STELLA BIRD versus ELIJAH BIRD.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity. No. 1973.

THE object of the Bill is to procure a decree for a divorce a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill states:

1. That for more than two years last past your Oratrix has been, and still continues to be, a resident of the State of Maryland, and now resides in Kent county.

2. That your Oratrix and Elijah Bird, the Defendant, were married in the city of Wilmington, State of Delaware, on or about the 22nd day of June, 1892 and lived together until some time during the month of May, 1913.

3. That no children have been born to your Oratrix and the said Elijah Bird as a result of such marriage.

4. That, although the conduct of your Oratrix towards her husband, the said Elijah Bird has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Elijah Bird, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her, and has declared his intentions to live with her no longer; that said separation is deliberate and final, beyond any reasonable expectation of a reconciliation, and has continued uninterruptedly for more than three years last past.

5. That ever since their marriage your Oratrix has behaved herself as a faithful true and affectionate wife towards the said Elijah Bird

6. That the said Elijah Bird is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and is now residing in the city of Wilmington, in the State of Delaware.

It is thereupon this 2nd day of October, 1916, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent county in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 6th day of November next, giving notice to the said Elijah Bird, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 24th day of November next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
