PERSONAL AND SOCIETY EVENTS IN KENT COUNTY

Mrs. Mary Bramble and Miss Georgie Booze, of Baltimore, have been guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Simpson, Chestertown.

Mrs. Warren Painter, who has been in Kent the past two weeks visiting Mrs. W. O. Selby and other relatives, was called by telegram to Va. the first of the week to the bedside of her husband, who was taken suddenly ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Richardson and family, accompanied by Prof. R. L. Clark, motored to Hurlock last Friday. They were very favorably impressed with the town, also the fine High School there, where Mr. Clark has been appointed principal.

Mr. Edward Y. O'Mears is at Sabillasville for a few months. His many friends in Quaker Neck trust that his stay there will be of great benefit to his health.

Rev. A. B. Dupuy and wife have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. E. W. Crew this week. Mr. Dupuy is now located at Hurlock, where he is doing a good work.

Mrs. George B. McWhorter is quite sick at her home on Washington Ave.

Mr. Frank V. Simpers spent this week Baltimore. Mr. John Jester had charge of his office during his absence.

Prof. Gabriel Hines, who is with the Chautauqua on the shore this year, is visiting his wife at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs H. Sachs. Mr. Hines delighted the M. E. Sunday School last Sunday with his performance on the piano.

Mr. Earl Gitt, of Easton, has been the guest of friends in town this week. He has removed to South Carolina.

Mr. Charles F. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Smith, left town last week to resume his studies in dentistry in Baltimore. We predict a bright career for Mr. Smith in his choosen profession.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Waters Russell returned from their honeymoon on Monday and are residing at his home on High street.

Prof. Owen C. Blades returned to Chestertown this week and has resumed his duties as manual training instructor at the High School.

Prof. Martin Ten Hoor, who has been spending his vacation at his home in Michigan, is here for the fall term of the college. Prof. Ten Hoor says the summer has been the hottest for many years in his section, the thermometer registering over 100° many times.

Mr. Jack Johnson, who was severely injured on a barge on the Delaware Canal a few weeks ago, is able to be out on crutches.

Dr. Gilbert T. Smith, who owns considerable farm land in Queen Annes, on the Chester River, is in town this week, having made the trip in his auto from his home in Connecticutt.

We have been shown this week a beautiful catalog from the press of the Republic Bank Note Company, Pittsburg, Pa. Mr. Harry W. Barnes, a son of Mr. John W. Barnes, foreman of the Transcript, and brother of Mr. John E. Barnes, of the NEWS office, is the superintendent and manager of this large concern, and the preface states that he was the designer and originator of this gem of the printing art, which is certainly the last word in beautiful composition and press work. Mr. Barnes was initiated into the "art preservative of arts" on one of the newspapers of this town, and his many friends here will be glad to hear of his success.

Mrs. Thomas Cochran, of East Orange, N. J., has been spending sometime with her mother, Mrs. J. Fletcher Wilson, at Georgetown.

Dr. J. S. Bowers has been confined to his home for several weeks suffering rheumatism in his feet. He is improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Hines are receiving congratulation—it's a boy.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Eliason, Jr., and left a little girl.

Mr. Kent Lambert and family sailed for Panama yesterday from New York.

Mr. Jervis Davis has been visiting his father on High street.

Dr. L. C. Hess and wife, High street, welcomed the stork Thursday—it is a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sterling, on the Avenue, are receiving congratulations—a fine daughter.

Mr. Harry Rouse is sick with fever at his home near the creamery.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Weakley, of Baltimore, and Mr. Charles Weakley, of W. Va., have been guests of the Misses Wilmer on the Avenue the past week.

Miss Eleanor Blount has returned to her home in Chesapeake City after a visit to Miss Grace Bennett.

Mr. Edward Jones, father of Mrs. Frank V. Simpers, of Chestertown, suffered a stroke of paralysis in Philadelphia this week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rambo have returned to their home in Walbrook, Baltimore, after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rambo, of Sudlersville.

Miss Emma Mills, of Baltimore, spent last week with her cousin, Mrs. Wm. Atkinson, Maple Cottage.

Miss Maud E. Clark a trained nurse of Baltimore, spent last week in Chestertown with Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Miller and is now spending a few days with her Aunt, Mrs. William Atkinson, Maple Cottage, near St. Paul Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schwartz and father motored from Baltimore to Rock Hall last Sunday. On their return trip Monday they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Scoone. The round trip was made without a single mishap of any kind. All were delighted.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Emory Hines, daughter of Mrs. W. Frank Hines and the late Dr. W. Frank Hines, of Chestertown, to Mr. Benjamin F. Houston, of Wilmington, Del., will take place on Wednesday, Sept 20th, at his residence, 748 Roland Ave., Baltimore, Md.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Clarke have returned from an extended vacation.

