DO YOU WANT PEACE WITH WILSON, OR WAR WITH HUGHES?

There is only one choice as against peace, and that is war. Some of the supporters of that (the Republican) party, a very great body of the supporters of that party, outspokenly declare that they want war; so that the certain prospect of the success of the Republican Party is that we shall be drawn in one form or other into the embroilments of the European war, and that to the south of us the force of the United States will be used to produce in Mexico the kind of law and order which some American investors in Mexico consider most to their advantage. * * *

There is a more serious aspect even than that. There is an immediate result of this thing, my fellow citizens. From this time until the 7th of November it is going to be practically impossible for the present Administration to handle any critical matter concerning our foreign relations, because all foreign statesmen are waiting to see which way the election goes; and in the meantime they know that settlements will be inconclusive.—From President Wilson's address to the Young Men's Democratic League at Shadow Lawn, Sept. 30.

WILSON THE ABLE GUIDE.

Shortsighted Not to Elect Him, Says Mrs. Joseph Fels.

"I have a deep conviction that the hope of Democracy lies with Woodrow Wilson. If we fail to re-elect him, we have much to fear."

Thus speaks Mrs. Mary Fels of Philadelphia, an independent in politics and one of the two American delegates to the Stockholm Peace Conference held in January, 1916. Since the death of her husband, Joseph Fels, she has continued his work in the Fels Commission, founded by him to promote the Single Tax Movement.

"I see no use," she says, "in picking out specific measures, either things done or things left undone. I see them all as a part of a great man striving in a situation incomparably difficult to do what is best for the country that he is trying to save. In this situation and through this endeavor he is becoming more and more the people's friend and the man who can most ably guide the country in the difficult days that lie ahead.

"To me it is so clear that I cannot understand how people may venture to vote for anyone except Mr. Wilson. Mr. Wilson is the man who will inevitably serve the interests of all, except those who are moving heaven and earth to serve their own selfish ends. It is not only Mr. Wilson, it is the people of the United States, that I am thinking of."

THE MAN WHO HAS MADE GOOD.

The Man who has made good,
Is good enough for us
And good to serve four more!
* * *
Here's three cheers
For the past four years:
Woodrow Wilson!
Here's three cheers
For the coming four years:
Woodrow Wilson!
* * *
The Man who has made good
In all that's gone before,
Is surely good enough for us
To serve another four!

WHAT IS BACK OF HUGHES?

Who nominated Hughes?

The Republican national convention under the control of the Republican bosses, captained by Penrose, Barnes, Smoot, Crane, Cannon, et al., watchdogs of privilege, repudiated as political crooks by Roosevelt and the Progressives four years ago.

Who managed Hughes' campaign in the convention?

Taft's former campaign manager, ex-Postmaster General Hitchcock, whose function in previous conventions has been the delivery of the corrupt Republican delegates from Southern States.

Who is supporting Hughes' candidacy?

Wall Street, the predatory trusts, the tariff beneficiaries, the seekers and holders of special privilege, the exploiters of Mexico, the munition manufacturers, the railroads, the bankers, united plutocracy, even its women folks, all enemies of fundamental Democracy, who hope to prostitute government for selfish gain.

What prominent statesmen are supporting Hughes?

William Howard Taft, foremost apostle of reaction; Theodore Roosevelt, disciple of Bernhardi and advocate of war for war's sake; Elihu Root, attorney for malefactors of great wealth, and all the Tory mouthpieces of privilege.

Why are the "interests" supporting Hughes?

Because they expect in return for financial aid, special legislation that will add enormously to the wealth of the few at the expense of the many; because they see in Woodrow Wilson the greatest exponent of Democracy since Jackson, and seek to destroy him lest this nation become a real democracy.

What will Hughes do, if elected?

The nearest he has come to saying what he would do, if elected, was at Milwaukee, when he declared that La Follette's Seaman's bill must be repealed, the Underwood tariff replaced by a higher tari , and the "whole administrative legislative accomplishments wiped off the books for the good of the country."

What is included in these legislative accomplishments?

The Income Tax, the Inheritance Tax, the Child Labor Law, the Federal Reserve banking system, the Farm Loan system, the Good Roads program, the Federal development of Alaska, the Tariff Commission, the Federal Trade Commission, the Shipping bill, autonomy for the Philippines, the Clayton Act curbing government by injunction, the preservation of neutrality, the maintenance of peace, and the enlarged army and navy.

What would Hughes' election signify?

The triumph of reaction and all that it signifies in thwarting human progress.

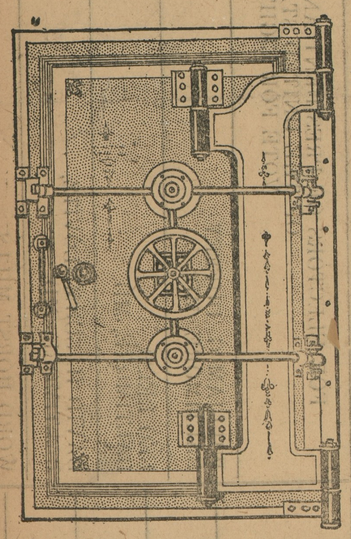

Was there ever a worse-bungled campaign than Mr. Hughes' to date?

The New York Evening Post asked that question in an editorial on Hughes and Roosevelt, and frankly answered its own question. "We cannot readily recall one."
