BEAUTY OF FIGURE IS NOT A QUESTION of SIZE

But the beauty of a bank account is entirely a question of size.

Fortunately while none of us have much to say about the beauty of our figures, most of us have the entire making of our bank accounts in our own hands, and can set our stakes high if we WILL to do so.

Bring us your deposits, and let us help you realize your ideal of beauty in things financial.

SCHOOL CASE DECIDED

The Court Hands Down An Opinion in Favor of the School Commissioners and Teachers—The Plaintiffs To Pay the Costs.

The injunction suit laid by Hope H. Barroll, W. T. Nicholson, R. H. Collins, James E. Morris, Wm. J. Tarbutton, J. M. Comegys, Wm. R. Price, J. R. Copper, Thomas D. Bowers, Harry Nichols, E. Romain Morris, Walter T. Morris, T. G. Wroth, John C. Wood, T. Benjamin Crew and C. S. Hill against the Board of County School Commissioners, has been giving considerable concern to teachers and others. S. Scott Beck, Esq, counsel for the Board, in an able argument published in the NEWS, presented the Board's case. H. H. Barroll, Esq., in an endeaver to have the Board enjoined from borrowing money, presented his side. The court heard the arguments Monday at some length.

On Thursday Hons. Adkins and Hopper signed an order refusing to grant an injunction and dismissing the bill of complaint, placing the costs on plaintiffs. The court stated that they gave a short order at this time in order not to embarrass the School Board any longer, and that they will file their written opinion later.

FIRES IN KENT

P. B. Rasin's Farm House Burned—Tenement Homes in Lynchburg Damaged—Fine Work by the Local Fire Company.

All the outbuildings on Mr. Wm. A. Bell's farm, adjoining the Washington College property, were destroyed by fire at 4 A. M. Thursday. A colored hand was getting up when he discovered a blaze in the barn yard over the cow shed in a lot of long fodder. Mr. Bell and the man released the cattle and all the horses excepting a mare and colt. They were so exhausted that they were unable to get them out. Help was slow coming, then there was but little water and the crowd simply stood and watched the destruction. The elegant home was saved by several climbing on the roof and using what little water they had in keeping the shingles wet.

The loss included manure spreader, drill and other implements, 10 tons of hay, ensilage, feed and every building excepting a small chicken house. The Kent Mutual had about $1400 insurance while Mr. J. G. Beck's agency had the personalty. The total loss will be fully $5,000.

The residence of Mr. Perry B. Rasin, near Lynch, was destroyed by a fire that was caused by a defective flue Friday evening at about six o'clock. An out building was also burnd. Mr. Barney Cooper occupied the house. The house was insured for $1500 by Mr. J. G. Beck. Considerable furniture was destroyed belonging to Mr. Rasin.

In the midst of the terrific wind storm Tuesday afternoon a double tenement house near Culp's factory, on Lynchburg street, took fire. The local fire company were soon on the scene and never did their services prove so effective. With three lines of hose they confined the blaze to the double house and one adjoining. These three were badly damaged. They belong to Mr. A. M. Culp.

The Walter Bramble house on the opposite side of the street occupied by Silus Saul, Alias "Miss Mary," was on fire several times, but extinguished by the volunteers. It was slightly damaged.

THE W. C. T. U. County Convention will be held in the M. E. Church, Chestertown, May 18th. Among the speakers will be Rev. Don S. Colt, Dr. Bourdeau Sisco, Mrs. Haslup and others.

APRIL TERM OF THE CIRCUIT COURT

The April term of the Circuit Court convened Monday morning, Judge P. E. Hopper on the Bench.

W. W. Beck, Esq., moved for the admission of W. F. Russell, Jr., Esq., to the local bar, and same was granted.

The following is the Grand Jury: Wilbur W. Hubbard, foreman; Theodore Dempsey, Robert F. Jarrell, Robert G. Nicholson, John Bartley, Wm. E. Willson, Harry F. Rash, William S. Scoon, Anthony H. Johnson, John C. Redmile, Harry F. Williams, W. Frank Jarrell, Roy F. Strong, Jere Miller, Richard Groves, C. M. Hurtt, David Clements, S. G. Lee, Frank E. Duyer, J. D. Ayres, Lewis C. Ayres, George M. Hadaway, A. W. Cochran.

