Four robbers in an automobile invaded Church Hill at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning, got tools from J. W. Richards' shop and broke into the postoffice, which is located in Harry E. Walls' store. They departed from the regulation method of opening the safe with an explosive, employing for the purpose a heavy sledge hammer and a chisel.

In the safe they found $65 belonging to the United States government and $35 belonging to Mr. Walls. This money they pocketed, and quietly and speedily motored away.

Mrs. S. P. Dudly saw the automobile stop in front of her home just before 1 a. m., and saw four men get out and go in the direction of Richards' shop. She did not suspect that mischief was afoot, so gave no alarm.

MOTHER LOVE AIDS SON IN TRENCHES

Once upon a time, only a few months after this terrible world war had begun, Private Bailey, a soldier in the ranks had stood for days in the trenches "somewhere in France" The cold rains soaked him to the skin ; the mud was deep. He had had no rest. Weary and aching with rheumatic pains, he recalled the faith his mother had in Sloan's Liniment. He asked for it in his next letter home. A large bottle was immediately sent him and a few applications killed the pain, once more he was able to stand the severe exposure. He shared his wonderful muscle soother with his comrades, and they all agreed it was the greatest "reinforcement" that had ever come to their rescue. At your druggist, 25c., 50c. and $1 00 a bottle.
