ATTACKS OFFICERS IN COURT ROOM

An Incident Unprecedented in the Trials of Cases in Kent County—A Plucky Officer Overpowers His Prisoner and With Help Carries Him To Jail.

The colored prisoner, Arthur Johnson, being tried in the Kent County Court Wednesday on a charge of burning the outbuildings on the farm near town tenanted by Mr. W. Edw. Loud, created quite an excitement and was the central figure in an unprecedented episode. The negro's counsel, W. Frazier Russell, Jr., had spoken in behalf of his client before a full bench and State's Attorney Vickers was summing up the case for the State. In reviewing the crime of which Johnson had been guilty, the prisoner, with eyes flashing fire, cried out in a loud voice, "You're a d—d liar!" The Court turned to the negro and charged him to keep quiet, whereupon he talked the more, saying that no one should lay any such charges against him, &c. Then Judge Constable asked the Deputy Sheriff to take a seat beside the prisoner and keep him quiet. The courageous deputy walked over towards the prisoner's box and the enraged negro met him and struck at him, but Officer Perkins dodged the blow and grabbed his man. By this time Constables Adolphus Davis, the big man from Golts, and Jack Jester, the wiry officer from the Fourth, were in the fray, besides Messrs. Rusk, Jackson, Duyer, Reed and others who were near by, and the negro was heard to squeal. The Court cautioned the officers not to hurt him, and soon he was led out of the court room and placed in jail.

It was some minutes before the crowded court room resumed its usual peaceful and dignified appearance. Johnson was convicted in this case and several others were left open for trial at the termination of his sentence.

According to Detective Kratz, Johnson has been implicated in many mysterious fires. Johnson was employed on the steamer Emma A. Ford, when she was burned some years ago at the wharf at Love Point. He was employed on the steamer Cambridge, plying between Baltimore and Claiborne, when she caught fire in the Chesapeake Bay, and he was employed around the Light street wharves, in Baltimore, when several mysterious fires were discovered by him along the water front.

He has served three two-year terms in the Md. penitentiary. He has traveled far and wide and knows something about nearly everything. He is charged with burning the splendid administration building, William Smith Hall, at Washington College, the new college gymnasium partly wrecked and Middle Hall at the college threatned; Wm. A. Bell's big stable, with the implements and several horses; W. Frank Jarrell's big hay stacks and Jack Cochran's big fire about two years ago, etc.

Pants Factory.—The Chestertown Pants Factory will open for business next week. A fine building has been erected in Chestertown which has plenty of light steam heated and pleasant surroundings. The proprietors, Goldiner Bros., say they want 60 women, girls and boys and they pay good wages while learning.

MILK RAISED TO $2.20

Milk producers of Kent are awakening to the vastness of the milk business. Under the leadership of Mr. L. L. Burrell they are organizing and putting the business on a paying basis. A local branch of the Milk Production Association was formed at Chestertown Thursday night with about 40 farmers present. Wm. G. Smyth was elected president, C. L. Jarrell secretary, Harry Nichols treasurer. Earl Nicholson was elected representative on the executive board of the county.

The meeting at West Chester, Pa., agreed that 5½ cents per quart, liquid measure, f. o. b., at shipping point, was a reasonable price for milk. This is at rates of 2.55 per hundred.

The proprietors of the milk stations in Kent on October 16th raised the price of milk to $2 20 per hundred. This is certainly gratifying, providing that the producers' claims are recognized by the shippers of milk, and are working in harmony.

DEMOCRATS LEAD BY 718

The registration in Kent county shows an affiliated vote of 2447 Democrats and 1729 Republicans, leaving a difference of 718 in favor of the Democrats.

This showing is especially gratifying when the figures show a loss of 155 in the number of whites and 21 in the colored. The official figures for 1916 are as follows:
