For President:

For United States Senator:
DAVID J. LEWIS,
Of Allegany.

For House of Representatives:
JESSE D. PRICE,
Of Wicomico.

NEXT Tuesday week is election day.

THE temperance forces in Baltimore are certainly alive and deserve to win. They have put up an aggressive fight and the indications point to a close vote. Here's hoping they win.

DAVID J. LEWIS is winning friends every day and should get a rousing vote in Kent. He is close to the people and an able champion of their needs and demands. The farmers in him have a true and tried friend.

BETTERTON and ROCK HALL are to be congratulated upon their activity in forming Democratic Clubs. This should mean a great deal on election day.

EVERY TIME we pick up a newspaper we read of a straw vote giving Wilson a majority. If it keeps on Wilson will be elected before November 7. He is just the same as elected now.

THE school authorities are very much pleased with the reception given the new History of Kent County. It deals only with local affairs in an impartial and unbiased manner. We have heard of one complaint! Did not have the home picture of a certain well-known lady. One-fourth of the alloted number for sale has been already taken.

"VOTE AS AMERICANS"— FOR WILSON, SAYS EDISON

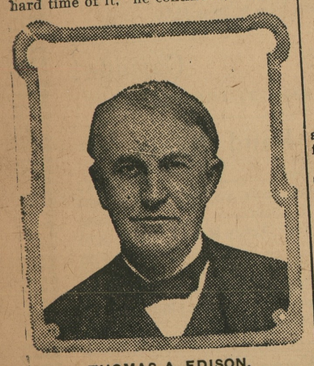

No Time Now to Try an Inexperienced Man, Declares Inventor, Lauding President.

By GEORGE CREEL.

"Times are too serious to talk in terms of Republicanism or Democracy. Parties are all right, reckon we've got to have them with our system of government. But when it's America that's at stake, men have got to vote as Americans, and not as Democrats or Republicans."

This is the message to the American people that Thomas A. Edison gave to me in a recent interview.

"This man Wilson has had a mighty hard time of it," he continued, "I don't believe there was ever a president who had as many big questions to decide. They have come in bunches. He hasn't always pleased me, just as I suppose he hasn't always pleased other people, but when you look the record over, it's so good that criticism comes close to being nothing more than cheap fault finding.

"A fool or a coward would have had the United States in all sorts of trouble. As it is, we are at peace, the country was never more prosperous, and we have the strength that comes with honor and integrity of purpose.

"Had we recognized Huerta, it would have served notice upon the world that the United States, while believing in democracy for home use, was willing to stand for despotism where other peoples were concerned. President Wilson's Mexican policy has been wise and just and courageous.

"Belgium? Hindsight! In the light of two years, it's easy to say what should have been done. But at the time, not a single paper or a public man even thought of anything but keeping the United States out of the European horror.

"As I said at the start, it has just been one big thing after another with Wilson. I never have known so many dangerous questions brought up for decision to any one President.

"Look at the threatened general railroad strike. If carried through, such a strike would have thrown the whole country into confusion.

"In my opinion, Mr. Hughes, if President, would have found it difficult to decide on the best course for the Government to take in such matters. His capacity for hindsight, as we learn from his speeches, is highly developed but as to his foresight, we are not equally well informed.

"They say Wilson has blundered. Perhaps he has. But I notice that he usually blunders forward.

"Mr. Wilson now has had about four ...rs of experience, and I think that ...s earned faith and trust. I do ...k it a sensible thing to change ...experienced and untried man ... I am for Woodrow

IT looks now as if Wilson will sweep the country. Even Ohio will swing into the Democratic column.

THE American Federation of Organized Labor has indorsed Woodrow Wilson for President, while Wall Street is opposing him. It is not hard to predict which force will win. Wilson is far better off with the forces lined up as they are than he would be with the laboring men against him and Wall Street tendering him its support.

THE American people should not forget that in 1912 when Justice Hughes was a member of the Supreme Court and was asked to become a candidate for President, he replied: "The man who on the highest judicial tribunal would consider another office is fit neither for the one he holds nor for any one to which he aspires." As Mr. Hughes himself admits he is not fit for the Supreme Court bench nor the Presidency, he should not be very badly disappointed when Wilson is re elected.

Wilson-Marshall Democratic Club of Betterton, Md.

The Democrats of Betterton are making a united fight this year and are to be congratulated. A rousing club has been formed under the following head :

We the undersigned citizens of Betterton and vicinity and voters in the coming Presidential election, believing that the best interests of this United States at this critical period demands the re-election of Woodrow Wilson, pledge our support to his candidacy and to his running mate, Thomas Marshall, as vice-president, and herewith subscribe our names to the formation of a Wilson-Marshall Club. The purpose of this club is to create enthusiasm among the voters and to do all in our power to carry Kent county for Wilson and Marshall, and also promote the candidacies of David J. Lewis for the United States Senate and Jesse D. Price for Congress.

ASSESSORS BEGIN WORK

The new assessment in Kent has been commenced by these men :

First District—I. L. Dempsey.
Second District—Lewis S. rice.
Third District—Samuel White.
Fourth District—W. Harry Lambert.
Fifth District—Lewis E. Smith.
Sixth District—T. B. Kilbourn.
Seventh District—William S. Crew.
Chestertown—William H. McKee.
Millington—James D. Moore, Jr.
Galena—William steel.
Rock Hall—William C mp.
Betterton—Alexander Muir.
Still Pond—Samuel J. Comly.

