LOWER KENT NEWS

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Droll is quite sick at the home of her parents, near here, Misses Elizabeth and Ellanore Davis are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Ella Reiche, near Pomona.

Mr. Wm. Williams spent the Fourth with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Apsley and daughter, Iona, spent the week-end in Philadelphia and Atlantic City, making the trip in their auto.

Mr. Nelson Stevens' family, of Baltimore, are at their country place here for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Smith and little son, of Baltimore, are spending some time with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Strauf (nee Miss Ida Hynson) of Baltimore, were home for the holiday. Mrs. Strauf has been very ill, but is somewhat improved now.

Messrs. Raymond and Walter Lewis spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lewis.

The Rock Hall M. E. Church people were given a rare treat on Sunday morning last when the Rev. Mr. Wise, the District Superintendent, preached. Mr. Wise preached from the text, "But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon," and he spoke of reputation and character as being the principal things to build with. This is the first time Mr. Wise has ever been to Rock Hall, and he expressed himself as very much pleased with our little town.

Another automobile accident that came near having a fatal ending occured last Sunday afternoon, when a car owned by Mr. James Bramble, formerly of this county, and run by Mr. Henry Sewell, of near Lankford, turned over. In the car with Mr. Sewell were his brother, Eddie, Miss Mary Etta Baker and Miss Mary Dowling. The young folks were on their way up the county and the car was going at a moderate rate, when, in turning out of a rut, young Sewell lost control of the machine and it turned over. That they were not killed is little less than a miracle, as they were all hurled out of the car. Mr. Eddie Sewell was the most injured, the car falling partly on him. Both young men were unconscious when picked up Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Burgess kindly came to the aid of the young ladies, while the young men were taken at first to Dr. Selby's and then to their aunt's, Mrs James Baker. All were under Dr. Selby's care. It was thought at first that Miss Dowling's arm was broken, but it proved to be a bad sprain. She was also cut about the face and very much bruised about the body. Miss Baker was also bruised and cut, as well as Mr. Henry Sewell. The car was pretty well wrecked, but was towed to the shop of Mr. Wm. Wagner, who, with Mr. Maxwell Blakeney, of Chestertown, repaired the damages. Mr. Henry Sewell returned to Pennsylvania Wednesday driving the same car. The young ladies are improving as well as could be expected. The Dr. is still attending Mr. Eddie Sewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, of Baltimore, spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs Charles Ayres.

Mr. Hicks and family, of Baltimore, are at Rock Hall for the summer,

Mr. Haywood Ashley still remains on the sick list, as also does Mr. Zyner and Mr Middleton.

The Fourth of July passed off very quietly here. Our streets were quite deserted, a large majority going to Tolchester. The autos were kept busy conveying passengers back and forth to that place.

One of our town citizens wishes to bet that he can plow a garden sixty feet long, with a table fork on each shoulder, in half a day and the forks not fall off. It is evident he can beat Mr. Culley in more ways than one.

Mrs. John Slaughter and little daughter, Kathryn spent this week with her cousin, Mrs. John Smith, of Sudlersville.

CHURCH NOTES

Sunday was a day of unusual interest at Christ M. P. Church. At the morning Sunday School Miss Mayme Thompson's "Sunday School Army" gave a repetition of the splendid exercise given on Children's Day before the 130 scholars and teachers. This was followed by a large communion service in the church at which two members were received into church. At the twilight service the newly elected officers of the Christian Endeavor Society, heretofore mentioned, were installed by Rev. J. L. Ward in a most impressive manner. The musical program included beautiful solos by Miss M. Julia Thompson, of Baltimore, Mrs. Bordley Sappington, of Washington, and a quartette by Messrs. Bowers, Thompson, Sparks and Usilton.

Tuesday of last week was the fortieth wedding anniversary of the Rev. and Mrs. W. L. White, of Easton, and in the evening members of the congregation and friends carried a surprise party to the parsonage.

In recognition of the approaching union of Methodism in the United States as indicated by the action by the Saratoga Springs conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the pastors of the two largest local congregations representing the Methodist Episcopal and Methodist Episcopal Church South, in Huntington, W. Va., have planned for an experimental union in the vacation season.

St. James Church, H. B Jester, pastor. Sunday-school at 9.45 a. m., Mr. R G. Nicholson, supt.; sermon, subject, "Finished Work," 11 a. m.; Christian Endeavor 7.30 p. m., led by H. B. Jester. We will have special singing and a good program—come. Lynch Sunday-school at 2 15, preaching at 3.

Rev. Ralph T. Coursey, conference evangelist, will preach at Fairlee M. E. Church Sunday at 10.30 a. m. and 7 30 p. m., and at Union, Worton, at 3 p. m.

Wesley Chapel, M. P. Church, Rev. Albert C. Smith, pastor—9 30 a. m., Sunday school; 10 30 a. m., preaching, subject, "Christ Our Exemplification." In the evening at 7.15, weather permitting, we will hold service on the green as did the Apostles of old touching the very hem of Christ's garment; beneath the shaded trees in the cool of twilight. The minister will preach a series of sermons on Marriage. First evening, July 9th, the subject will be Oath and Purpose; July 16th, Father and Mother; July 23rd, Evils of Divorce. There is absolutely nothing sensational in these discourses. They are purely biblical. Wesley Chapel is a friendly church striving to meet the spiritual demands of its parishioners and friends; and to serve God acceptably. Come thou and thy household—7 15 p. m. sharp.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor—Sunday School, F. G. Usilton, superintendent, 10 a. m., missionary day; sermon, subject, "Selling the Birthright For a Bowl of Pottage, 11 a. m.; Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, Mrs. C. N. Satterfield, president, 7 00 p. m.; short sermon, "The Consecration of Barnabas," 7.30 p. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday, 8.00 p. m.

Chestertown M. E Church—Rev T. F. Beauchamp, pastor. Services Sunday July 9 as follows: 9 30 a. m. Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible class; 10 30 a. m., preaching by the pastor, subject, "The Final Triumph of Christian Faith"; 7 p. m, song service followed by sermon by the pastor, subject, "The Compassionate Christ," All welcome.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of JOSEPHINE ROBINSON PHILLIPS, who died four months ago, July 5, 1916.

At the beautiful gates she stands and waits,
Our loved one from pain set fee;
I shall clasp her hand and feel her kiss
When the gates unhinge for me.
BY HER FATHER.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in the grave so low;
Thou no more will join our numbers,
Thou no more our sorrow know.
Yet again we hope to meet you
When the day of life is fled,
And with joy in heaven to greet you,
Where no farewell tears are shed.
BY HER STEP MOTHER.

Dearest sister, how we miss you
Since from earth you passed away,
And our hearts are aching sorely.
As we think of you each day.
SISTER RUTH.

We do not know the pain she bore,
We did not see her die;
We only heard that she had died
Without bidding us good-by.
BROTHER RALPH.

It is nice to be remembered
By those you left behind,
Although you may be absent,
You are still within our mind.
SISTER IN-LAW, SADIE.

As We Predicted

The flood tide of business has become greater than the markets of this country have been able to supply. Never before in the history of trade have the demands been so great as at the present time. Factories are swamped with orders that they cannot fill, nor money buy. The merchant with the goods in stock the one prepared to take care of this increased trade and maintain the prices which the public can pay.

We have anticipated these conditions and are in a position to take care of your needs.

We invite your inspection of our stock, which you will find complete in every line and marked at our former low prices.

We especially call your attention to our line of Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes, the latest summer styles in Oxfords and Pumps.
