FOURTH ANNUAL

Kent & Queen Anne's Fair

AT CHESTERTOWN, MD.

JULY 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th, 1916

BIGGER AND BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE

¶ Neither pains or money are being spared to make the event this year the crowning one of the four years the KENT & QUEEN ANNE'S FAIR ASSOCIATION has been in existence.

Tuesday, July 25th,

Will be CHILDREN'S DAY. Believing that our children should be given everything that we can to make them have a happy and pleasant time in the days when they are free from care and responsibilities, the Association has this year, as in the past, decided to make Tuesday, the first day of the fair, "Children's Day." On this day all children 12 years old and under will be admitted free.

We hope that parents will take advantage of this and bring their children to be our guests on that day. Some attraction of special interest to the children will be arranged for on that day.

Wednesday, July 26th,

Will be known as GOVERNOR'S DAY, as the Hon. Emerson C. Harrington, Governor of our State, will be our guest on Wednesday.

Thursday, July 27th.

This day will be known as BIG THURSDAY. Everybody will be here, and if there is any one you want to see in this section of the world come to the fair grounds on Thursday and you will find them there.

Friday, July 28th.

This will be known as "FARMER'S DAY." A man of national reputation will be here and make an address on "Dairying."

The management of the Fair Association have this year secured — and will make it a leading feature—an exhibit of PURE BRED CATTLE. This section is fast becoming a cattle country, and an exhibit of this sort will create great interest. Mr. JOHN E. GEORGE, onr leading Queen Anne's County Dairyman and Breeder, will exhibit twelve head of Holstein Freisians. Among them will be his head sire, "KING PONTIAC WALKER." He is in his 4th year and weighs over a ton. Our Kent county dairymen and breeders will also show you some great living milking machines. Don't fail to visit the Fair and see one of the finest arrays of Dairy Cattle ever gotten together on the Eastern Shore. This alone will be worth the price of admission.

OUR MIDWAY this year will be in the hands of MR. J. E. KIRBY, of Baltimore, Md., who has had over 30 years experience in shows and amusements, and will surpass anything ever seen here before.

Chestertown is the starting point of the Fair Circuit this year and the horses will be fresh and good. Large field in every class is already assured.

DON'T FORGET THE DATE. Come bring your families and spend the day at the great Kent and Queen Anne's Fair at Chestertown, as you will not be able to see it all this year if you don't make a full day of it. Farmers will see a great display of Farm Machinery, as all the leading manufacturers of the country have engaged ample space for exhibits.

Will You Lose Your Boy, Too?

This is a true picture of what is happening on thousands of farms each year. Breaking home ties. Young men, and young women too—leaving home for the attractions and conveniences of city life.

Young people in country homes have plenty to keep them busy and contented during the day. Evening is their time of leisure and recreation.

It is then that the depressing gloom of their poorly lighted homes strengthens their desire for the pleasures and comforts of good light which all city homes enjoy, rich and poor alike. For young folks crave companionship — good times — pleasant homes — cheerful surroundings.

Thirty years ago, it is true, only city homes enjoyed the advantages of gas lights and gas cooking but for the past fifteen years progressive home owners in the country have also enjoyed this greatest of city conveniences — good light — until today are supplying brilliant, inexpensive light to houses, barns, outbuildings and cooking fuel for the kitchen range on hundreds of thousands of up-to-date country places from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

These homes—situated just like your own—are lighted as well as the finest city house you ever saw.

The young folks in these homes are contented and happy. Their homes are cheerful, full of light and comfort, real homes of which young folks, and older ones too, can well be proud. City life has no attraction for them, because they know that with modern conveniences in the home, life in the country is better, happier and more enjoyable than the best the city has to offer.

What about your children? Are you doing your part to give them the advantages they desire and which their friends and neighbors enjoy? Or are you denying them the simple comforts and conveniences which you can well afford?

They may be just approaching the time when they will decide for themselves—whether they too will leave for the city or stay at home.

They may never have said anything about these things to you—but what are they thinking? What will they decide?

Their decision is largely in your hands. An attractive home is the strongest magnet in the world. The greatest factor in making the home cheerful, bright and attractive is good light.