Dr. A. S. Hall and family returned Wednesday from a visit to their old home in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Hart, of Townsend, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Lillian May, to Mr. George Harvey Wright, of Brenford. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday evening, September 20th at 6 o'clock, at their home "Sunnyside," Townsend.

Misses Amanda Fisher, of Philadelphir, and Gladys Wickes, of Chestertown, and Mr. Jewel Armstrong, of Philadelphia, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Gears, at Odessa.—New Era.

Mr. William Barker, of Chestertown, has accepted a position with the Remington Arms, Co., Chester, Pa.

Mr. Wm. Francis will embark into the merchandise business at Edesville in the store-room now occupied by Geo. H. Camp. Mr. Camp has rented the Coleman room close by.

THE Chautauqua Guarantors for 1917 will meet at the Kent County Savings Bank Monday evening at 7.30, for the election of officers and other business.

Local Notes

THE outlook for corn in some parts of Kent never was better. Mr. J. S. Webb has a 51 acre field on Turner's Creek that is a beauty. Mr. Winnie Powell has 25 acres near Rolph's Wharf that is hard to beat. His sample ear has 22 rows and 1210 grains. Look them over and see what you can do to beat 1210.

AN ensilage cutter arrived by express in Chestertown Sunday for a customer of Davis & Satterfield. The charges were $62 50 from Chicago!

THE brick dwelling on Front street, next door to Eben F. Perkins, has been purchased of Wm. McKenney by Thos. W. Perkins It is now tenanted by Mrs. Betton. It will be improved in keeping with the other side.

AN unsual piece of stealing occured Wednesday night when Henry Harvey, colored, alias James Holly, who is employed as cook on a tomato boat that plies the river, visited the yard of Dr. Charles R Twilley and cleared the line of table linen, clothes, etc. Justice Rogers held him for court.

CONTRACTS for two miles of new roadway was awarded by the State Roads Commission last Friday in Kent county, between Chestertown and Fairlee 2 13 miles, concrete construction, to W. B. Shafer Company, of New York, for $25,-77 20. Work will begin at once.

THE will of Mrs. S E. Sutton was filed for probate in the Orphan's Court Thursday. Rev. Wilson Sutton and Geo. W. Sutton were named as executors. The estate is to be divided between her three children and $100 to Edith Patterson, of Balto.

TWELVE cows belonging to Mr. Charles H. Price, of "Stoseton," near Betterton, swam across Lloyd's Creek, on his farm, one day this week and for several days were completely lost but were finally recovered unhurt.

COLLEGE will open next Wednesday.

REGISTRATION days this year are October 3rd and 10th.

THE Jefferson store in Crumpton has been sold to Mr. Hackett Emerson who has been managing there. He is well equipped to serve the public. Mr. Charles Clements has sold his store to the Philadelphia Underselling Co.

DR POWER in another column says he is not going to move from Chestertown, but after Jan. 1st, will fit up an office in his home on Queen street.

590 COLORED people went to Brown's Grove from Chestertown Monday, The excursion was run under the auspices of Bethel A. M. E. Church, Rev. C. B. Bailey, pastor. The behavior was perfect.

THE sale of Mr. Lonnie Stevens' personalty on Swan Point farm Monday was largely attended and good prices were realized. Dinner was served to scores from a distance.

TWO threshing rigs were at work on Mr. W. Frank Jarrell's Wickes farm this week. One was cutting ensilage while the other was threshing orchard grass for seed.

THE 1916 Chautauqua session was brought to a close by the play, "Mikado," under the direction of George V. C. Lord, of Boston, Schubert stage manager, and director of the famous "Hasty Pudding Plays," at Harvard. This was the biggest feature Chautauqua presented and the large audience was more than pleased. On Saturday afternoon the children of Chestertown, presented a play entitled "Uncle Sam's Experiment," under the instruction of the Chautauqua, and the boys gave a good exhibition in gymnastics. A large crowd gathered at the tent for Sunday evening services and enjoyed an address by E. Vance Cook and several musical numbers. Mr. William R. Russell, in a few well-chosen remarks, delivered the farewell address to the Chautauqua people, and assured them a hearty welcome to Kent at any time. He also presented Mrs. Titus, the superintendent, with a contract that insures the Chautauqua again next year.

The schooner "E. H. Taylor," owned by Capt. Harry Pheffer, of Chestertown, was purchased this week by Capt. Trotwin, of Annapolis.