The work of all these supervisors and assessors will be reviewed regularly by field men.

The assessors have assumed a big responsibility and will follow the law to the letter in their assessment of property. There will, no doubt, be complaints from all sources.

Mr. Owen C. Smith, the supervisor of assessments, paid all of the assessors a visit last week, and gave the same instructions to all, i. e, to be absolutely impartial in their work and to follow the law to the letter.

Should the assessment of any one in Kent county be unsatisfactory, he or she has the privilege of appealing to the State Tax Commission, who will instruct Mr. Smith to look into the matter and secure the particulars of every detail.

In this way, Mr. Smith says, the commission hopes to eliminate any unfairness or mistakes, so that each property owner will assume no more than his own burden of the tax of the county and State.

OUTPOURING OF DEMOCRATS

Firemen's Hall Packed With a Splendid Audience Monday Afternoon—Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., Presides—Good Speksing And Good Music.

An enthusiastic mass-meeting—the first of the season—was held in Chestertown Monday afternoon. The outpouring of Democrats was an agreeable surprise and enthused the speakers. The meeting was called to order by Ex-Sheriff Wm. E. Brown, chairman of the State Central Committee, and Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., made chairman of the meeting. Mr. Perkins made a few appropriate remarks after which he introduced the speakers. Messrs. A. Lindell Beaston and A. Carroll Wilson, the other two members of the Committee, were present on the stage.

The first speaker introduced was Mr. Reuben A. Arnold, District Attorney, of Atlanta, Georgia. Mr. Arnold entered into a review of the great achievements of the administration, and lauded the President. Said he, "This is an age when the people are doing their own thinking. Mere party platforms and professions count for little. It is the record of achievement which a party or a candidate presents which counts. Judged by his achievements Woodrow Wilson's administration has accomplished more than any administration since the Civil War.

Mr. Wilson found an inadequate financial and currency system, one which subjected the country to panics. He gave us the Federal Reserve System, which makes us panic proof, and furnished an elastic currency to meet any emergency. The Democratic administration, by giving us an elastic currency, and by opening wide the doors of trade, and by standing up for the rights of American citizens on the high seas, and by securing recognition from Germany of those rights, has kept us at peace, and has made us the richest nation of the world.

It would seem that these foreign complications, growing out of the European war, and the troubles in Mexico, and by giving us a financial system which has borne the stress of the times, would have absorbed all the time of the administration ; but while all these foreign complications were upon the administration, a great program of domestic legislation, which, as President Eliot, of Harvard, puts it, is memorable in American history, has been put through. The Federal Trade Board is a great aid to the business of this country, and the activities of the Government on behalf of the farmer in giving him the Rural Credit system and the Farmer's Loan Bank, in creating a system of bonded warehouses, in supplying two farm demonstrators in each county in the United States, in spreading information as to production and marketing of crops, in repealing the provision against National Bank's lending money on land, and in making farmer's paper at six months collateral in the Federal Reserve Banks in beginning a system of good roads for the whole country by appropriating eighty million dollars to be expended in the next few years thereon. In the field of labor, the accomplishment has been fully as great, as will be seen by the Workman's Compensation Law, the passage of the Income Tax, which makes the large incomes of the country pay their proportion of the taxes, the stop page of Child Labor in the mills and factories of the country, the eight hour law for Alaska and the district of Columbia, the Adamson eight hour law, the Seaman's Law which prohibits virtual slavery at sea, and many other matters which time forbids mention of.

Never have the activities of the federal government been exercised so much for the mass of the people as in this adminis ration. The Republicans have no issues to present, and this is why no one can pin Mr. Hughes down to the advocacy of anything definite.

Would it be wise for this country, while the Democratic party is doing these great things, to make a change which might undo them all ? If we are progressing in the direction of justice and a square deal for everybody, the people of the United States will see to it that these great measures are carried to their full completion.

And while all this domestic program was being carried out, and our country kept at peace, while practically all the world is at war, the Democratic administration has put our army and navy on a footing which will make us safe from the invasion of any foreign power.

What more could have been done by any administration ? The Republicans have nothing constructive to suggest, and can only offer unfair and unfounded criticisms. Their appeal is to prejudice and sectionalism, and to the discontented elements in our midst, who are enraged because our country has remained neutral. With such elements as constitute the Republican party today, it could accomplish nothing if it got into power.

Woodrow Wilson will be re-elected, but it will take time and the historian's pen to put him on a pedestal as high as his great deeds deserve. He will rank in history with Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln."

Congressman David J. Lewis, candidate for the United States Senate, was then introduced and he was greeted by a great applause when he walked to the front of the platform. He went into a further review of the record of the administration, declaring that it was Woodrow Wilson, aided by a Democratic Congress, who had placed upon the statue books of the nation the tremendous number of progressive laws that the Republican party had ignored and repudiated. He spoke at length of the President's Mexican policy, saying that Wilson had treated the Mexicans in the only way that a nation so distracted as the Mexicans could be treated.

Congressman Jesse D. Price was then introduced. He paid a high tribute to the work of the present administration and spoke of his own participation, and of his opponent's policies as set forth by Mr Duer himself.

The meeting closed with a feeling that old Kent would roll up several hundred majority for Wilson, Lewis and Price. The Chestertown-Centreville Band furnished good music.
