THREE PRISONERS BREAK JAIL

Joe Downs, in jail awaiting trial, charged with the assault of his daughter, a week or so ago. Richard Ellis, awaiting trial for horse stealing. Buddy Rattler a frequent inmate, all made their escape from Chestertown jail Monday at midnight. They were incarcerated in cells on the second floor and made their exit by unscrewing an iron brace from the lower part of the bath room window with pen knives and using it as a pry to wrench the bars apart sufficient to permit the passage of their bodies.

In the rooms where the men were confined were twelve prisoners in all. Officers Perkins and Jester started at once in search of the men. Mr. Jos. Dunn ran one of them out of his barn at noon Tuesday.

Buddy Rattler was returned to jail Wednesday. He went to Big Woods, near Lynch, saw a colored man named Gross on a bicycle going down the road. Followed him and picked up an envelope he had dropped containing two ten dollar notes! "What luck," said Buddy. He hired a team, came to town and boarded the B. S. Ford at Emory's wharf. Sheriff Hadaway was notified, went to Rock Hall and got his prisoner. He had over $17 of Gross' money in his pockets.

Ellis was caught Wednesday night up in the forest and returned to jail here. Sheriff expects to get the third man today.

WILLS NURSE $2,500; CUTS OFF HIS WIFE

Former Kent Countian Shows Appreciation for Kindness During Illness in Hospital.

Cutting off his wife, alleged to have deserted him, without any share of his estate, valued at $7,000, William J. Phillips, who formerly lived in Quaker Neck and owns the farm now tenanted by Mr. J. E. Ferguson, bequeathed $2,500 to Miss E. H. Wagner, a nurse in the University Hospital, Philadelphia, and most of the residue to a brother, Morris K. Phillips.

Mr. Phillips died recently in that institution from typhoid fever, contracted in Newark, Del., where he was superintending the construction of new buildings worth $750,000 at Delaware College. He was connected with Day & Klauder, architects, and had supervised erection of buildings at many universities and colleges.

In making the bequest to Miss Wagner, the testator says:

"This gift is made to show my appreciation of her unbounded kindness and close and loyal attention to me during my confinement in the hospital with typhoid fever."

He refers to the widow in the following clause:

"No provision in this, my will, has been made for Mrs. Cordelia L. Phillips, who until about the — day of October, A. D. 1915, resided at my late home in or near Chestertown, because without legal or other cause, without my consent and against my wishes, abandoned me and her home, and has from said date continued in such abandonment. She has, therefore, as I have been advised by my attorney, lost all her rights and claims as a wife and widow in my estate."

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS

Perry Wilson, Queen Anne's wealthiest colored resident, living just across the river from Chestertown, was cut by a corn harvester Wednesday. He came to Chestertown and when Dr. Simmons reached him at his home here the well-known colored man was in a critical condition from loss of blood. The wound was dressed and it is now thought Perry will pull thru all right.

R. Bennett Wilson, Jr. while on his way home Wednesday was run into by another team, knocked from his buggy and injured. Mr. Abe Cohen assisted him home where Dr. Wilson attended his needs.

Mr. Bayard Sutton, tenant on the Almshouse farm, received a bad fracture of one of his thumbs Saturday in a fall from his stable loft. The bone protruded and stuck in the ground. Dr. Smith was called in and took Mr. Sutton to Easton Hospital where his bones were set.

Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor, of Christ M. P. Church, upon his arrival at Chestertown last April met with an accident in opening a box He was treated for a sprain. Shortly afterward in reaching up a tree he felt something give way and was in bed for several days. He has been feeling uncomfortabe ever since taking cures for indigestion, heart trouble, etc. Wednesday of this week he had another of his "spells" and upon a thorough investigation by his doctor a broken rib was discovered! The parson feels like a new man since and he hopes soon to be entirely well.

