The Culley farm of 220 acres, near Millington, has been sold by the Kent County Land Co. to Mrs. Wm. Comegys. Price Private.

The case against Messrs. McWhorter and Massey charged with bringing tubercolin cattle to Church Hill came up for trial in Centreville Saturday, but it was squashed before a jury was even drawn.

On Monday last the fishermen at Ocean City had the biggest catch ever recorded in the ocean fishing at that point. For the past ten days all the big operators at Ocean City have been having unusual luck in catching fish, and every day has recorded a record breaking epoch in the industry at Ocean City. The catch landed Monday amounted to 1,787 barrels of fine trout and other food fish. The largest catch ever recorded before was last year when about 1,000 barrels were caught in one day.

It took a train of twenty cars to haul the fish from Ocean City to Salisbury where distrubition for the various points in the north, east and South was made.

The ladies of Sacred Heart Church are arranging for a strawberry festival on Wednesday, May 24.

The School Board for Kent County organized Tuesday by electing Mr. John P. Ahern, president; C. Romie Skirven, vice-president; Prof. J. L. Smyth, secretary and treasurer; S. Scott Beck, Esq., attorney. The third member is John D. Urie, Esq.

The reading by Mrs. Lippincott in Lyceum Wednesday evening. "The Music Master," was a delightful production. She would be hard to excell and Chautauqua added another laurel to its crown of reputation for good and wholesome entertainment. The local managers for the coming Chautauqua in September say they still have some season tickets for sale.
