road Engineer is doing this section a fine favor by shelling our public road from Brice's gate up. Many thanks so say we all of us.

CRUMPTON

When the coming and going of certain visitors from a nearby village becomes a menace to public welfare it is time for the public to sit up and take notice.

Mrs. Wm. Goodhand is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. Bacon, of Chestertown, has been visiting Mrs. Hackett Emerson.

Mrs. Wm. Sparks is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Benton, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson are receiving congratulations—its a Harry, Jr.

Mr and Mrs. C. W. Clements are spending the week in Wilmington.

Mrs. J. W. Boggs entertained the Ladies Aid Society Thursday evening.

Mr. Roland Harrison, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. Wm. Sylvester, a former resident, died at his home near town Tuesday.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of MRS. PHOEBE MOFFETT, of Lynch.

Life's labors done as sinks the day,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
How blest the righteous when called away.
Farewell, dear children, I am at rest,
And shall forever be;
I could not stay with thee on earth
But you can come to me.

A LOVE ONE.

You Can't Burn Your Fence Rows
Unless You Have AMERICAN STEEL FENCE POSTS
Made by AMERICAN STEEL & WIRE COMPANY

"Bugs and weeds destroy," he says, "unless you kill and remove them. You can only do that with fire. Of course you cannot burn your fence rows, if you are still using old, out-of-date wood posts. But you can burn your fence rows if you use American Steel Fence Posts." That's only one reason why Steel Posts are best. They last a lifetime. Wooden posts rot or wear after five to ten years. Steel Posts protect your stock from lightning. Each Steel Post is really a lightning rod. They need no post holes or staples. They can be driven.

CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday was a joyous day at Christ M. P. Church, at the communion services in the morning two young men and a lady united with the church. Mrs. Fred G. Usilton and Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell sang a pretty duet, "Just for Today." At the evening service Dr. W. R Graham preached a masterful sermon on "Thy Kingdom Come." A quintette comprising Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, Mrs W. Frank Jarrell, Arlington L. Sparks and Fred. G. Usilton rendered a selection with solo by Mr. Thompson, and a male quartette comprising Messrs. Bowers, Thompson, Sparks and Usilton rendered "Just Outside The Gate."

Rev. A. B. Dupuy, a former pastor, will preach at Wesley Chapel to-morrow (Sunday) at 10.30 a. m.

The subject of the morning sermon in the Still Pond M. E. Church will be "Untrodden Ways." In the evening at 7.30 Mr. Nichols will preach on "The Essentials of Victory." Services in Betterton M. E. Church will be held at 3 o'clock p. m.