Miss Martha Bailey, 20 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey, near Cecilton, was struck and killed Wednerday night at the Elkton passengers station of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad by the southbound Chesapeake and Ohio express. Her body was hurled nearly 25 feet and badly mangled.

There had been a funeral that day in the Bailey family and Miss Bailey accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John Polk, relatives, to Elkton in an automobile driven by Roland Blackway. Miss Bailey had just bidden her relatives goodby and passed around the northbound train, upon which they left, to reach the automobile, when she was struck. Mr. Blackway, who was a few feet behind Miss Bailey, had time to leap backward from the track and escape the express. The train brushed his clothes in passing. He was overcome by the shock and was taken to the hospital there.

Master Robert Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Harris, while playing on a ladder, Saturday, fell and broke his left arm. Dr. C. W. Whaland set the broken bones.

An auto, occupied by Mr. and Mrs J. W. Trice, of Oxford, and being driven by the latter, turned turtle at Weatherby's Corner, in Queen Annes, a few miles from town, Tuesday morning. Mr. James Brice, who came along about the time of the accident, brought the slightly injured people to town, where Dr. Charles Whaland gave them attention.

Mr. Jesse Latham was injured last Wednesday night when a piece of iron from some of the machinery struck him in the face, injuring his lower lip. Mr. Latham has been rather unfortunate during the past year. He has had a finger cut off some time ago, and had a bad spell of sickness prior to that.

WEDDING NOTES

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Doris Maslin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Maslin, of Winston Salem, N. C., to Mr. E. Herrman Cohn, of Princess Anne, which is to be solemnized at the First Presbyterian Church, of Winston-Salem, on Wednesday evening, October 4th.

A romantic wedding occured in Chesapeake City Monday evening the interested parties being Miss Nannie Rebecca Toulson, the youngest of the attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson, and Mr. John Speicker, Jr., who had been clerking for Miss Toulson's father. The groom is from Cumberland and had not been in Chestertown many months before he met his present wife. The couple left Chestertown Monday in Mr. Toulson's automobile accompanied by Misses Hallie and Mable Toulson who witnessed the ceremony. Rev. W. H. Hutchins officiated at the Wedding and also performed the ceremony of the bride's parents some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Speiker returned to Chestertown Thursday where they received a hearty reception. After a week's visit they will go to Elkton where Mr. Speicker has bought a drug store and where they will make their future home.

Marriage licenses have been issued recently for the following: Eugene Pinder and Julia Francis Hall, of Queen Annes; Neavitt Robinson and Lillie M. Dulin, of Kent; William H. Clothier and Ruth E. Middleton, of Kent; H. L. Bushman, of Penns Grove, N. J., and Esther A. Parks, of Wilmington, Del.

Miss Jennie Emory Hines was married Wednesday at noon to Mr. Benjamin Franklin Houston. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home, 748 Roland avenue, by Rev. Edward Trapnel, and was witnessed only by the immediate families of the bride and bridegroom. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. W. Franklin Hines, of Chestertown, Md., and was attended by her sister, Miss Mary A. Hines, as maid of honor, and her cousin, Miss Charlotte R. Rose, as bridesmaid. Mr Edward Coy, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. They will be at home at the Dorcas Ritz Apartment, Wilmington, Del, November 1.

Mr. Harry L. Bushman, of Penns Grove, N. J., and Miss Esther A. Parks, of Wilmington, Del., were married at the parsonage of Christ M. P. Church last Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. L. Ward performed the ceremony. They will reside in Wilmington.

Miss Susanne Stuckert Ford, youngest daughter of Mrs. Lenette A. Ford, of Kent county, and the late Stephen H. Ford, of Ford's Landing, was quietly married on September 10 to Mr. John Wallace Stansfield, of Sykesville, Md. at St. Paul's Rectory, Baltimore.—Cecil News.

Lewis S. Firthland and Miss Winnifred Jennie Tighe, of Gloucester, N. J., were married in the Voshell House parlors Thursday evening, Rev. J. L. Ward, officiating.
