BEAUTY OF FIGURE IS NOT A QUESTION of SIZE

But the beauty of a bank account is entirely a question of size.

Fortunately while none of us have much to say about the beauty of our figures, most of us have the entire making of our bank accounts in our own hands, and can set our stakes high if we WILL to do so.

Bring us your deposits, and let us help you realize your ideal of beauty in things financial.

Fire Insurance
Kent News Building. Chestertown, Md

Fire at Hanesville--The dwelling house of Mr. Burns Dishong, at Hanesville, was completely destroyed by fire on Sunday night. He saved all his furniture and contents, with exception of some canned fruit in cellar. Fire was first discovered about five o'clock Sunday afternoon around the chimney and with the help of his neighbor it was extinguished but only after all the furniture had been removed from the house. After the fire was thought to be extinguished the furniture was put back in the house and Mr. Dishong returned to the house to retire. Then about eleven o'clock the fire broke out again and before it could be extinguished the house was burned to the ground. Mr. Benj. Davis and family, who live near Mr. Dishong, had a hard fight to prevent his buildings from burning on account of the flying sparks His son, Joshua, had to watch the buildings all night. Mr. Dishong's house was insured with Mr. Jas. G. Beck's agency for $500.

DAIRY AND CORN CLUB

A meeting was held on Tuesday at Superintendent Burrell's office in Chestertown for the purpose of forming a Dairy Improvement Association. Plans for forming an Association were discussed and a meeting will be be held next Friday at 2 P. M. in the school room at Kennedyville. All interested in cattle are invited to be present.

Corn Clubs are being organized among the boys of Kent. Already five have been started, viz, Kennedyville, Galena, Betterton, Millington and Rock Hall. The two prize winners will get a fine trip over Maryland, the State winners will get a long trip under the U. S. Government's direction.

WEDDING NOTES

MATTHEWS—BLACKWAY.

At one o'clock, Wednesday, April 12, Miss Mary Atkins Blackway, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Blackway, of Cecilton, became the bride of Mr. Jay Conners Matthews, of Earleville. Zion M. E. Church was the scene of the ceremony. To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, rendered by Miss Clara Manlove, the bridal couple entered the church, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Willard Knock and Eben Frazer, of Earleville, and C. V. Harris and Clifton Burke, and were met at the altar by the Rev. J. M. Mitchell.

The bride wore a traveling suit of Belgian blue wool poplin trimmed with white silk poplin collar and cuffs with a picture hat of Alyce blue silk braid and chiffon, the trimming of which was a single full bloom rose of exquisite pink. The waist was of white Georgette crepe and lace with a touch of blue on collar and revers. She carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and orchids. The groom wore the conventional black.

Immediately after the ceremony they left, amid showers of rice and confetti, for a honeymoon trip to Washington.

The wedding of Miss Helen Z. Davis and Mr. Irving W. Spry will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Davis, near Sassafras, Md., on Saturday morning, April 15th, at eight o'clock. It will be witnessed by only a few relatives of the contracting parties.

A COLORED man was found dead on the Jas. Stevens farm, East Neck Island, on Thursday last. He had recently come from Baltimore.

THE Chestertown Literary Society left yesterday for a trip to Washington and a special visit to the Congressional Library.
