FOR ARMORED AUTO CAR

A number of young gentlemen were in Chestertown last Saturday week with a decorated car and interviewed several of our citizens in the interest of an armored car.

To give Maryland an armored motor-car and so put it on a par with many of the other states, these young men of Baltimore, acting under the sanction of the Maryland League for National Defense, started on a tour of the Eastern Shore. Their object is to get subscriptions right now when the fires of patriotism are at white heat.

Those who are making the campaign are George P. Thomas, third; E. L. Bartlett, third; Addison de Goll and Gordon T. Parks.

The amount needed is $6,000, and this will give the car completely equipped. Some of this money is already subscribed, and it is believed that a few days will bring the total to the needed figure. As soon as the car can be placed at the disposal of the National Guard it will be accepted by Adjutant General Henry M. Warfield.

The car will carry rapid-fire guns, ammunition and the crew, which will be composed of the four men who are now working to get the outfit.

Hicks' Forecasts For July

A reactionary storm period is central on the 2d, 3rd and 4th. The Mercury period is central on the 3rd. Earth is in aphelion, or at greatest distance from the Sun, on the 2nd. On and touching Sunday the 2d, to Tuesday the 4th, the barometer will fall, beginning in Western parts about the 2d, and advancing progressively eastward, bringing increasing cloudiness, with restless, threatening winds and high temperature. Rain and thunder storms will break in many sections, at the center and around the flanks of the advancing storm area. These storms will culminate in a crisis about the 3rd and 4th, passing from central parts of the country to eastern extremes on and next to those days.

A regular storm period is central on the 9th, extending over Friday the 7th, to Wednesday the 12th. The Moon is at first quarter on the 8th, and at greatest south declination on the 12th. The Mercury disturbances will also continue in its disturbing force into and perhaps to the close of this period. By the 7th and 8th, the temperature will be rising very high in western extremes, falling barometer will attend high temperature, clouds will form, and these conditions will begin to move eastward across the country.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 14th, 15th and 16th. The full Moon, or Moon's opposition with the Sun and Earth, falls on the 14th. This opposition is at an eclipse node, bringing an eclipse of the Moon on the 14th. This implies, of course, that the Sun, Earth and Moon will be on a direct line with each other at that time, thus aggravating and intensifying the waves, or lines of physical force plying between the Sun and the planetary body, greatly increasing the probabilities of magnetic, electric and atmospheric convulsions; seismic, volcanic and earthquake unrest is perceptibly increased at such times.

A regular storm period is central on the 20th, reaching from the 18th to the 23rd. The Moon is on the celestial equator on the 18th, is in conjunction with Jupiter on the 22nd, and at last quarter on the 21st. Mercury is in perihelion on the 20th, and Venus is in aphelion on the 22d. The Venus equinox, blends with the regular "Vulcan" period, while the conjunction of the planet Neptune with Earth and Sun on the 25th, extends its perturbing influence quite over this whole period.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 25th, 26th and 27th. The Moon is at highest north declination on the 25th. The quadrature of Jupiter with Earth and Sun, and the superior conjunction of Mercury with Earth and Sun are on the 27th and 28th. This period leads up to new Moon on the 29th, on which date there is an annular eclipse of the Sun. The Moon is also in apogee, or at greatest distance from the Earth, on the 28th—a fact which changes the potentials of magnetic and electrical forces, breeding unrest and active squalls and storms in our atmosphere, adding greatly to the probability of seismic trouble about the 26th to 29th.

Upon the whole, we believe that July will prove a favorable month for agricultural interests. Some sections may suffer shortage in timely and diffused rains, but we do not calculate suffering from severe and general drouth. The Mercury period in the early part of the month, and the Venus period, which covers the last half of the month, are indications of frequent and perhaps sufficient showers.
