OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

ACROSS THE BAY TO TOLCHESTER

Ferry From Bay Shore To Kent County Would Solve Problem—The Shortest, Safest and Best Route.

The suggestion has been made that the State Roads Commission exercise its privilege under an act of the last legislature and defer action on the proposition put up to the commission, also by a legislative act, to establish a ferry between Annapolis and Claiborne. The Commission has already indicated its intention to go slow. It has appointed Frank B. Seth, of Easton, to investigate ferries elsewhere with a view to ascertaining their cost, including operation. The Commission is limited to $50,000.

The suggestion of inactivity is founded upon a belief that the problem sought to be solved by the ferry from Annapolis to Claiborne can the more readily and more satisfactorily be brought about by a ferry across the bay in lieu of the needed bridge from Bay Shore to Tolchester. The problem in hand is a more direct connection between Baltimore and the Eastern Shore.

By the Bay Shore-Tolchoster route two to three hours can be gained over the Annapolis-Claiborne route. At the same time the people of Kent county can be saved from the fate which awaits them by the proposed discontinuance of the steamer between Baltimore and Chestertown.

Interesting History.

The suggestion of such a railway recalls that there is today in the Maryland State treasury an unexpended balance of $58,000 of an appropriation by the legislature in the early fifties of the last century for the construction of a railroad wholly within Maryland and extend from Elkton down through the Eastern Shore counties. This road was graded in part. The war between the states came on, and the project was abandoned. Its successor was what is now the Delaware division of the Pennsylvania Railroad and its connection, the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad, a continuous line from Wilmington to Cape Charles City, where connection is made with Norfolk by ferry. The appropriation for the old road was made to mollify the Eastern Shore counties, which had contributed in taxes about one-fourth of the large sums spent by the State in aiding in the construction of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, the Susquehanna Tidewater Canal, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and other internal improvements of the times. From none of these transportation facilities did the Eastern Shore derive any benefit. The same was true of the Southern Maryland counties.

So acute was the feeling in Southern Maryland and on the Eastern Shore that a resolution giving the Eastern Shore counties permission to secede from Maryland and to unite with Delaware and the two Eastern Shore Virginia counties in forming a State to be called Delmarvia passed the Maryland Senate, being supported by voters from the Eastern Shore and Southern Maryland.

HOW TO COMBAT BABY PARALYSIS

There are some things which physicians cannot do and parents can which are yet of the utmost importance in dealing with infantile paralysis.

The chief of these is to keep children absolutely clean. The germ of this paralysis takes lodgment in the passages of the nose and throat. It is not a robust or hardy germ and is easily dislodged. For this purpose the doctors from the first have been urging gargling and douching of the throat and nose with a mild solution of salt and water.

Germs in Throats

In throats so treated the germs will find lodgment difficult, and the child so cared for and whose general health is kept up to a high standard will stand a pretty good chance of escaping infection.

In fact, cleanliness is the chief protection which physicians and nurses have when they care for cases of this paralysis. It is called "infantile," but it also attacks adults, and the percentage of mortality is far higher among such cases than with children. But nurses and doctors very seldom contract it because they observe strict rules of cleanliness.

Must Isolate Sufferers

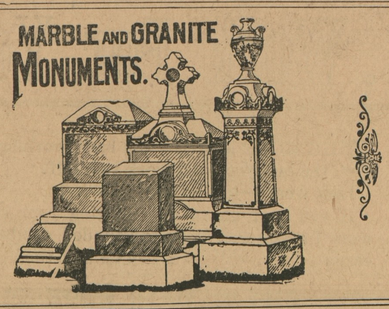

For the protection of the community cleanliness must go much further than the children in the home. The means of the distribution of the germ are so various, through both human and insect agencies, that the utmost care must be taken to prevent their dissemination.

That means complete isolation of children stricken with the disease, the disinfection of all discharges from the bodies of patients and the disinfection of the hands and clothing of all nurses or parents who come in contact with such discharges. The neglected cold of a child in the incubating stages of the disease may scatter such germs through household waste.

Puts Flesh on Pigs--Prevents Sickness

To make your pigs gain weight more quickly, keep healthy, and make the backward or ailing ones strong and well, it will pay you to give them a regular course of

Cal-Sino
HOG RESTORATIVE

Mr. C. R. Wheatly, Hurlock, Md. wrote in 1915: "I had 4 hogs, 2 were taken sick. I separated the sick from the well, and began to give all the Cal-Sino Hog Restorative; consequently, the well ones did not get sick. The 2 sick hogs laid around for 2 days, then I drenched them well with it. While they ate nothing scarcely a day or two, I saw improvement after that time. They are now healthy hogs. You can use this letter as a testimonial."

Start using it now, also to prevent sickness including cholera which all too often ends in loss, and always causes a set back. It is best and safest to prevent sickness and not to take chances. Besides the increased weight Cal-Sino Hog Restorative gives, many times over pays for the small cost.

In the few years Cal-Sino Hog Restorative has been on the market it has saved thousands of hogs, and effected many remarkable cures. It is medicine (not a stock food) prepared along most advanced scientific lines, and based on 35 years of study and practical experience.

It costs so little and saves so much that you will do well to start using it right away. One trial will convince you.
