Haying Season

Are you prepared to care for the large crop of hay this season has given us?
We are ready to help you harvest your hay with all the latest improved and most up-to-date machinery. This year we offer for the first time our No. 6 McCormick Mower, a gem of perfection and mechanical ability. You well know the enviable reputation the McCormick Mower has enjoyed for so many years and you wonder how it could be improved upon, but it has been done. The No. 6 Mower has been working under the most adverse field conditions for 5 years, being thoroughly tried out by expert mechanics and by farmers to whom it was entirely new and all pronounced it good. The No. 6 is not the New 4 made over but an entirely new mower with all the good features of the New 4 embodied. There are so many points to call attention to that it is impossible to mention them here, but we ask you to come and see the mower.

WEDDING NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Davies, 618 N. Fulton Ave., Baltimore, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Naomi, to Mr. J. Waters Russell, of Chestertown. The wedding will take place the latter part of August.

BRICE—SMYTH.

As the twilight shades were being drawn on Tuesday evening about the beautiful Christ Church a scene of quiet and romantic loveliness was unfolded. It was the marriage of Miss Anna Burch Smyth, a teacher in the High School, pianist in the Sunday school of her church, and the accomplished daughter of Prof. J. L. Smyth and wife, to Mr. James Alfred Brice, son of Capt. John Brice and an active business man of Betterton. The church was decorated by a corp of skilled workers under the direction of Miss Inez Russell, and it was certainly well done evoking words of praise from all.

A novel feature of the ceremony as performed by Rev. J. L. Ward, was the choral rendition of Lohengrin's march by a bevy of eleven pretty young ladies, accompanied by Miss Clara Belle Usilton on organ.

The bride was dressed in geos de Loudre trimmed in silk lace ribbon and Georgette crepe and wore a veil caught and draped with orange blossoms, while in her arms she carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and snap dragons.

Miss Carrie Bolton, of Chestertown, was maid of honor, looking quite chic in nile green geos de Loudre embroidered in silver combined with flesh chiffon accordion plaited and carrying pink sweet peas. The pretty bridesmaids, each carrying pink carnations, were Miss Leonora Davis, dressed becomingly in lemon taffeta, trimmed in silk maline of same shade, and Miss Lillian Hart in a well-fitting nile green taffeta trimmed in small ruffles of old English point lace. These ladies were from Townsend, Del. The groom and ushers wore full dress suits, silk gloves with boutonnieres of white carnations—Messrs. Harvey Moore, Arthur Brice, Raymond Herbert, of Betterton, and George Baldwin, of Chestertown. The best man was Mr. Edward F. Bowen, of Pocomoke City.

After the wedding a splendid reception was given at the bride's home on High street which was illuminated for the occasion. Roses and sweet peas decorated the dining and reception parlors and everyone enjoyed the occasion. The presents included many beautiful and useful articles. The bridal couple left at 10 P. M. in a gaily and "loudly" decorated auto for a trip to the seaside. They expect to return today and take up their residence at Betterton.

The Sunday School of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, will hold their annual picnic and excursion to Queenstown next Wednesday, July 19th. "Bolingly" has been kindly opened to the school for that day. The steamer B. S. Ford will carry the picnickers, leaving Chestertown at 7 A. M. and making a special return trip in the evening arriving at Chestertown about 9.30 P. M. A charge of 50 cents will be made for all adults outside of church and school and 25 cents for children under 12.

LOCAL buyers were offering $1.06 for wheat yesterday.
