DEATHS

Mrs. Rachel B. Taggart died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rosalie Mitchell Schuyler, at New Castle, Del., on last Monday evening of Chronic Nephritis, aged 91 years. She was the mother of Charles H. Price of "Stoneton" and the widow of the late William H. Price of this county. Funeral was held at I. U. P. E. Church on Thursday morning at eleven o'clock, Rev. S. S. Hepburn officiating; W H. Krusen undertaker. Interment in cemetery adjoining.

Mrs. James A. Merritt, before marriage Miss Eloise Ringgold, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Ringgold, and a niece of Ex-Judge James A. Pearce died at the home of her mother in Salisbury last Friday of tuberculosis, aged 29 years.

The deceased, who was born and lived here until maturity, was taken with this disease four or five years ago and went to the west in quest of health. For a season she improved, but as time went on she grew worse and finally came back east a few weeks ago.

The deceased was of a charming disposition and was very popular with a wide circle of relatives and friends.

She leaves a mother, Mrs. Minnie Ringgold, of Salisbury; a brother, Hubert P. Ringgold, Esq., of Baltimore; and two sisters, Mrs. John M. Toulson and Mrs. White, both of Salisbury. She is also survived by her husband, an officer in the U. S. Army and now on duty on the Mexican border and was promoted Saturday.

The funeral was held Monday in Emmanuel P. E. Church, Dr. H. B. Martin officiating, interment in Chester cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Henry Deaver, Allan A. Harris, Charles G. Hines, Houston Toulson, Walter Humphreys, Harry Nicols, Jr. C. L. Dodd, Undertaker.

Walter D. Thomas, who died at the Johns Hopkins Hospital on Monday evening, a few days after he had been operated on, a few years ago moved to Richmond, Va., where he was a merchant. His body was taken to Richmond where he was buried. He is survived by his widow, two sons, Adrian Thomas, of the Bureau of Fisheries, at Washington, and Erwin Thomas; a brother, Edward H. Thomas, of Atlanta, and four sisters, Mrs. B Tilden Hudson, of Kent county, and Misses Carrie C. Mattie W. and Sadie G. Thomas of Baltimore.

Mrs. Alice Fogwell, wife of Mr. Leonard Fogwell, of near Coleman, on the Crew farm, died at her home last Friday night at nine o'clock af ter a short illness of valvular heart disease, aged 33 years. She leaves three children and was the daughter of Mr. Charles Hurd of Urieville Mills, and had a host of friends in the community. Funeral services were held at Union M. E. Church at Worton Station on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. R. P. Nichols of Still Pond M. E. Church, officiating and interment in Union cemetery. The bearers were: William, Frank, Romie and Hague Fogwell, Samuel Joiner and Mr. Hessie. W. H. Krusen, Undertaker.

The following death notice appeared in the Baltimore Sun Saturday requesting Kent papers to copy: On July 6, at his residence, 39 East Hamburg st., John T. Tayor, died aged 66 years, beloved husband of Martha J. Taylor.

THREE ROAD DISTRICTS

The new road engineer for Kent county, Mr. Applegarth, is now equipped with 12 big mules with which to work the roads. The County Commissioners in co-operation with the engineer have divided the county into three districts with headquarters at Galena, Worton Station and somewhere near St. Paul's. The latter headquarters has not been definitely settled upon.

Six of the mules have been stabled in Galena and Mr. Michael Burns appointed supervisor for this section. The other six mules have quarters in the Kiker stables at the old Worton Fair grounds and Mr. Edward Smith named as supervisor. No other appointment has been made at this writing.

These mules were bought at $225 each. One of them has died since their purchase in Pennsylvania and a suit has been docketed by Mr. S. G. Caldwell for recovery of loss.

THE KENT FAIR

The Kent Fair will be in progress from July 25-28 inclusive and pennants announcing the same are flying in every section of Kent from the Sassafras to the Chesapeake and also all up and down the Eastern Shore.

One of the features this year will be the exhibit of thoroughbred cattle. This section is fast becoming a cattle county and an exhibition of this sort will create interest.

On the first day of the Fair, Tuesday, a game of baseball will be played between the school boys of Kent and Queen Annes counties between the ages of 14 and 17 years. The game will start at 10 30 a. m.

Governor Harrington will be here on Wednesday, which will be known as Governor's Day.

Thursday will be known as "Big Thursday" on which day will be fast racing.

On Friday, which will be "Farmer's Day" a man of national reputation will be here and make an address on "Dairying." It is said the finest herd of cattle ever gotten together on the shore will be on exhibit.

Mr. Pat. Dougherty, of Petersburg, Va., arrived in Chestertown this week and brought the following horses with him: Searchlast 2.10¼, Rosebud McKenney 2.17¼, Lady Chilton 2.27½, Virginia C., Mary C., Ruth Palmer 2.18¾, Marching Boy 2.17¼, Lit 2.23¼, and Bedworth Chief.

Mr. Joe Smith, of Norristown, Pa., also arrived this week with the following string of fine horses: Big Sim 2.24½, Hendrix Dillon 2.14¼, Catherine Ingram, Jane G., Joe Promise 2.15½, Bondy 2.20, Tony Woodrow and Moko Dillon.

The manager of the Kent & Queen Anne's Fair awarded the following priviliges for the Fair to be at Chestertown July 25, 26, 27 and 28.

Ice Cream, soft drinks and peanuts to the Chestertown Candy Kitchen.

Dairy lunch, pie, milk and hot sandwitches to J. H. Cooper, of Baltimore.

Dining room to John S. Vandegrift.

HOSIERY
We are, as we have always been headquarters for hose. We have children's hose, the best that money can buy, for 15c per pair, or 2 pairs for 25c. They are hard to tell from the regular 25c a pair quality. We have a special grade of ladies hose, medium weight and great wearers, at 3 pairs for $1.0

CORSETS
The best advertisement on earth that a man can have is a satisfied customer. A lady whoever puts on a pair of Bon Ton or Royal Worcester Corsets is certainly satisfied and comfortable and she tells her friends and neighbors, That's the cause of our immense sale.

GROCERIES
This is the season of the year for parties and when giving one you always want nice things to eat. We have the best at all times. Why pay a high price for second grade goods when you can get the best here.
We use coffee as our leader. We have a special grade of coffee which are selling at 20c a pound and which cannot be duplicated at any other store for less than 25c a pound. Our 28c quality, our customers say, is as good as they are used to paying 35c a pound for. Try a pound, and if not satisfied no charge will be made for it.

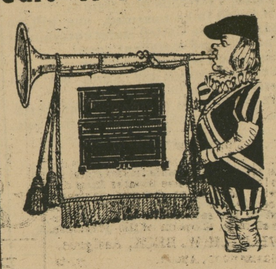

Soliciting a trial to convince you am yours for business.