Petit Jury: W. B. Miller, Thos. Rasin, G. W. Watts, Robert Kennedy, E. H. Chrisfield, J. W. Downey, Herman Blackway, M. T. Miller, J. W. Stevens, L. W. Ford, H. M. Baker, S. T. Deshane, Harry C. Hendrickson, R Wesley Moffett, Jas. E. Hurlock, Daniel W. Hill, William B. Willis, F. H. Cornelius, F. H. Greenwood, Geo. B. Westcott, Harry L. Boyd, John Brice, Walter H. Hadaway, T. H. M. Bramble, Howard D. Reese, William L. Faulkner

The Grand Jury brought in true bills against S. M. Lockerman, for larceny; Clifton Spry, larceny; Lester Johnson, larceny; Joseph Long, burglary and larceny.

Argument concerning the injunction against the School Commissioners occupied a large part of Monday.

The Grand Jury finished their work Wednesday and brought in the following report:

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR KENT COUNTY, MARYLAND:

As per your charge to us when we were drawn as Grand Jurors, we have tried faithfully to perform our duty.

We have examined 51 witnesses, 36 of whom were held for Court and 15 dismissed. We have found 15 presentments and 15 true bills, and 6 cases dismissed for want of sufficient evidence and other reasons in the judgment of the jurors.

The greatest difficulty, we have found to obtain evidence in the Local Option cases, has been the character of witnesses were such that it was almost impossible to get definite data.

We have been impressed as jurors by the many petty cases that have been brought from the Justice of the Peace to Court and as taxpayers we really think that many of these cases ought to be disposed of, without occupying the time and attention of the Court, to say nothing of the expense incident to the prosecution thereof and we certainly hope that our future Legislaturemen and next State Senator will cause such laws to be passed that will effect a saving to our tax-payers on account of such petty cases.

We have visited the jail and find it well kept and the prisoners as comfortable as you could expect, but our attention was drawn to one prisoner by the name of Hines, who has been confined to the jail about twelve months. We understand he is an Epileptic and instead of getting better he seems to get worse and your Grand Jurors would recommend to this Honorable Court that this party be committed to some institution, possibly the Almshouse or some other place where he could be taken care of.

Our attention has also been drawn to the Stock Law that is continually being broken by people pasturing on the public highways, which has been the cause of numerous accidents, in that teams have been injured by coming in contact with stock and we would recommend that at the next term of Court, if this is persisted in, that our successors act upon it.

We trust our deliberations have been satisfactory and appreciate the assistance rendered us by the Honorable Court, the Clerk and State's Attorney, all of whom have done everything in their power to aid us in our investigations and deliberations.

Respectfully submitted,
WILBUR W. HUBBARD, Foreman.

The appeal case of W. B. LeCompt against A. L. Hudson for sawing lumber, etc.; tried before jury, verdict of $75, amount in dispute, for LeCompt. W. W. Beck for LeCompt, H. H. Barroll for Hudson.

George Wess, alias George Thompson plead guilty to stealing gloves; sentence suspended and paroled in custody of James B. Newnam. W. W. Beck for prisoner, H. W. Vickers for State.

Samuel Washington was acquitted by jury of stealing a blanket from Wm. M. Hurlock. R. G. Parks for prisoner, H. W. Vickers for State.

The case of William E. Deford versus William H. Jones was compromised. Jones gets two cows, one heifer valued at $11. H. W. Vickers for latter and W. W. Beck for Jones.

Lester Johnson was convicted of stealing a blanket from Arthur Groves and sentenced to 12 months in House of Correction. W. Frazier Russell, Jr., for prisoner. H. W. Vickers for State.

Grover Greenwood and William Walters were each convicted of violating the local option law and each sentenced to 12 months in House of Correction. H. W. Vickers for State, no lawyer for the defense.

Schee M. Lockwood was found guilty of larceny of hogs from John Burris, of Chesterville, by a jury. Vickers for State, W. W. Beck for defense.

Clarence Buttler was convicted of carrying concealed weapons.

Jimmie Hopkins was declared not guilty by State in case of non-support, R. G. Parks for Hopkins.

Court issued an order striking out judgment in case of John D. Urie vs. James T. Decorse and the case will come up on its real merits next week. S. P. Townshend for Decorse.

Joseph Long plead guilty to larceny of $15 worth of goods from Bramble, Kilbourn & Noland.

Court adjourned Thursday until Monday when the balance of the criminal docket will be disposed of and several civil cases tried.
