A NEWSY LETTER FROM A KENT LADY

EDITORS OF KENT NEWS:

Chestertown being my old home town and the present residence of my parents, I take the liberty to write you a brief outline of my circumstances of which you are probably interested.

I left Washington D. C., June 15 in company with my young lady patient, her father and brother, residents of this city, and friends of the Costa Rican minister at Washington. We took passage from New York on one of the beautiful Great White Fleet Line, The S. S. Pastores. Had a most wonderful trip down of twelve days, was a bit seasick the first few days, but soon recovered. Our first port was Havana, Cuba, where we spent two days sight seeing, quite a beautiful country but intensely warm. After four more days at sea we landed at Port Colon, there we stopped for three days at the magnificent American Government hotel, The Washington, visited Panama City and the canal, a distance of about ten miles from Colon. I thoroughly enjoyed it, and consider that every American citizen should not miss such a marvelous piece of construction by mankind.

From Colon we sailed to Bocus Del Ta, a small but very attractive tropical town, here we only stayed in port six hours, so did not go ashore.

June 28 we arrived at our Port Limon, it was from here the most interesting trip. The special car of the Costa Rican president was sent to the pier to convey us to San Jose, up the Andes Mountains at an altitude of 5000 feet and such natural grandeur is beyond my expression. A 6-hour run to the city, then to their beautiful little home so peculiar to me and so unlike our American homes. So far I am much pleased with the country and its natives. Everyone is perfectly lovely to me, and I have made many friends. All in all Costa Rica is quite inviting to a foreigner.

The father of my patient is of American birth, and manager of the International Bank here, also owner of a large coffee plantation. They desire me to make it my home permanently, but of course that is not to be thought of, for after all, no country can compare to U. S. A., and I swell with pride indeed to be one of its children, and would consider myself a very poor example of a patriot to make another country my home, so after I have enjoyed its many novelties, I will return to the states more happy and enlightened for my experience.

Remember me kindly to my dear parents and any friends.

Very sincerely yours,
(Miss) MAY L. DUYER.

CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM

Schedule of the Events To Be Seen By Kent Countians During the Fourth Annual Chautauqua — Dr. S. Parkes Cadman Will Return and the "Mikado" Will Be Sung—Victor's Band a Feature, Too.

The Chestertown Chautauqua, Sept. 4—13, is drawing near, and probably will be made up of the best features yet shown. Several old favorites will return, such as Dr. Cadman, Edmund Vance Cooke and Victor's Band. The complete program as submitted to W. M. Thomas, the local secretary, is as follows:

Pictures of You, as taken around town. This feature was so popular last year that it is being repeated.

Dr. Lincoln Wirt, the explorer and discoverer, will lecture on "The Conquest of the Arctic."

The "Choir Boys," bright American boys from the choirs of Boston churches. They will give the "Angelus," with special scenery and vestments, and also will sing cheery songs dear to the American boy.

Rosani, the Prince of Jugglers, will hold the stage on the second evening, in connection with Victor's Band. The band will also give an afternoon concert.

For the third day Schubert String Quartet will interpret classic music.

One of the big features of the week will be the morality play, "Happiness," by Allen Davis. This will be presented by the College Players, who so won the hearts of Kent countians last year in "The Man From Home." This will be on the evening of the fourth day. The other feature for that day and evening will be The Strollers Quartette.

The lecturer for the third evening will be Dr. Thomas E. Green, who will talk on "The Burden of the Nations."

Edmund Vance Cooke will speak on the sixth afternoon on "In Nineteen Hundred and Now."

The Bijou Trio will give a program of Neapolitan Folk Songs, etc., on the fifth afternoon and evening.

On the sixth evening Gilbert and Sullivan's classic, "The Mikado," will be presented under the direction of George V. C. Lord, of Boston, the Schubert stage manager and director of the famous Harvard production, "Hasty Pudding Plays." Special costumes and scenery will be used. This is the biggest Chautauqua feature yet attempted. The famous songs, "The Flowers That Bloom in Spring," "Tit-Willow" and "Hearts Do Not Break" are familiar and will be enjoyed. The same company will give an afternoon concert.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman will again delight a Chestertown audience on the fifth evening, his subject being "Makers of America." Dr. Cadman is one of the greatest irresistible forces on the platform—a torrent of thought, a torrent of words, a torrent of enthusiasm. His new lecture, "Makers of America," is the most virile and vital that he has ever prepared.

The Laying on of Hands.—There are those who do not believe in osteopathy and the physicians of the town declare that there's nothing in chiroptic. But we read in an exchange one radical cure by the laying on of hands, and it didn't take but one dose either. A mother, we are told, laid her hand on her boy's neck, and her other hand on her hand on one substantial slipper and then laid the slipper where it would do the most good. The youngster had been smoking cigarettes and as the story goes, has been permanently cured of his habit.

I OWE MY HEALTH

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Washington Park, Ill.—"I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, backache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies."—Mrs. ROBT. STOPIEL, Moore Avenue, Washington Park, Illinois.

We wish every woman who suffers from female troubles, nervousness, backache or the blues could see the letters written by women made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.
