Local Notes

The local officers have placed Grover Greenwood again under arrest for alleged violation of the local option law.

The "Ford" left Chestertown Monday at 7 o'clock. Rock Hall will have a daily boat. The new schedule appears in this issue.

It is reported that the Meeteer house on Front street will be rented for Rev. Mr. Beauchamp during the erection of the new M. E. parsonage.

The Chestertown Grange will have public installation next Thursday, April 20. Other Grangers invited. An entertaining program has been arranged.

The Philadelphia Motor Company seem to have withdrawn service between Chestertown and Elkton. The sheriff has a number of claims against them.

The colored conference made the following appointments for Kent last week: Chestertown, H. W. Johns; Fairlee, C. W. Winder; Melitota, J. O. Lockerman.

The Arlington Hotel, Centreville, will change hands next Monday when N. R Lockerman, of Crisfield, will take charge. He purchased the property of Wm. McKenney.

The Grollman farms on the Chesapeake Bay have been purchased of W. M. Slay, Esq., by Mr. Jas. G. Harris, of near Betterton. The price is said to be $20,500.

The Senior Class of the Chestertown High School will give a play entitled "A Daughter of the Desert" in the Lyceum Theatre, on Wednesday night, April 26th.

The case against the Chestertown Commissioners and officer S. Cooper for destruction of trees has been with-drawn by H. H. Barroll, Esq., attorney for Mrs. Deringer.

The auto bus line that makes the trips to and from Elkton and which is owned by Philadelphia parties, was "tied up" this week by Sheriff Hadaway for the collection of several bills.

Thuosands of bushels of shells are being unloaded at Chestertown and are being put on the roads near Chester river bridge along the Walker and Klinefelter farms. It is a much needed improvement.

Davis & Caldwell will restore the $1.25 price for fare to Elkton, beginning Monday. They will also meet the demands of the public for a Sunday car. They contemplate adding more comfortable autos in a few weeks. Watch for change of schedule next week.

The Wm. T. Duyer home on Cannon street has been sold thru J. W. Russell's agency to Mrs. Thos. L. Meeks. Mr. and Mrs. Meeks will remove from "Airy Hill" to Chestertown Jan. 1, 1917. Mr. Duyer will build a new home on his lot corner of Kent and Cannon.

Prof. J. B. Noble, principal of the Cambridge High School, has been appointed principal of the Centreville High School to succeed Prof. Robert H Adams. Prof. Noble is well-known in Centreville, at one time filling the position to which he will return.

Kent countians will have an opportunity Saturday night of hearing one of the finest musical recitals that has been given in Kent for a long time. The program is to be given in the Auditorium of Betterton High School for the benefit of the piano fund.

The State Council Junior Order United American Mechanics will meet in Crisfild on Monday, April 18th. Delegates from the different lodges of the State will attend. The Eastern Shore, Peninsula and Asbury Councils, of Crisfield, will entertain them. The city will be decorated.

The Boy Scouts of Chestertown held a meeting at Scout Master Parks' office on last Friday evening. Three new members were added to the organization last week. They will hold an Eastern Shore meeting at Denton, Md., on Friday, and will make the trip to that town by Graham, Clements and Sutton's big bus which is donated free to the Scouts.

The people of Chestertown can look forward to some good entertainments in the early part of May. The P. E. Sunday school is preparing a bright and catchy Japanese operetta, under the direction of Mr. William Walter Chapman and Miss M. Adele France, and the Town Relief a very clever comedy, under Miss France's direction, and other features by Miss Gussie Cannan.

Snow and slush visited this section Saturday and Sunday morning, about 4 inches having fallen. Last year Easter came on April 4, and the day before there was a heavy fall of snow. According to local weather records, there was a snowfall of one-tenth of an inch April 28, 1898. This is the latest snowfall on record. On April 10 and 11, 1894, however, there was a fall of five inches.

The Chestertown night school closed last week after a session of more than three months Notwithstanding the many inclement nights and the fact that a number of the students came from the country, the average attendance was eighteen! Dr. Clarke and Prof. Jones are certainly to be commended for their labor of love while the School Board and Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church are to be congratulated for making such a splendid undertaking possible.

The regular bi-monthly meeting for April of the Woman's Federated Club will be held this Saturday afternoon, April 15, at 3 p. m. instead of Monday, Apr. 17. Business of special importance will be conducted, and all members of the club are earnestly urged to be present. Delegates to the annual meeting of the State Federation to be held April 26th and 27th, will be elected, as will also delegates to the General Federation Biennial Meeting which meets in New York the latter part of May.

