

Greatest Boots You Ever Wore

After you wear the first pair of Lambertville Rubber Boots, the chances are you'll never again buy any other kind. They give the longest wear, greatest comfort and have the kind of rubber that water can't rot.

"Redskins" The Famous Red Rubber Boots

LAMBERTVILLE RUBBER FOOTWEAR

is made in four brands: "Snag-Proof" (all duck), "Redskins" (red rubber), "L" (duck vamp) and "Lamco" (pure gum with ribs). The "Redskins," shown here, are made throughout from red rubber with double-thick ball, red sole and heel. On account of its great wearing qualities red rubber is becoming more and more popular. If you can't locate the Lambertville dealer in your town, write us and we will see that you are supplied. Send for booklet.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and upbuild your strength.

Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief.

THOMAS' CHAPEL CELEBRATED ITS 152nd ANNIVERSARY

The 152nd anniversary of Thomas' Chapel, near Hazlettville, Del., was observed with special services on Sunday and was attended by many men, women and children from miles around in the surrounding country. The Sunday School Rally, held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, was well attended and Miss Lena R. Harrison, of Dover, made a very interesting address. Rev. Clinton F. Wyatt, of Denton, Md., preached a very able and forcible anniversary sermon at 3 p. m. Good music featured all the services. Thomas' Chapel is one of the oldest churches in the country, being older than Barratt's Chapel although it has been remodeled and improved and is not as ancient looking as the latter edifice.

Among those who attended the anniversary services on Sunday was James W. Chapman, of Chestertown, Md., a former resident of Dover, who came over from Chestertown for the purpose of attending the services, he having been born within three miles of Thomas' Chapel. It was the first time Mr. Chapman has attended services in the church for 69 years, and he was greatly pleased with the visit. He attended the meeting by special invitation of F. C. Lockwood, and while most of those in attendance were strangers to him, he met with several who knew his ancestors when they worshipped in the Chapel.

Mr. Chapman left Thomas' Chapel 69 years ago, moving to Smyrna with his parents. In 1858 he moved to Chestertown, where he has resided ever since.

After his visit here on Sunday he declared that he could see many improvements that had been made in this section, and was particularly enthusiastic over the good stone and dirt roads he found here.

Mr. Chapman spent several days in Dover visiting his only sister, Mrs Joseph Wickes, who has been ill for several weeks. Mrs. Wickes recently celebrated her 82nd birthday.

ANOTHER SAMPLE OF LAW

As we have before noted, every day of this progressive age proves that there is certainly room for improvement in law processes. Here is a sample:

"If a man were to give another an orange, he would just simply say, 'I give you this orange,' but when the transaction is intrusted to the hands of a lawyer to put in writing, he adopts this form: 'I hereby give and convey to you, all and singular, my estate and interest, right, title, claim and advantages of and in said orange, together with all of its rind, skin, juice, pulp and pips, and all right and advantages therein, with full power to bite, cut, suck and otherwise eat the same orange or give the same away with or without the rind, skin, juice, or pulp or pips, anything hereinbefore or hereinafter, or in any other deed or deeds, instrument or instruments of whatever nature or kind soever, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.'—Annapolis Capital."

GUNNING SEASON NEAR

MANY REPORTS INDICATE A SPLENDID SEASON FOR THE LOCAL SPORTSMEN

From all the districts comes the cheering intelligence that partridges are more numerous than for many seasons past. Several causes have combined to produce this happy result. For the past two seasons there was a marked scarity of birds, and sportsmen went elsewhere, and then, too, a large number of landowners have posted their land and advertised in the NEWS against trespassing.

Following this was the early and dry spring, in which very few birds perished and then came a season in which the birds have had abundance of food and shelter. The deputy game wardens, too, have played an important part. They have seen to it that the game laws have been fully enforced, and thus few birds have been killed out of season.

The Ducking Season

The ducks have already begun to arrive. Redheads, baldpates, mallards, and coots are coming in every day, attracted by fine feeding. A gentleman reported that he saw one rick of redheads last week that contained at least 200 ducks. Coots are plentiful and old shooters regard this as a good sign. Canvasbacks arrive from the 10th of November up to the 20th, and never leave until the ice drives them away. All that is needed now is a little cold weather in the North to drive the birds to the bay.

In Kent the law for partridges allows shooting, beginning November 10, to December 24, and rabbits the same.

DEMAND FOR POTATOES

Believing that the demand for sweet and white potatoes this winter will far exceed the supply, brokers are riding through the rural districts and purchasing from the farmers all that have been dug as well as the prospects.

They will be stored in large potato houses and kept until January or February for a rise in price and then consigned to the city markets. One firm on Thursday purchased about $2,000 worth of sweet potatoes which have been sold for February delivery. Large shipments are being made from New York to Europe.

Some of the growers asking 90 cents per hamper and are not anxious to get rid of them at that price.

IF you are a business man, if you are a professional man, if you are employed at a daily wage, make up your mind to deposit weekly a certain sum of money in the bank. You'll be surprised how the sum will grow. Cash in bank gingers up the man who has it there. He has more confidence in himself. The business man is ready for a dull season. He is ready for an opportunity.

So is the professional man. The man who is working for a daily wage and who hasn't any money in bank frequently is fearful of a loss of his situation. He does not work as well or with the confidence in himself as does the man with something laid aside for a rainy day.