The Grammar and Primary School of Chestertown will give an entertainment in the Assembly Hall, on High street, next Tuesday, April 18, at 7.30 p. m. Following is the program:

"A Play Red Riding Hood"
Duet ..... Alice and Helen Coleman
Grandmother Daisies ..... Six Little Girls
A May Party ..... Fifth Grade
A Spring Operetta Entitled "Mother Goose's Garden"

It is to be hoped the patrons will help these boys and girls. Proceeds to be used in school furnishings.

APPOINTMENTS OF M. P. CONFERENCE

Delegates To General Conference Chosen — Superannuate Society Reports And Elects Officers.

The eighty-eighth session of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church ended Tuesday night at West Baltimore Church with the announcement of appointments of ministers to various charges throughout the conference.

Among the changes in Baltimore churches was the appointment of the Rev. J. M. Gill to the pastorate of the West Baltimore Church to replace the Rev. G. I. Humphreys. who will go to the Rhode Island Avenue Church, in Washington, D. C. The Rev. Mr. Gill was pastor of the Rhode Island Avenue Church several years ago, but he goes to Baltimore from First Church, of Seattle, Wash. The Rev. Mr. Humphreys will replace the Rev. Louis Randall, who goes to Taylor Memorial Church, Philadelphia.

Lowe Memorial Church, formerly the William Street Independent Methodist Church, added to the conference at the beginning of this session, will be in charge of the Rev. W. A. Melvin, who comes from First Church, Washington.

Ill health has made necessary the retirement for at least a year of the Rev. F. D. Reynolds, pastor of Waverly Church.

Dr. W. R. Graham, the beloved pastor of Christ M. P. Church, asked to be placed on the superannuate list after a service of 43 years. He will be succeeded in Chestertown by Rev. J. L. Ward.

Kennedyville—P. M. R. Schane.
Susquehanna—F. S. Cain.
Chesapeake—A. C. Smith.
Greedwood, Del —H. W. D. Johnson.
Franklin City, Va.—J. L. Elderdice.
Elizabeth, N. J.—G. I. Bacchus.
Hurlock—A. B. Dupuy.
Polomac—C. K. McCaslin.
Salem—W. N. Sherwood.
Warwick—J. N. Link.
St. James—H. F. Jester.
Leeds—S. B. Tredway.
Union Bridge—F. M. Clift.
Delmar—G. A. Morris.

An attempt to take the ministerial appointing power out of the hands of the president and to place it in the hands of an appointing committee, was quickly and decisively checked at the session of the conference Monday morning. The matter came up in the shape of a resolution offered by Rev. C. P. Nowlin, of St. Michaels, Md., which asked that the absolute appointing power of the president be largely curtailed and that the plan of appointments be worked out by a committee composed of two ministers and two layman, with the president of the conference as chairman of that committee. There were several interesting speeches on the subject, both for and against, but when it came to a vote it was quickly defeated.

General Conference Delegates

After balloting for five days the list of ministerial and lay delegates to the General Conference, which meets next month in Zanesville, Ohio, was finally completed Tuesday afternoon, the conference having taken nine ballots. The complete list follows:

Ministerial Delegates—Revs. John S. Bowers, H. L. Elderdice, T. H. Lewis, F. T. Littie, J. H. Straughn, F. T. Tagg, G. W. Haddaway, F. T. Benson, L. F. Warner, J. M. Gill, J. W. Kirk, F. C. Klein, T. O. Crouse, A. N. Ward, J. M. Sheridan, E. D. Stone.

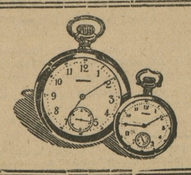

Lay Delegates—Daniel Baker, T. P. Fisher, J. T. Norris, H. K. Mueller, W. W. Smith, J. N. Warfield, Jr., J. H. Roberts, W. E. Sheppard, Dr. J. B. Jones, J. H. Elliott, Fred. G. Usilton, T. A. Murray, F. M. Wilson, J. Bibb Mills, M. A. Davis and Julian P. Dodge.

Ministerial Alternates—Revs. Walter R. Graham, L. B. Smith, W. A. Melvin, J. M. Holmes and E. C. Makoskey.
